BAKER GIVES FIGURES ON POLITICAL MATTERS

To the Voters of Chilton County:

As the time is drawing near when we shall have to make our choice as to whom we shall have to serve us as officers for the next four to six years, or just let the other fellow make it for us, I feel that it is my duty to try to encourage every Republican voter I can to be sure to go to the polls on November 7th and do what he knows his duty and every other loyal Republican's duty is and that is to support the Republican ticket from top to bottom.

We have never had a cleaner, more competent set of men nominated in the history of Chilton County.

If you stay away from the polls and fail to vote on November 7th you cause the Republican ticket to get one vote less and cause the Democratic ticket to be one nearer to victory; if you go and vote with the Democrats you cause them to be two closer to us than they would have been if you voted right.

We all know that the issues of the Democratic party are not strong enough to take people that are posted anywhere. So there is only one thing left for them to do and that is to attack the record made by the Republican administration. That is perfectly natural. As Judge Reynolds is the only candidate with a public record as officer we may only expect him to be the center of attack. If they did not attack the records of the Republican party what issue would they have? The largest part of the criticism which is leveled at the splendid chievements of the Republican administration in Chilton County is mere false criticism. It is not made in good faith, it sounds hollow and foolish. It does not ring true. It is made for political effect only. It is an attempt to confuse the minds of the voters and keep them from the real issue.

The Republican party has performed a wonderful task in the last six years in Chilton County. If the Democratic party had turned our county back to the Republicans six years ago in as good shape as they found it twelve yers ago we would now have in the County Treasury over $100,000.00. If we had not have had to build a court house we would have had $175,000.00. Here is the real issue in this empaign: The Democrats spent $225, 000.00 in six years more than they collected. The Republicans spent $175,000.00 less than they collected, not counting interest on the debt the Democrats left us, which is a difference of $400,000.00. The county is better off by having a Republican administration for the last six years than we would have been if we had duplicated the former Democratic administration. Think of it, there is $75,000.00 a year difference in the savings of a Republican administration and the waste of a Democratic administration in Chilton county alone.

Some may say that these figures were mere speculative but if we take the history of the Democatic party, in County, State and Nation, we will have to admit their thuthfulness. Every time the State wants to match a Federal appropriation or do any internal improvement we have to vote on more bonds and thus raise our annual tribute to the rich in order to have the money to do it with.

Our, "He kept us out of War," President Wilson, bought 41,000,000 pairs of shoes for an army of 3,500,000 men to wear only a very few months. He bought 945,000 saddles to put on 86,000 horses, which is eleven for each horse. I have never seen a horse yet that had a back long enough to put eleven saddles on at one time. He bought 2,850,853 halters to put on those 86,000 horses. He must have thought that they were more wonderful than the beast spoken of in Revelations, which had seven heads and ten horns for that would be over thirty-three for each horse. What kind of a looking thing would a horse with 33 heads be? If you want any more such figures as those I can furnish you with dozens of them. All told, President Wilson spent more money in his last term as President than had been spent to carry on our government since July 4, 1776, before this time. Notwithstanding we have had several long and bloody wars in this period of time.

I want to ask the ladies to consider well what the two parties have done for them before casting their votes. Representative Cable (Republican) of Ohio and Senator Colt (Republican) of Rhode Island introduced the "Woman's suffrage bill," in their respective houses of Congress, giving women their right to vote. The bill passed both house of Congress with almost no opposition from Republican Congressmen. Most all the Southern Democratic states voted against the Ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Federal Constitution giving women a right to vote, Tennessee being an exception and it has partly gone Republican since. Most all the Republican states voted for its ratification. If it had not been for Republicans you could not vote today. The first and only Congresswoman ever elected to Congress was elected by the Republican party in Oklahoma. The Republican party is the cause of your sons not being in the trenches in foreign wars today.

Now, in conclusion, I wish to remind the voters that an election day is about the only time that the poor and rich have an equal chance. I was recently very forcibly impressed with a poem of Mr. Whittier regarding elections, a part of which reads as follows:

Who serves to-day upon the list,
Beside the serveded shall stand;
Alike the brown and wrinkled fist,
The gloved and dainty hand.
The rich is strong to-day;
And sleekest broadcloth counts no more
Than homespun frock of gray.

Yours for success on November 7.

LETTER FROM MR. A. J. WILKINS

Editor Union-Banner:

As election time is coming on, I want to urge the people of Chilton County to vote wisely. In this day of confusion there is need for everyone of us, both men nd women, to understand public questions. We must take a deep interest and inform ourselves on community, county, state and national questions. The reason for this is that every public question in the county or state concerns the home in some way, and effects those in the home. The ballot is an important factor in keeping a community or county fit to live in. Every voter should know the attitude of each candidate on moral and educational questions, and use all our influence to help the good and defeat the bad. Let us all vote together for the best interests of our county. I feel sure that the safest way to do this will be to vote the Republican ticket on the 7th of November. We can only know by the record which each party has made in the past.

Yours for the Republican party.

A. J. WILKINS.

Skin Ablaze with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are rundown. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

—NOTICE—

Our trade has increased sufficient to put on the third man and we are looking for the need of the fourth at an early date.

NOVEMBER

VOLUME X. CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, NOV. 2, 1922 NUMBER 28

"Though Ye Slay Me, Yet Will I Trust in You."

Clanton, Ala., Nov. 2, 1922.

To the Republican Voters:

This is the last oportunity I will have of writing to the voters through The Union-Banner, as this is the last issue before the election next Tuesday. The nominees have been busy night and day fighting for the cause of the Republican party in Chilton County. We have not spared time nor expense in the attempt to put the Republican ticket over with a big victory. I have been intimately associated with all the Republican nominees and they are real workers for the party's interest. We have made it clear to you where we stand on every issue, and the record of the Republican party in Chilton County, stands before you today as an open book wherein every man and woman may read and understand. We have considered you important enough to go before you and present our case. We have had speakings at practically every community in the county, and we have given to you the written platform of the party. We ask you then to compare this with the actions of the Democratic nominees. They have not had one single public speaking; they have not presented to the people their platform; they have not told you where they stand on any question; they did attempt to come out through the Chilton County News on cattle dipping, but you neither tell whether they were for it or against it. Of course knowing that the State of Alabama as a whole is Democratic and in favor of cattle dipping, in order for the Democrats of Chilton County to stay in line with the State they will have to favor the dipping of your cattle. But I am glad to say the Republican nominees in their platform are bitterly opposed to this dipping curse, and we will assure you if we are elected to fight it to the end.

My friends, the record of the Democratic party in Chilton County is also before you as an open book. It is a record of which I can truthfully say I have never heard a Democrat boast. They would be glad to close this book forever from the eyes of the public, but they cannot, as it will stand throughout the ages as a warning to all Republicans in Chilton County as a black memory of what the Democrats did to the tax payers and the treasury of our county. I ask you then to read in these two books the record of the two parties. I have been examined for eleven years and have never had to put back one dollar of the money belonging to the county. The last two examiners said, that if the economical management of the county's affairs continued as in the last six years, it would soon be out of debt, a debt of over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars left by Democrats six years previous. My friends, that's what the Democrats left you; that's their record. No wonder they keep silent; no wonder they have no platform. They have only the time to knock the Republican party and your nominees, but they don't think enough of the voters to even go to the trouble of having a single public speaking and letting you know what they intend doing for you if elected. Yet they have even asked some of you to vote the Democratic ticket. Have they promised you that if they were elected they would not extravagany spend Two Hundred Thousand Dollars more of your money? Its no wonder they will not meet the Republicans fair and square on the stump, but they are content to meet you in some dark alley in some private place and try to induce you to split your ticket.

Voters, the verdict stands in your hands today. It is within the power of the Republican party to win his election with one thousand majority. The nominees have done all we could. It now stands with you. Without your help and vote our party will go down in defeat and for the next six years you will be at the mercy of the Democrats and we will be helpless to aid you. You can count on every Democrat going to the polls and voting. But the good people of this county believe in the Republican cause by over One Thousand majority and now it is the solemn duty of every woman and man to vote, regardless of the inconvenience to you. It is far better that you take a little trouble to vote next Tuesday than let the Democrats have the election and then have real trouble for years to come. It is the greatest privilege and honor a person can have and it is now your duty to use it.

The Democrats have depended upon Professor Howard L. Foshee to fight their cause in this campaign. He has practically, with his blades on the Republican nominees, monopolized the front sheet of their paper every week, and they have at all times been found urging him on. Howard says he is still a Republican, but have you noticed anywhere where he has endorsed a single Republican nominee? Have you noticed a sigle line he has written for the good of the Republican party? Hasn't everything Howard has written tended to split up the Republican party and help elect the Democratic ticket? Yet he is your Superintendent of Education directly responsible to the Republican Voters for his office and for the very feed and clothing he wears. Yet do you anywhere find him returning thanks by helping to elect your ticket? My friends, that is more than a lack of appreciation—it is nothing short of desertion. Howard accuses me of trying to help my brother get a government position in Birmingham, which he knows is absolutely untrue. He also acuses me of trying to get my son appointed District Attorney when he knows that I along with other county officials have endorsed Mr. J. B. Atkinson for this position. Mr. Atkinson will substantiate this statement. Yet with it all Howard, I have never been accused of selling out my party, of betraying the trust the people have reposed in me, and I have never been accused of being called a traitor and found fighting in the ranks of the Democrats. I have always been true to my people who have elected me. Another thing I haven't done Howard, I haven't deserted the people of my own raising. I believe that a school boy or girl in Stumpy Hills or in the remotest part of the county should have the same advantages as a boy or girl here at Clanton, and that a Republican boy or girl should be treated like a Democratic boy or girl. Evidently you Howard, do not for look at the itemized account you had printed. Out of $1,134.72 for new equipment $715.30 of that amount went to the Clanton Grammar School which is one of the best equipped now in the county, $220.00 to Isabella School and not a single country school got one penny, yet they need desks, stoves and other kinds of equipment far greater than the Clanton Grammar School. Now look at the heading "Liquidation of debts." Out of $918.50 for this purpose Howard says $770.50 went to the paying of Clanton teachers and the remainder for Thorsby teachers. Not one single penny went to the country schools and you patrons of those schools know that you had to go down in your pockets to help Liquidate your debt. So the Clanton Grammar School got the biggest portion of it and the country schools who really need the help got nothing. So you can readily see why Professor Pegues of the Clanton Grammar school is so anxious to take Howard's side. My friends, I believe the Republican boy or girl at the remotest school house has as much right to go to school nine months a year as a Democratic child here at Clanton, and a right to sit upon just as good desks, and be just as warm and comfortable . I believe it is time these things should stop and if I am elected Judge of Probate I will help you to stop it. Yet Howard holds his office and gets his salary mainly through you Republicans of the country districts and thats what you get in return, and yet he says he is still a Republican. If Howard is a Republican let him act as one, and quit being a Democrat.

I have always believed in being open to the voters. I have never forgotten the fact that every Republican official elected by the people is directly responsible to the people and should strive at all times to please them. I have always made my business the business of the public who elected me. I have tried to be courteous to you in my office, and have endeavored to attend to your individual business in the office promptly and efficiently to both Republicans and Democrats alike. I believe in equal rights to all and have tried to make my decisions according to law and evidence, and to always let them be tempered with mercy when the case demanded it. My friends know that I have never turned the deaf ear to those in distress, but have at all times when called upon been willing to go to their rescue. I have for thirty-two years fought the cause of the Republican party whether I was in office or out of office, for ever looking to the interest of the common people. Of course I have some Republican enemies, but one has never yet called me a traitor to the party and my friends, and if I should go down in defeat on next Tuesday, you will find me as long as my life's blood last, fighting for your cause. We have built a strong party in the county; it has been my life's work and I shall continue as long as my strength lasts to foster the principles of justice and righteousness of the Republican party.

I am not unmindful of what the Republicans have done for me and I only hope I have returned to you as much. It now lies within your power to either elect me or defeat me. I have tried to make you an obedient and faithful servant and I am now asking you if I have been true to the trust you have placed in me; if I have been loyal to your party, and efficient in managing your county's affairs, to put me back in office where I will have a still better chance to show my appreciation for this honor.

My friends, your party is at stake, your interest in the county is at stake. I ask you to do some deep thinking, to compare the record of the two parties in the past and their promises for the future, and then go to the polls, unabised and unafraid and vote the honest conviction of your conscience.

I now ask you for re-election with a clear conscience, for I believe I have done my duty by you, and your party and the county; but if you Republicans see fit to defeat me and elect Mr. Messer, I will take defeat as the will of the people. But as I said before, you will find me forever in the ranks of the Republican party and as Jobe of old said, "Tho you slay me, yet will I serve you."

Let us all go to the polls and make this the biggest Republican victory in the history of Chilton county.

Yours for the success of the Republican party.

Respectfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

THE UNION-BANNER IS REPUBLICAN AT BOTH ENDS

I have not had much to say personally during this campaign, but before election day which is near at hand, I wish to say to the people of Chilton County that I as Business Manager of The Union-Banner, heartily and unqualifiedly endorse and sustain the steps which the leaders of the Republican party have taken in regard to this campaign. I am wholly and solely behind the Republican ticket in toto, and I want my friends over the County to know exactly where I stand.

After having just witnessed both a Democratic and a Republican administration in Chilton County, I cannot see why any wayfaring man 'though he be a fool can't compare them and determine which one has done the most for the county's interest. And I would like to know what it is that we have a right to expect from our officers if it is not efficient service. What we want from a political party is service; and let me ask you, what party has given us service in the past? Did Judge Deason and his gang do more for Chilton County than Reynolds and his force have done? The answer to this question is obvious indeed, and I don't think any voter needs any further reason to vote the Republican ticket this time. What has something that happened in Birmingham or Montgomery got to do with the local affairs of Chilton County? What we are voting for in Chilton County is a set of officers who will and can take care of our County government.

We need men for officers who are capable of running those particular offices, and who at the same time are NOT DEAF to the voice of the people. The Republican party has proven its ability to furnish us just such officers, and I say, let's hold on to this party.

Some things which have been said during this campaign may be so construed as to appear that the life and existence of The Union-Banner is totally dependent upon the printing business which we receive from Chilton County. I wish to say that this is not the case, because we have existed through several administrations without scarcely anything from the County, and we can do the same again if it ever becomes necessary. However, we don't want our county officials and citizens to think that we do not appreciate the business they have given us, because we do very highly. In this case as in many others, they have proven that they believe in patronizing home folks and keeping the money at home as much so as possbile.

Now, in conclusion, I want to urge every Republican to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for the party that has stood by us in the past, and which we have no reason to doubt will do the same in the future.

Yours very truly,
T. E. WYATT.

BEAT 16 WILL STAND BY REPUBLICAN TICKET

Editor Union-Banner:

As I have not seen anything from here lately I want to say a few words by your permission. It seems from what I can learn that there is some confusion in the Republican party in some places around the county; I am sorry to learn of this. But I am glad to say that no such condition exists in Beat 16. But you know there is always opposition to everything that is good.

I am sure that the people in our Beat did not get all the men nominated whom they voted for in the primary; but we are for the nominees now. The howls of discord and confusion we have heard from a few disappointed parties around Clanton has not confused us a bit. When the Republican party wants us in Bat 16 for anything, all you have to do is to call us. We are ready to do anything we can for the success of the ticket. It is not a question of any one man now. It is the principles for which the Republican party stands. We believe all the nominees of the Republican party are all right, and will make us good officers.

I say to the voters of Chilton county, come on next Tuesday, and let us show the word that we believe in standing true to the Republican party in Chilton County, because that party has stood true to us in the past, and will do the same thing in the future.

Respectfully,
R. M. ROBINSON.

JOHN S. DENNIS IS FOR ALL REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

Editor Union-Banner:

As the day of the election is drawing nigh, I want to say a few words to the Republican voters of the county through your paper.

I want to urge you Republicans to stand together and help us elect our entire Republican ticket. We will be in a bad fix if we turn the affairs of our county over to the Democrats again. We know what it will be for we have had to put up with some of it in the past.

I want to say to the voters that I expect to vote the Republican ticket straight from bottom to top, just as I said after the primary. I did not get my choice in full in the primary, but I am willing to take what I got together with what my neighbors got, and elect the whole business next Tuesday.

People, I say don't let the dirty talk of H. L. Foshee discourage you. He is a dead issue everywhere, and there is nobody who thinks enough about him to bury him.

I hear that the smart Ellicks of the Democratic party are going to watch the voting places this time to see that everything is carried on just to suit them. I want to say that we are all honest up here in Beat 11. We always give a man what he gets. If he gets one, we give it to him. If he gets fifty, we give it to him. So if you don't mind your watchman from Beat 11 will come back to Clanton with his head skinned on the night of the 7th. We don't need to be watched in Beat 11 in order to make us do the right thing.

Now Republicans, don't fail to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote your honest convictions, and leave your prejudice at home so that you will be free to see and support the best interests of our county.

Respectfully,
JOHN S. DENNIS.

OFFERS TO ERECT BUILDING

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 31—N. J. Bell of Montgomery, has offered to erect for the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation and its subsidiary organizations, a building suitable to its needs. The officers of the organization have disscused the offer but will not go further with it until it has been fully decided what size, location, and sort of construction will give the best results. It has been tentatively decided, however, that reinforced concrete, fireproof throughout, and probably six stories high will eventually be chosen. Satisfactory terms will be given for refinancing the necessary sum when it is advanced.

OVER 40,000 BALES

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 31.—Receipts of cotton by the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association have passed the 40,000 bale mark. Grading this cotton has been going on steadily as it has been received. Most of the cotton shows grades of middling and better. In fact, there are more than twice as many bales of middling and the grades above than there are grades below middling.

LOST LAPROBE.—Double plush, Black on one side and red and black on the other side with picture of dog; lost between Clanton and Falakto on highway Tuesday night, Oct. 24. Finder please return to Union-Banner and get reward. 1t pd.

REYNOLDS VOTED TO KEEP NEGROES AND THIEVES OUT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in your paper to place before the people of Chilton County all the true facts about the matter which has been raised against me by Howard Foshee, Kelly Gentry, S. C. Dawsey and Company, relative to what they seem to want people to believe was a great political crime which I committed at the recent Republican State Convention in Birmingham. I want to tell the poeple that I voted to keep not only black negroes out of Alabama's Republican party, but I voted to keep out white thieves and traitors as well.

Now the following correspondence is rather long, but I wish to place it before the people in full so that they may see just who it was that I voted to keep out of the State Convention. I ask you to read it carefully in order that you may get a correct idea of the kind of a man Mr. S. C. Dawsey, of Montgomery is. He is a man who is not even qualified to vote, because he has been convicted of stealing four dollars from an old negro woman in Montgomery. Yet he is the Chairman of the great white Republican party in Montgomery County, and it was his delegates to the Birmingham Convention that we turned out along with the negroes from Montgomery County.

Letter From Dawsey to Reynolds

In the first place I want to call your attention to a letter which I received from Mr. Dawsey, dated Oct. 4, 1922, as follows:

Montgomery , Ala., Oct. 4, 1922.
Hon. L. H. Reynolds,
Clanton, Ala.
Dear Sir:

I see in last week's issue of The Union-Banner where you reply to one of Kelley Gentry, and take issue with him as to your position in the proceedings of the State Republican Convention held in Birmingham September 7th. And to support your statement you have published letters from Mr. O. D. Street and J. A. Bingham.

Now Judge, why is it you did not have published the letter of Mr. Pope M. Long, dated Sept. 23rd which was a reply to your letter to him dated September 2nd. He gave you a statement of the Montgomery County case, just as Mr. Street and Mr. Bingham. We want to know why you failed to have Mr. Long's letter published?

I am going to defend the white Republicans of Montgomery County if it takes your political scalp to do it.

I ask that you give this letter of Mr. Long's full publication in next week's Union-Banner. If you fail to do it, I will then have it published in some other paper in your county the week following.

We know where you have always stood on this question and was very much surprised when I saw you stand up in the Convention and vote against white Republicans and favor the negro.

But, it is generally supposed that your reason for doing so was the promise you have to make your son, Grady, U. S. District Attorney. This is so fully overshadowed you political vision that you were unable to distinguish between white men and negroes.

I will wait for next week's issue of your county paper and if Mr. Long's letter does not appear in full will have it published in some other paper along with this letter to you.

Yours truly,
S. C. DAWSEY.
749 Clayton St.

Letter From Reynolds to Dawsey.

On October 11th, I replied to the above letter of Mr. Dawsey, as follows:

I have witheld publication of these letters waiting for Mr. Dawsey to publish the things he said he was going to publish.

Clanton, Ala., October 11, 1922.
Mr. S. E. Dawsey,
Montgomery, Ala.
Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 4th inst, will say that I have been very busy and did not know if you were white or colored, so I did not know how to answer it, but I have made some inquiry and have found out that you are a white man, so I shall endeavor to now answer your questions.

You asked me why I did not have Mr. Long's letter of Sept. 23rd published. I will state that I feel like I am competent to manage my own political campaign without any suggestion from you whatsoever. I also had a letter from Mr. C. B. Kennamer which I did not publish as I did not need it.

There must be a conspiracy formed outside of the County for the purpose of running the politics of this County and especially to try to defeat me. You mentioned Mr. Long's letter and H. L. Foshee, the County Superintendent of Education, and others who are endeavoring to defeat the Republican ticket and elect the Democratic ticket, have mentioned the Long letter, which shows there is a conspiracy.

You say you are going to defend the white Republican Party of Montgomery County if it takes my political scalp. I will say to you that my political scalp belongs to the Republican party of Chilton county and if they want it they can get it November 7th, but I do not think you will have the pleasure of sharing it with them.

The Republicans of this County are all white people and when we meet in our mass meetings we do not have to sit with negroes, neither can but few of tiem be pulled around or swayed with money or outside influence. I have been informed that plenty of money would be furnished to the Chilton County Democrats to carry this election and have also been informed that much of it would come from Montgomery.

You say that if I do not have Mr. Long's letter published that you will have it published in some other paper. You are at liberty to have this leter published and I am sure the Dmocratic paper will be the proper pace for it as the only purpose you or H. L. Foshee or other associates could have would be to defeat the Rpublican ticket and elect the Democratic ticket and I assure you that the Democrats will appreciate anything you may do for them for they will need about 1,000 extra votes to elect their ticket.

You state, "We know where you hve always stood on this question ad was very much surprised when I saw you stand up in the Convention and vote against white Republicans and favor the negro," and I say to you when you or any other person states that I voted against white people for negroes, or voted for a negro, that you know it is false and tat there is no truth in it.

The facts are these: I knew nothing at all of the contest from Montgomery County. No one had ever mentioned the contest to me. I did not know which side represented the whites or which side represented negroes. I did not know that you had a negro chairman in Montgomery County. I was not a member of the State Executive Committee that heard the contest and not a single member of the Committee, neither did any one from your County mention it to me. The State Executive Committee made a report of Temporary Roll of Delegates and left Montgomery County blank and not a single word said on the floor about it and no minority report was made by any member of the Committee and Mr. J. B. Atkinson, a Member of the State Executive Committee from this County, sat just behind me in the Conventin and never mentioned the contest to me and made no protest to the Convention when the Executive Committee reported; then there was a Committee on Credentials appointed and they made an unanimous report, still leaving Montgomery county without representation, then it was that a notion was made to add two delegate from Montgomery County and not a word was said about a negro delegate and in fact not a word was said about a negro in any way, then a motion was made to table the motion which had been made to seat the Delegates from Montgomery County and I stood up with the majority of the delegates from this county and voted to table the motion, and this simply meant to adopt the report of the State Executive Committee and the report of the Credential Committee.

I will say to you that I stand today where I have always stood and anyone who says I have changed my ideas on the negro question states a wilful and malicious falsehood.

You state, "But it is generally supposed that your reason for so doing was the promise you have to make your son, Grady, U. S. District Attorney. This so fully overshadowed your political vision that you were unable to distinquish between white men and negroes."

You are certainly mistaken when you say that I took any part in the State Convention for having my son appointed District Attorney for I have endorsed J. B. Atkinson of this place for that position, and so have the other Republican officials here. I have enthusiastically given Mr. Atkinson my entire support and went to Mr. Brooks Lawrence, who was at that time Chairman of the Anti-Saloon League and got him to endorse Mr. Atkinson; infact, I have done all I could in the interest of his candidacy and not a single endorsement, so far as I know, has been withdrawn from Mr. Atkinson, and yet it is the opinion of 95% of the Republicans of this county that he is behind Mr. H. L. Foshee and his crowd that is trying to defeat the Republican ticket, which means they are trying to elect a Democratic ticket. It is reported that Mr. Atkinson takes men in his office and talks with them confidentially and tries to get them to vote a Democratic ticket. On account of his opposition to the Republican nominees, many of the Republican officials have talked of withdrawing their endorsement from him and I suggested to them that they not take and hasty action until we are sure he has deserted the Republican party and is trying to elect the Democratic Ticket.

I have not endorsed my own son for District Attorney, and I do not know of a single Republican in this County who has endorsed him, or requested his appointment, and as I stated, my endorsement stands for Mr. Atkinson until I am sure he is supporting the Democratic Ticket and then I withdraw for I do not want to endorse a traitor to our Party.

I was told by a gentleman yesterday that F. O. Dudley (whose political life is well known in this County) is dictating the political fight against me.

In your last paragraph you threaten me by saying "I will wait for next week's issue of your County paper and if Mr. Long's letter does not appear in full, will have it published in some other paper along with this letter to you." I again assure you that you are at liberty to have the letters published but I request that you have this letter published along with them and in the same paper at the same time.

In conclusion I want to assure you that I hope the Republican Ticket which you have nominated in Montgomery County will get a large vote. Two years ago when I was a candidate for U. S. Senator I received over 77,000 votes from the State and received about 300 from Montgomery County. I hope that you double this amount.

It seems like the 77,000 votes I received throughout the State causes a great deal of confusion in this campaign, for I was informed recently by a leading Democrat that because of a large vote I had received that money would be poured into Chilton County from other parts of the State, to try to kill my influence and defeat me at home, for they were afraid that in the future I would assist in building up a Republican party in the State.

We shall be glad to have you come up to any of our political meetings, if you feel like it is your duty, or in your power to defeat the Republican Party in Chilton County, and assure you that we shall be glad to have you explain any matter you know in reference to any of the candidates.

The Republicans of Chilton County are honest and are always glad to hear both sides and I assure you that I shall appreciate your presence at any of the political meetings where I am and will let you make any explanation that you desire.

As for Mr. Long, I have always regarded him as a good Republican and I hope he is not sore because he was defeated as Chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee. He requested me to serve on his State Campaign Committee but it was impossible for me to serve on this Committee and I hope he is not sore at me and wants to try to help defeat me because I did not see fit to help him in his race.

I again request you, if you publish any of the correspondence between you and me that you publish the entire correspondence and leave no part of this letter out.

Yours very truly,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

What Kind of a Man is This Fellow Dawsey?

A friend of mine in Montgomery, who learned of the combination between Dawsey's crowd down there and Howard Foshee up here, to try to defeat me in this election, happened to know something about Mr. Dawsey. This friend sent for me to come to Montgomery. When I went he placed before me some court records which show very clearly what kind of a character Mr. Dawsey is. Now I said above that Dawsey is not even a qualified voter, although he is the Chairman of Howard Foshee's and Kelley Gentry's great white Republican party in Montgomery county. Right here I wish to bring to your attention the law which disqualifies people from registering and voting.

Section 182 Constitution of Alabama, 1901, says the following persons shall be disqualified both from registry and voting:

All idots and insane persons; those by reason of conviction of crime be disqualified from voting at the time of ratification of this Constitution; those who shall be convicted of treason, murder, arson, embezzlement, malfeasance, in office, larceny, receiving stolen property, obtaining money under false pretense, etc.

Let The Court Record Speak

Here is a transcript properly certified by Henry N. Hughes, Clerk of the Montgomery County Circuit Court, which gives a bit of the history of Mr. Dawsey's past life as it is of record in Montgomery County, where he is the head of this aforementioned great white Republican party of Kelly Gentry, Howard Foshee, and a few others, some of whom are themselves disqualified to vote:

Transcript of proceedings in the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, in the case of the city of Montgomery, versus, S. C. Dawsey, convicted in said court of the offense of false pretenses, which case was appealed by the Defendant Dawsey from the recorders Court of the city of Montgomery.

The State of Alabama, Montgomery County.—City of Montgomery.

Before me, W. H. Centerfit, Sergt. of Police of the City of Montgomery, personally appeared Mary Aikins, who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says that she has probable cause to believe and does believe that S. C. Dawsey on or about the 14th day of November, 1917, within the limits of said City, County and State, and within the Police Jurisdiction of the City of Montgomery, did by false pretense or token and with the intent to injure and defraud obtained from the affiant four dollars ($4.00) in the United States currence the property of the affiant.

C. Dawsey was de-ndant as fully and completely as te same appears of record in said Gurt.

Witness my hand, this the 21st day c August, A. D. 1922.

H. N. HUGHES,
Clerk Circuit Court
Montgomery County.

From this it cannot but be apparat to you that S. C. Dawsey Chairman of the meeting which elected l. E. King, and J. P. Dimmick delegates was not a qualified voter, therefore any action taken by said meeting as illegal and void.

S. C. Dawsey, Chairman; J. C. Inceford, J. T. Wheeler, J. H. Hollidy, W. Kelley Gentry, A. G. Perry, Tomas J. Scott, J. J. Hilliday, J. P. Immick.

From the above correspondence between Mr. S. E. Dawsey and myself you may see the class of men that are tring to defeat me in this campaign. This man Dawsey who is Chairman of the wonderful Republican party in Montgomery County and who was covicted of fraudently obtaining $4.00 from Mary Aikins, an old negro woman, was sentenced to work 10 days on the streets of Montgomery he then appealed his case to the Ciruit Court and was convicted befor Judge Gatson Gunter, by a Jury; and when any person is convicted on a narge of False Pretenses, it is thesame as he has stolen, and he is distanchised so that he is not allowed to vote, by law.

The correspondence also clearly shows that there was a conspiracy formed outside of this county to try to defeat me and that H. L. Foshee was to lead the fight, for S. C. Dawsey asked me why I did not publish a letter from Pope M. Long, dated September 23rd, and you will remember, Howard has asked this same thing two or three times through the paper. Mr. Long lives at Cordova, Mr. Foshe here and Mr. Dawsey at Montgomery, and unless there was a conspracy, how did they know that I had received a letter from Mr. Long.

I think I have made it plain that I voted to turn the negroes out of the Republican Party and if Howard would tell the truth he would admit that I helped to trim him so that he could not carry any influence with him to the Democratic Party.

I will say in conclusion that I stand for a clean Republican party and I feel like I did the right thing when I voted to turn out Dawsey, the negroes, and Howard Foshee who is a traitor to the Republican Party, and let them go to the Democratic Party where they belong, for their negro Chairman in Montgomery has already written a letter to the Advertiser, advising the negroes to go into the Democratic Party, so Howard and his negro Chairman are harmoniously working to-day for the Democratic Party.

Called Hand of Howard Foshee

In reply to the letter of Howard Foshee published in last wek's Chilton County News, I sent him the following challenge Friday morning:

Prof. H. L. Foshee,
Clanton, Ala.
Dear Sir:

I notice an article in this week's issue of the Chilton County News, signed by you, in which many wilful and malicious lies are stated about me.

I notice that you also state that you can say these same things in my presence. I will speak at Jemison, Saturday, the 28th, at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., at Clanton at 2 o'clock p. m., and at Thorsby at 7 o'clock p. m., on the same date and I invite you to be present and defend yourself in person because I am going to brand many of the things you said as lies and I had rather you would be present to hear what I have to say, and defend yourself with an equal division of time.

Yours truly,
L. H. REYNOLDS,

W. F. DeSHAZO.

I spoke at Jemison, Clanton and Thorsby Saturday. Prof. Foshee was in his office in the Courthouse while I was speaking in Clanton. He did not have the courage to come out and defend the statements he had made in the paper, because he knew they were not true. I hear he is preparing to send out some more circulars the last of this week. I cannot see how any one can pay any attention to anything he says, since he did not have man enough to come before the public and defend his own writing.

Mr. H. L. Foshee was invited to leave a Republican meeting at the court house where there were over a hundred Republicans, and when every Beat in the County was represented, because he was taking notes in the interest of the Democratic party. When he left the meeting only one man followed him, and this man's daughter is working for Mr. H. L. Foshee and is being paid with the people's tax money, and is helping to send out literature for the Democratic campaign. This same man has another daughter who married the son of the Democratic nominee for Probate Judge.

Respectfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE

Acting on information brought by airplane, the Brewton fire department recently was rushed to Flomaton, 15 miles from Brewton and assisted materially in saving that town from a much more disastrous blaze than it experienced, which was $15,000. The news was brought to Brewton by Lieutenant Owens, flying a navy craft from Pensacola to Washington and forced to descend because of engine trouble. Passing over Flomaton, he saw the fire blazing and from the description he gave on landing it was believed that the town of Flomaton was endangered and tire-fighting equipment was rushed there and assisted materially in keeping the flames from spreading. The fire had spread to the Western Union office, preventing any message from being sent out that would bring aid.

The Pilot club, composed of business women of Tuscaloosa auctioned off chickens of every kind on opening night of the county fair, held at Tuscaloosa. The Pilots collected the rarest display of odd chickens for the occasion; each chicken being named after a member of the club and the variagated fowls were sold by name at public auction for cash. The proceeds of this unique sale will go to defray the expenses of the fair, which, unlike other fairs, is to be free of charge.

Mrs. S. M. Henson, of Idabel, Okla., is in a serious condition in an Anniston hospital as a result of injuries received in a fall from a train near Bynum, five miles below Anniston, on the main line of the Southern Railway. It is believed that Mrs. Henson was passing from one coach to another and was thrown from the train by a sudden lurch. She was brought to Anniston on the train from which she fell, and it is reported that her injuries may prove fatal.

Bill Hanson, who is serving a four year sentence in the Alabama penitentiary for murderous assault recently lost a $10,000 damage suit in the circuit court at Gadsden when a judgment by default was rendered by Judge Steele. Hanson was convicted of assaulting Henry Kitchens and the latter sued him for damages in addition to the criminal prosecution.

Mrs. Martha H. Gilmore of Mobile, has filed suit in the circuit court against the Mobile Gas company for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Gilmore alleges in her complaint that the gas company, without any lawful cause, cut off the gas supply in her home, 10 days after she paid the gas company in full within the discount period.

Suit asking damages in the sum of $25,000 have been filed at Birmingham by C. G. Bandman against Dr. R. Y. Jones, who is charged in the petition with running down and killing Jacob Bandman, the plaintiff's father, in an automobile accident Sept. 20.

With four heavy frosts for the Huntsville section, the truck growers have brought in all the green tomatoes and garden truck that will finish up the pickling season. This vegetation was gathered just before the first frost and a good price is being paid for tomatoes.

Thomas W. Martin, president of the Alabama Power company, has asked the Alabama Public Service Commission to permit the Alabama Power company to reduce electric light current rates an average of 8 per cent to residential consumers in Alabama.

Under the auspices of the Extension Department of the Horticultural Department of the Alabama Experiment Station a two days' orchard school will be held at Tuscaloosa on Nov. 21 and 22 for farmers and home orchard growers.

Ground has been broken for the erection of a handsome new school building for colored children at Northport, Tuscaloosa County. The new school will cost $6,000, and will acommodate about 200 pupils.

Gov. Thos. E. Kilby has accepted the invitation of members of Montgomery Post No. 2, American Legion, to be their honor guest at the post's next monthly dinner, to be held on November 9.

The records in Probate Judge Troup's office at Deactur, show that more than 200 automobile licenses have been paid this year than were paid last year up to Nov. 1.

Much interest is being manifested in the poultry organization organized in Jasper recently, known as the Walker County Poultry Association. The association will meet again on November 15, when all poultry raisers of the county are invited to join the newly organized association, which stands for more and better poultry in Walker county.

The setting of the docket of the Walker County court at Jasper has been postponed from the first Monday in November to November 20, on account of the general election.

The hyradulic mining of coal by the Alco Coal company, at Alco, Tuscaloosa county, has begun after several months of preparation. An elaborate wiring system for transmission of electricity from the Alabama Power Company's transmission lines to the hydraulic plant of this company has been completed, and has been connected with the large motors which will pump water from Hurricane Creek for washing away the surface from the coal. Fleetwood Rice, attorney and general manager for the new company, stated that about 500 tons of coal will be mined a day by this new method. He also stated that as this new method of mining is more fully developed the output will probably be from 800 to 1,000 tons a day. This will be done at approximately half the cost of the steam shovel method of mining.

Further relief of the prevailing car shortage situation on Alabama railroads was forecasted in a letter received by the Alabama Public Service commission from W. S. Andrews, assistant to the vice president of the Southen allway. In this letter in which he replies to a request from the commission that the Southern put forth every effort to relieve the car shortage situation, Mr. Andrews says Southern Railway. In this letter in empty box cars into Alabama territory from distant points, without regard to expense. He adds that the Southern is doing everything in its power to increase the number of empty cars available in this state.

Believing that separation for three years automatically created a divorce, according to his statement to officers, LaFayette Ward was married again at Gadsden without going through the formality of divorcing his first wife, and as a result is in the county jail on the charge of bigamy. Ward's first wife lives in Attalla and he had set up a home with the second wife nearby.

At a meeting of the Huntsville council recently, the majority of aldermen elected W. G. Carter as city clerk over the wishes of the mayor. Mayor Adams claims that he had not been treated with the proper courtesy, and that he would never let Mr. Carter serve as city clerk under the circumstances upon which he was elected. The mayor has also declared that the present city clerk, Charles L. Townes would remain at his seat of duty.

BEAT 14

Beat 14 will vote right from top to bottom. Vote early. Go rain or shine. Don't stay at home. Your success and ours depends on you, fellow Republicans. Don't forget the mistake of 1910.

We failed to get all our offices, but got yours. We will vote for yours as we would like for you to vote for ours.

"The Chilton County News" tells its readers to not be "slackers." See the point? It quotes the law on how to vote a split ticket; that is for you, fellow Republican. See? All honor to our defeated candidates. Let them do their duty like real men and women and they will ultimately be victors. Did you ever know it to fail?

Don't make the mistake of voting against your Republican brethren and sisters. Some have done so in the past and regreted it, but too late.

Vote with your fellow Republicans and you will be glad.

Miss Pauline Taylor, of Roanoke, Ala., has taken up her work as the first rural supervisor of schools of Coosa county. The financial condition of the school system has prevented the county board engaging a rural supervisor earlier.

Farmers of Walker and Winston counties, through the Federal Farm Loan Bureau and through the Federal Farm Loan Bank of New Orleans are taking advantage of the loans from these institutions, according to the county demonstration agents of these counties. The enrollment this year of 2,000 students is not only the greatest in the history of the University of Alabama, but the increase from 1,633 students last year is the largest which has ever been made in one year. Every county in Alabama and nearly every incorporated city and village, is represented in the enrollment.

The University of Alabama Masonic club is one of the most active clubs of its kind in the south. At a recent regular meeting of this club it was decided that it would have a degree team for the coming year, and Bill Porter was placed in charge of this team. The team will practice at least twice each month.

HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY CONTEST A GREAT SUCCESS

It was great. That Library Contest. The Tutwiler Society finally won out by a very small margin. A total of $97.20 was raised for the purchase of new books for the high school library. Publishers are now being asked to submit bids upon the books which the school desires to purchase. In addition to the above through state aid we have recently ordered about 30 new volumes. The Manual Arts Class will make extra bookcases at a very nominal cost to properly shelve the new books. It is very gratifying to the student body to know that we will soon have more than 100 more good wholesome books for supplementary reading. The faculty is well pleased with the use that the students are making of the present library. A great majority of the enrollment of the school raised their quota, one dollar, and many exceeded this amount. No finer

A STATEMENT FROM GRADY REYNOLDS

Clanton, Ala., Nov. 2, 1922.

Editor Union-Banner:

In Howard Foshee's official mouthpiece the front sheet of the Chilton County News there appeared last week an article in which Howard attempted to drag in everybody and everything he did not personally like. Incidentally I happened to be one of them and now I think it necessary to put Howard right about some things. From a general reading of his article he seems to think the whole world has gone wrong, except Howard and he monopolizes the entire front sheet of the Democratic paper enlightening us common people about some of the things he is so well informed. I think Howard needs to be enlightened a great deal more than we common people from the reading of some of his articles.

Howard wants to know why I did not keep the Treasurer's office during the year 1922. The fact is Howard, I took it at a loss the previous year, and my law practice increased to such an extent that I was losing money by holding the office. You also have probably forgotten that the Treasurer's job was advertised in the Union-Banner for two or three weeks, and given to the lowest bidder. You, Howard, or any other person had a right to put in your bid, if you would have been willing to give up your job as Superintendent of Education.

Howard seems also peeved because we have defended the County in several suits. Yes, we have defended the County in some half dozen suits or more and I might incidentaly add we had an occasion to defend the County against a suit you, Howard, brought against it for stamps used during the summer months when you practically had no occasion to use them as very few schools were in session. You remember, Howard, do you not, what happened? The Court held that you would have to pay from your own pocket what you were attempting to make the tax payers pay. And so you had to pay yourself this item which you were trying to make the people pay. I would not have told this on you Howard, but I remember somewhere you said the common people should know the truth and I am sure you will not mind them knowing the truth about this. I will also say that we have not been paid one single penny for our services. I think these services have been acceptable as we have not lost but one suit of probably a dozen filed against the County. We have also advised the Commissioners Court on legal questions and have never presented a bill for these services, and have refused to file any suits against the County. Of course, we do not claim any great credit for all this, as it is every good loyal citizens duty to render services to his county but we would just like for the good common people to know what you, Howard, have done for the County without charging them a mighty good price for it, and on one occasion as I have just mentioned above trying to charge the County when you had done nothing.

If there are any other questions you would like to know about my business, I shall be glad to inform you, Howard.

Yours very truly,
GRADY REYNOLDS.

CLANTON PRODUCE COMPANY CHANGES HANDS

Messrs Jesse Baker and Tom Taylor, who have been operating the Clanton Produce Company for several years past have sold out the business to Mr. P. H. Connell and Mr. W. H. Kendrick. The new managers are taking charge the first of this month.

Messrs Connell and Kendrick are two hustling business men who come from Elmore County, although they are old Chilton County boys having been raised up in this county. They are going to move their families here and make their homes in Clanton. We extend to the gentlemen a hearty welcome into our thriving little city.

Mr. Baker and Mr. Taylor will be missed in the business circles of Clanton, but at the same time we are fortunate in having added to our list of merchants Messrs Connell and Kendrick.

Mr. Jesse Baker asks us to announce that he will be still found at the store with the new men for a few weeks, where he will be glad to have those who owe him call and settle same.

Sam Littleton of Route 1, was a visitor to Clanton Wednesday.

Mr. N. G. Carroll of Route 2, brought The Union-Baner a potato Wednesday which weighed 6 1-4 pounds.

TANLAC DEMAND IS GREATER THAN EVER IN BEFORE HISTORY

Modern Plants Have Increased Capacity of 62,240 Bottles A Day But Makers Are Still Behind Orders — Medicine Publicly Endorsed by Best People Everywhere.

During the first seven months of this year 3,584,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold and a new world record for a proprietary medicine is established.

Tanlac's wide-spread and ever increasing popularity is the strongest possible proof of its unquestioned merit. No product, no matter how extensively advertised, could continue to establish world records for sales year after year if it did not produce actual and positive results.

Tanlac is composed of the most beneficial roots, herbs and barks known to medical science. The formula is ethical and comforms to all pure food and drug laws, and althoug Tanlac's superiority is abundantly supported by leading authorities it is the people themselves who have made Tanlac what it is. Millions have used it and have told other millions what it has done, while thousands of the best people in every community have given public statements of the great benefits they have received by taking it.

REDUCTION IN RATES BY THE ALABAMA POWER CO.

The following statement given out by Mr. Thomas W. Martin, President of the Aalbama Power Company, on last Friday, will prove to be of interest to the many patrons of this company in Clanton:

"The Alabama Power Company today filed with the Alabama Public Service Commisison a revised schedule of lighting rates under which the steps in the present rate are so changed that there will be a substantial reduction in the lighting rates of all users of over thirty kilowatt hours per month.

"We also filed with the Commission a new schedule for a combined lighting, cooking and heating rate for domestic use, which will also be a substantial reduction over the present rates now in effect.

"We have filed the new rates because of the growing demand throughout the State for the use of electricity in the homes for a variety of purposes, and especially for cooking. This reduction will apply to approximately 20,000 customers of this company."

To the Republicans of Chilton County:

FINAL APPEAL FROM CHAIRMAN OF REPUBLICAN COUNTY CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

As Manager of the present Republican Campaign in Chilton County, I desire to say a few words to the voters this week, as the campaign is rapidly coming to its close, and soon the verdict will be registered at the ballot box.

We have made a hard fight for the election of the entire Republican ticket. We have sought by every honorabel means to place all the important facts before the people in order that they might vote intelligently and for the best interests of themselves. All the candidates on the Republican ticket have been loyal to the cause, and I feel that our case is in good shape to go before the voters on next Tuesday.

We have sought to blot out any differences that might have existed in the Republican patry before the primary although some who claim to be Repubilcans have seemingly joined hands with the Democrats in the effort to thwart our purposes and bring about the defeat of some if not all our candidates. I am frank to say that I believe their efforts will prove to have been in vain when the expression of the voters on next Tuesday is seen.

I want to call to the minds of the Republicans just here the plans and policies that have been pursued by the Democrats in this campaign. They have avoided any reference to or attempt at justification of the extravagant and reckless administration, which they once put upon the shoulders of our people. That record is a nightmare that haunts them at every turn of the road, and they have not dared to even as much as mention it, say nothing of defending it. Let me remind you here that the Democratic party which is asking you for your votes now in this campaign is the same Democratic party that once put our county so hopelessly in debt and wasted hundreds of thousands of dollars of the peoples tax money.

Another thing that they have sought to do is to keep the flames of prejudice at white heat; and this was done to keep the minds of the people from carefully and coolly considering the records of the two parties in the past. The Democrats have not offered the people any reason why they should be elected to manage your county affairs. They have not expressed themselves upon any of the vital questions that will come up for disposal by the county officials in the next four to six years. They have not told you how they stand upon the cattle dipping question, and many other propositions upon which you have a right to know the attitude of anyone who is asking you to vote them into office. "Elect us to office, and when we get in we will do as we please," is their motto. Remember what this county got into once before when they took such a program of the Democratic party and gave them control of the county affairs.

I am gald to say that the past record of the Republican party in Chilton County is an open book. We have not hesitated to go before you and stand upon that record. We have likewise placed in your hands a clear and concise statement as to how the Republican party and the Republican candidates will stand upon matters of importance to you in the future. These things have been embodied in a Republican platform which has been scattered all over this county.

Now Republicans, let me urge that you consider these matters carefully before you vote on next Tuesday. The Democrats are telinlg you how to vote a split ticket. I hope that the Republicans of the county will determine that it is not best for them to split their tickets for I firmly believe that your interests for the next six years will be safer and better administered in the hands of the Republican party than in the hands of the Democratic party.

Give the matter careful consideration, friends. Lay aside your personal grievances and your prejudices and when you cast your vote, whatever it may be, let it be an honest vote.

Now, in conclusion, let me say that the campaign is fast coming to a close. The Republican speakers are going into all parts of the county this week seeking to give you the proper information as to wlmt the party stands for and what the party will seek to do for you if elected next Tuesday. I hope that every Republican man and woman in the county will go to the polls next Tuesday and cast a vote in the interest of the people of the county for the future. The matter now rests with you. Either you can elect the Republican ticket and thereby keep your affairs in the hands of competent and honest men, whose position you know and whom you can depend on, or on the other hand you can turn your affairs over to the Democrats, who have made a bad record in your county in the past, and for all you know will repeat the same thing, or perhaps worse, if they get in again.

I hope that the result next Tuesday may be the best and safest for the future of Chilton County.

You should beware of any effort that may be made by the Democrats at the last minute to cause a great flury. They have tried such methods in the past by circulating literature of questionable character after it is too late for the Republicans to answer it. The same thing may be attempted this time. In fact, it has already been hinted they will do so. If they do, I want the Republicans to be prepared to meet it in the proper manner and do not let them catch you off your guard.

Respectfully,
M. D. FOSHEE,
Chm. Republican Campaign Committee of Chilton County.

"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glory again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twists and swellings they used to have. I bend way over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you." There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red-blood cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system strengthener, nerve invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run down, tired men and women, beautifies complexions, makes the flesh firmer. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. A FINAL WORD TO SUPT. HOWARD L. FOSHEE

To the Republican Voters of Chilton County:

I ask your indulgence for a final word to Mr. Howard L. Foshee this week. I feel that it is not necessary, for I am certain that the people already are convinced of the inconsistency of the stand that Mr. Foshee has taken in this campaign and are ready to hand him the lemon next Tuesday.

First I want to recall your attention the reason Mr. Foshee says he wants Judge Reynolds defeated. His own words as published in The Chilton County News last week are as follows:

> "I feel that he should be defeated unless he shows to the Republicans of this county a reasonable excuse for his actions at the State Convention in Birmingham last September as stated by Kelly Gentry in his letter, and for allowing the Treasurer's office to go into the hands of the Democrats, also for his acts and efforts to make his family the recipients of every office in the county, and for his having assailed the Republican members of the Board of Education in the Primary for their official acts and attempted to prejudice the people against the two candidates who were running for re-election, when he knew that the school board had put forth untiring efforts to run the schools so that the people would receive at present and in the future the very best results possible from the money paid as school taxes."

Now, come with us a minute for a little consideration of these reasons why Mr. Foshee thinks Judge Reynolds ought to be defeated. So far as the action of Judge Reynolds at the State Convention is concerned, we wish to say that every thinking man in Chilton County who wants to be fair and free from prejudice, has already reached the conclusion that the contentions of Kelly Gentry and Howard Foshee in regard to that matter is absolutely unfounded and altogether out of place in this local campaign in Chilton County. Judge Reynolds has repeatedly explained this matter to the people. Again this week there appears in this paper a full explanation of what kind of people it was that were refused a seat in the Republican Conventin. No decent man could honestly blame anybody for voting against recognizing such men as Mr. Dawsey and his crowd which compose Kelly Gentry's great white Republican party in Montgomery.

Judge Reynolds has many times explained the motives that were behind the action of the Commissioners Court in giving the Treasurer's office to Mr. John A. Thomas. This action was the means of helping our county out of a financial stringency, and therefore we do not see how Mr. Foshee can ask for the defeat of Judge Reynolds because of this action.

As for that accusation that Judge Reynolds wants his family to have every office in the county, we all know that such stuff is altogether absurd. It is the merest littleness to charge Judge Reynolds with such petty stuff. But a chronic knocker has got to have something to growl about, and that is the reason you hear such discontented fellows as Howard Foshee continually growling about such insignificant things as this. They are not big enough to conceive of the real work that Judge Reynolds has done in the proper and succesful administration of the county affairs.

Now in regard to the charges that Mr. Foshee makes in regard to the attitude of Judge Reynolds concerning candidates for the Board of Education before the primary; let us go back and see about some of the things that happened about then. That was prior to the primary, and if you remember, there were various objections being raised to nearly every candidate. We heard objections to Judge Reynolds, Mr. Harris, Mr. Bean and Marion Foshee and Dudley Collins and Zeb Mims and this one and that one and the other. Judge Reynolds was not the only one who objected to some certain candiddates. Everybody was objecting to some candidate. Then just because Judge Reynolds happened to have some objection to certain candidates before the primary, Howard Foshee says he ought to be defeated now. How absurd is your argument Howard. You ought to be ashamed of such silly rot as you have been arguing.

Judge Reynolds, like all the rest of us, had his right to be for or against anybody he might choose in the primary. But now that the primary is over and the nominations are made, we are proud to say that he has not showed the littleness and narrowmindednes of you, Howard, by offering some petty reasons why this one and that one and the other should not be elected. He has accepted the verdict of the primary with good graces, and has worked hard for the election of the entire ticket, even though some of the candidates are the very ones whom he did not support before the primary. That is what we call the decent and manly way to go about this business.

Mr. Foshee asked us to give the amount The Union-Banner had received from the county for work done for the county during the past year. He made that request on October 12, 1922. In compliance with his request we published the figures he asked for which showed the actual amount of work which The Union-Banner did for Chilton County during the one year period from October 12, 1921 to October 12, 1922, which was as heretofore stated $1,866.66.

Now Mr. Foshee wants to know why we stated this amount to be $1,866.66 for a whole year, when he says we did actually receive $2,222.93 for a period of six months.

We want to say that we did receive the amounts as published by Mr. Foshee last week, which totaled $2,222,93, but that amount was for work which we did for the county for the one year period extending from the first of May 1921 to the first of May 1922. Although this amount was paid to us between November 16 of last year and May 17 of this year, within a period of six months, yet the period in which we actually did THIS AMOUNT OF WORK for the county extended from May 1st, 1921 to May 1st. 1922, as shown by the books in our office.

We do not understand why Mr. Foshee saw fit to jump off the first proposition he asked us for and take up another entirely different period of time, unless it was just in an effort to show that we had made the wrong statement about the matter.

Yes, Howard, the figures which represent the work we did for your office from Oct. 12, 1921 to Oct. 12, 1922 do include advertising for school district elections, and we maintain that such expense is proper to be considered against your office, as it is clearly an expense of the school side of our county affairs. The total of these figures for that period are as we stated before $366.35. But for the sake of argument we will deduct that part of this amount which is for advertising district election which was $148. Then you will see that it would leave standing against your office as expenses of the same, the amount of $218.35, which by your own argument you are willing to accept as the actual expense of printing for your office for that period of time. Even with this deduction for that which you do not think you ought to be charged with, it leaves the expenses of the Superintendent's office for printing $42.25 more than the expenses of the Probate office for the same period of time. Then the same proposition still confronts you as before, that your office is costing the people more than the office of Judge Reynolds. And again we ask the people if they are getting more service from your office than from the office of Judge Reynolds.

I asked you in my former letter to tell the people which one, I or J. L. Johnson, is your candidate for the legislature. You bungled this proposition and have not yet made a clear statement on it. You said that I had no reason to believe that you were against me. I want to say that I certainly have no reason to believe that you are FOR me. I do not care whether you are against me or not Howard. As for your personal attitude in the matter. I do not consider that worth a straw. But I want to get before the people in as clear manner as possible the atittude you are in by opposing some or all of the Republican nominees.

Now I still have reason to believe that you do not want me to represent Chilton County in the legislature. And I know why you don't want me. Here is the reason:

You remember, Howard, soon after the primary you came down to see me and brought that list of a dozen or more proposed laws which you and the other county superintendents of Alabama wanted passed in the next legislature. You asked me to look over same and see if I thought I could be depended upon to support them if I were sent to the legislature from this county. Among the proposition on that list which you submitted to me was one to keep the present plan of appointing the county superintendent, and NOT make it an elective office. Aother one was to provide for APPOINTING the state superintendent of education and QUIT electing him by the people. These two things I distinctly remember on that list, together with several others which the higher-ups had decided were necessary for the proper administration of Alabama's educational system.

When I refused to give my endorsement to those things which you wanted done in the legislature, you at once took up the job of discouraging my candidacy among your friends and followers, and telling them that I am a dangerous enemy to education. You sought to make a joke of my ability as a servant of the people in the legislature, and I have received constant opposition from you, and not one word of encouragement or support.

As to the position of my opponent, Mr. J. L. Johnson, I want to ask the people if they know what he stands for. He has not told them how he stands on anything. He has not said whether he favors putting the school affairs of this state back into the hands of the people, or whether he favors the plans of Howard Foshee to take away from the people what FEW liberties they now have left.

Howard, you say there is no agreement between you and J. L. Johnson. It is not necessary for you to have an agreement with him. You and he already stand for the same thing, and that is the plan of the Democratic party in Alabama to go on and on, and further and further, in taking from the people their rights in ALL school matters. Johnson is running true to Democratic form, not committing himself to any policy, so that if the people elect him he will be free to do as he pleases, whether the people like it or not.

Howard, if you believe so strongly that the things which you have been writing and saying are true, why did you back down when Judge Reynolds called your hand last Saturday? Why did you not come out and stand before the people with your claims? You said in your last week's article that you could face me or Judge Reynolds in these things. Why didn't you do it? You had the opportunity last Saturday.

Here is my explanation of why you didn't come out and try to defend your position: You know that your record as a school official is a stench in the nostrils of the people of Chilton County. You know that your record as a so-called Republican is a fraud; and you know that the traitorous things you have been engaged in with the Democrats of this county does not meet the aproval of hardly anybody at all. Hence it is no wonder that you backed down when it came to standing before the people with your unreasonable arguments.

Howard, you say you are still a Republican. I want to remind you that the only evidence that anybody has to that effect is your own weak and doubtful words. Your words do not have much weight when your every act is in direct contradiction of them. The Republicans of this county see you somewhere every day in confab with Democrats. They see you mailing out hundreds of copies of the Chilton County News. They see that the Democrats have made no other effort at a campaign besides what you have been doing for them. You are the horn through which the entire Democratic campaign has been heralded to the four corners of Chilton county. Therefore it goes but a little way when you say in a Democratic newspaper that "I am still a Republican." Nobody believes such statements because every fact and every action of yours belies your utterances of loyalty to the Republican party.

If you are for the Republican party, even any one candidate on the ticket, it looks like as much as you have written, you would have said a word or two in favor of such Republican candidates as you are endorsing and want elected.

If you are still a Republican, Howard, why don't you do something to defend the Republican party against the dirty insinuations of the Chilton County News about the nigger? You know the Republican party is as white as the Democratic party. You know there were no negroes in the Republican Convention, and that Reynolds did not vote to seat negroes. But yet you go around here in close confidence with the Democratic leaders who are falsely accusing the Republicans, and even send out hundreds of copies of the Chilton County News, which caries in one column your declarations against the election of the Republican ticket in Chilton County, and in another column the base charges that the Republican party is the nigger party.

You cannot justify such an unreasonable position as you are trying to maintain, and before you can make anybody believe you are still a Republican you will have to go dip seven times in the river of Jordan and clean yourself of all Democratic pollution, and repent in sackcloth and ashes before the Republicans will have any more confidence in you.

If the Republicans ever take you back into the party it will be like the Methodist Church took back a certain brother Jones—on probation, condition, and suspicion.

Now, I do not deem it necessary to make reply to any more of Howard's futile arguments. I am willing to rest my case with the Republicans of Chilton County on next Tuesday. You have seen the game Howard is trying to play. We do not know how sincere he has been in his efforts; but one thing I do know, and that is that he is seeking to lead the people of our county into dangerous political associations. His stand is not to be justified by any sort of reason or common sense.

I feel sure that when the votes are cast next Tuesday, Howard, together with his Democratic cohorts who are all combined in this effort to confuse the minds of the people and mislead them by their unjustifiable and unreasonable arguments will be given the terrible rebuke which they deserve at the hands of the honest and conscientions Republicans of Chilton County.

Respectfully,
W. M. WYATT.

UNCLE DOCK WELLS MAKES HIS REPORT ON POLITICS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please give me space in your paper to say a few words. You know I was elected Chaplain to pray for all the candidates both Democrats and Republicans. Now as this is the last issue of The Union-Banner before the election, I wish to report as follows:

I have done the best I could in my weak way—I have treated all alike, both Republicans and Democrats; I have just said "The Lord's will be done, and not mine."

I am sorry to say I did not vote in the primary, as I was down in Elmore county at that time in a good meeting. I could not leave my meeting to come home then. But when I did return and found how it all went off I was well satisfied, knowing that I would have a chance to go in the geleral election and vote my choice.

I like all the men who were nominated. They are all my neighbors. The Bible teaches me to love my neighbor as myself. Some of the candidates are my brothers in the church and some of them are my brother Masons. Thirty-five years ago I took a solemn obligation that I would never injure my brother Mason nor allow it to be done if it was in my power to prevent it.

Now, Mr. Editor, this is the first words I have said concerning politics. I would not have said anything this time, but we all know there has been much confusion throughout this campaign. Feeling it my duty to try to make peace with all men, I have concluded to write this letter. The Bible says blessed are the peace makers for they shall be called the children of God. The precious words of Christ in the sermon on the Mount, "Do unto all men as you would have them do unto you," and "Love thy neighbor as thy self," should be remembered by us all when we begin to discuss this political business among ourselves.

There has been some inquiry as to how I was going to vote in this election I thought everybody in Chilton County knew that I am a Republican, and that I have always voted the Republican ticket. My reasons for voting that way is because I believe the Republican party is the best for the common people and the laboring man. I praise the Democrats for being loyal to their party and sticking to their nominees and I think the Republicans ought to draw a lesson from the loyalty of the Democrats, and likewise exercise the same degree of loyalty to the Republican ticket.

I want to admonish the Republican candidates to be faithful for a few more days. Some of you have been persecuted beyond measure; but you are not yet nailed to the cross. You may be defeated on the 7th of Nov., but if you are, I want you to be able to say I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, and now I am ready to be offered up before the people of our County.

In conclusion, I want to say to Mr. J. L. Johnson and Mr. W. M. Wyatt, our candidates for Representative, that whichever one of you is elected, I hope you will make us some good laws. If you can't make any better laws than some that have been made in the past, I advise you to come back home and get you a blue-back speller and an almanac and study law; and while you are studying law you might also get you an old mule and a few acres of land join the Farmers Union and polw a little now and then for pastime.

Respectfully,
A. C. WELLS.

L. P. MARTIN IS STILL A REPUBLICAN STRAIGHT

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 28, 1922.
Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a small space in your paper to say to my friends and the Republican voters of Chilton County that I have already voted a straight Republican ticket and I earnestly ask all who supported me in my race for Sheriff in the primary to vote for the nominees.

I have known Judge Reynolds and T. J. Littlejohn all my life and I know them to be worthy of the office to which they are nominated, and I know they are thoroughly competent and will fill the office to a credit to themselves and to the County. As for Jim Mims, I have known him all my life and he is a good man for the place he is to be elected to. Percy Pitts is the ideal man for the office he is asking for. I don't think the County could get a better man than William Bilingsley for the place he is asking for. And we all know our friend and loyal Republican Mr. Zeb Mims. He will make us a good Clerk. Mr. T. J. Dorminey, the Governor of Stumps Hills, has already been tried and made good. We will of course try him again. I haven't known Mr. A. L. Robinson very long, but I am sure he is a good man and will make good. Now last but not least, here comes our Editor, Mr. W. M. Wyatt, whom we all know to be a true and loyal Republican and a man that I think will make us one of the best Representatives that Chilton county has ever had.

I think with such a ticket as we have this time that the Democrats will have no show at all.

I again earnestly insist that our people all go to the polls on November 7th and make a cross or the letter X under the elephant as I did. Please don't forget the six years of the Democratic Administration and the condition our county was placed in.

In conclusion I wish to say to all my friends and especially the nominees that I was and am sorry that I could not stay in Chilton and help see every man elected on the Republican ticket, but to obtain employment I was forced to move. I am yet in the same line of work here making nearly twice the salary that I made down there, but I still love old Chilton and probably will make it my home again in the future. For the benefit of those wishing to correspond with me on business or other wise my address is 6445 Hillman Ave. Birmingham, Ala.

I am for the Republican ticket first last and always.

L. P. MARTIN.

CENTER HILL SINGING

The old time singers gathered at Center Hill Church Sunday. Attendance was large; dinner was all that could be desired.

The ministry, we are pleased to say, was liberally represented. Rev. Reynolds, Brandon, Brooks, Faulkner, Davis and Waldrop were there and made good talks.

Among the visitors we noted Mr. Patterson and daughter, and Miss Ida Scott of Verbena.

Several directors were there. Z. J Jones was chosen chairman. It was a real good time. Center Hill knows how to give people a royal welcome.

BY THE GOVERNOR

NOW THEREFORE, I, Thos. E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that at the general election in November, 1922, an election will be held for the vote of qualified electors of the State of Alabama, in the manner, form and places required by law, upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, viz.:.

The adoption of this amendment shall not affect in any manner any other amendment to the Constitution of Alabama which may be adopted pursuant to any act or resolution of this session of the Legislature. "Yes....." "No....." The choice of the elector shall be indicated by a cross mark made by him or under his direction, opposite the word expressing his desire.

Section 4. The votes cast at such election shall be canvassed, tabulated, and returns thereof made to the Secretary of State, and counted in the same manner as in elections for Representatives to the Legislature; and if it shall thereupon appear that a majority of the qualified electors who voted at such election upon the proposed amendment voted in favor of the same, such amendment shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the State of Alabama. LETTER FROM W. J. MOATES OF BEAT 15

To the Republican Voters of Chilton County:

In five more days we are to have an election which is to determine whether Chilton County shall remain Republican or whether we are to turn it over to the Democrats. In that election it shall be determined whether Judge Reynolds shall continue to manage the County's finances and County Courts or whether it shall be turned over to Mr. Messer. It means whether the principles of the Republican Party shall continue to govern in our county or whether the principles of the Democratis party are to govern. My friends, it is a serious duty that we are to perform on next Tuesday, and a mistake made on that day, will take years to rectify. The voters of this county made just such mistake twelve years ago and we are just now beginning to get over it. Probably some voters go to the polls with the thought that it does not matter which man you vote for, nor which party, but my friends if you happen to remember what the Democratic party did for Chilton County twelve years ago and will compare it with the Record of the Republican party for the last six years you will see that it means a difference of Bankruptcy and success. If you are willing for two hundred thousand dollars of your money to be scattered around to a few favored Democrats, as they did once before then you will be satisfied with the Democratic party, but if you want your County to be out of debt; if you want to be able to present your claim against the County to the Commissioners Court and be paid dollar for dollar and be paid immediately then you should vote for the Republican party.

Voters, there has been very little said lately about cattle dipping. It seems the Democrats have been trying to get our minds off the subject. But I want to say now that it is the duty of every citizen to do all they can to keep this curse away from our county. I would hate to see our cattle dipped again in that poison and I will hate to see our families and our children deprived of milk and butter because some office seeker wants a soft job. My friends, I think we are to commend Judge Reynolds and the Commissioners Court for taking the stand they have against this curse. You remember soon after the primary the Democrats boasted that Judge Reynolds could not keep us from having to re-dip our cattle, and that soon as he was nominated we would have to commence dipping. But we have not so far, and I tell you Judge Reynolds is a good fighter and I believe he has already scared the cattle dippers away. I do believe that if the Democrats get in power they will try to make us dip our cattle.

I would like to say to Howard Foshee that he should when writing for the benefit of the people give the whole truth of the things he writes about. For instance he insinuated that the services of Professor Baker at New Cedron were not so very satisfactory, in regard to this, I will state that Howard Foshee wrote to me in regard to work of Prof. Baker at New Cedron and I wrote him that the services of Prof. Baker were satisfactory and in fact he had done more with the school than anyone previous to his time. Yet Howard, the man that wants the people to know the whole truth, gives them only his side. Voters, in the first place Chilton County has paid Howard Foshee a pretty good salary to be its Superintendent of Education, and in my opinion he should be giving his services to those duties, which I am informed from talking with other good reputable citizens, need the services of a good man very bad. Also he is biting the hand that is feeding him. The Republicans of this county put him there, and now he is doing all he can through the Dmocratic paper to defeat the ticket. But you old voters remember that others, just like Howard, have all dropped aside, but the Party has grown bigger and stronger for having gotten rid of just such fellows. There are some things we voters can forgive in a man, but when he deliberately sells out his party, turns his back upon his own people and fights his own people, my friends, that is a thing we can never forget. And I for one will never forget the fellow, if there be one, who will follow such a traitor. I have been noticing politics for several years but I have never seen any person, Democrat or Republican, write such as Howard has been doing for the last few weeks. And he is the man who is a head of the Educational interest of this county, the noblest work of any kind next to the Church, and yet he sees fit to spend our time and money writing such political rot, trying to defeat the Republican ticket. My friends, there is a great need for education in Chilton County, but such actions as we have had from our Superintendent is enough to disgust any reasonable man. I would just like to know if there is one single man in Chilton County of our party who endorses the actions of Howard Foshee as S. of Ed. I think it is time the voters should rise up in their might and demand that the County Board of Education give us a competent man, a conscientious man, a true and full blood Republican.

This is the only piece I have written this campaign. I have been doing a good deal of listening and reading. I liked that piece of W. N. Thomas, wherein he compared Judge Reynolds and Brother Messer. That fellow Thomas gave some mighty sound advice and it will do well for all Republicans to get last week's issue of The Union-Banner and read that piece if you have not done so. A voter ought to think a good deal before he casts his vote in favor of Brother Messer against Judge Reynolds. Brother Messer is a Minister and a good man so far as I know and if he wants to stay a good man let him keep out of politics and stay in the Ministry, and I believe all the other preachers and his congregation and all the other people will have more respect for him. We need him as preacher lots more than as Probate Judge. Brother Messer is a right old man and is better that he live and die his days out a Minister of the Gospel and respected preacher, than to have those Clanton Politicians wallow him around in the political slime as Thomas said and be the cause of the County being thrust Two Hundred thousand dollars more in debt. If Mr. Messer has made a success as a preacher, his work in that capacity will be appreciated and he can do the people of Chilton County lots more good than he could possibly do as a Probate Judge.

On the other hand I call your attention to the record of Judge Reynolds as Probate Judge. He is a man who has always stood by the people who elected him. He is a man whom the Democrats can knock and curse and kick and persecute in every conceivable fashion and yet you will find him standing right with his own people. He has given practically his whole life to the cause of the Republican party and he is really the person who has caused the party to be recognized in the State. I suppose the Democrats have hounded him more than any other five men combined and yet he is a stronger Republican than ever before. We had two Republicans previous to Judge Reynolds who could not stand the pressure and turned their back on the Republican party, but my friends, you can always count on Judge Reynolds, and when the Democrats have hounded the last breath out of him that last breath will be Republican. I have never seen him mistreat any person in his office, but he has always been willing to advise and help anyone needing it. And right now if I should need the help I had just as soon call on him, though it be in the dark hours of the night, as any man I know. I tell you, my friends, it means something to have a friend like that, and Judge Reynolds is a friend to the people of this county. I have never heard a single man or woman, Republican or Democrat criticise his work as Probate Judge. They all say he has made us the best we have ever had, and has done more to get the county out of debt than any man we ever had. Now friends, I think I have said enough. Judge Reynolds is asking for re-election, and I believe if a man ever did deserve it, he does. He is not only said to be the best the county ever had but they say he is one of the best in the State. I believe the entire Republican Ticket will be victorious this time with a big majority, but that means that every one of us, men and women, have got to go to the polls and vote. Just remember this, if you are not voting your Democratic neighbor is.

Now let all take this little trouble to vote next Tuesday, for the Republican party as a whole and we will never have an occasion to regret it.

Yours for the success of the party,
W. J. MOATES.

Mother To-Be!

Do You Realize this Fact?

AN eminent physician has shown why there is so much useless suffering on the part of many expectant mothers, for months before baby comes, as well as when baby actually arrives. This same great doctor found the way to avoid much of this suffering. Mother, your baby's nerves, its whole structure should be free from any influence caused by your months of useless misery and pain. You yourself can be free from much of it. Here is a little message to all expectant mothers:

Mrs. Ida Milton, 108 N. Tremont St., Kansas, Ill., says: "I am forced to say something in regard to your wonderful 'Mother's Friend.' Just one application gave me such relief I could hardly realize I was in pregnancy. Before I used it I was suffering with pains all over, and today, I am able to do my house-work with all ease and without pain."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally, and enables the muscles, nerves and tissues to relax and readjust themselves with the growing changes during pregnancy, and at child-birth. It should be used for some time before baby comes—the sooner the better.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

WOMEN TO TAKE ACTIVE PART

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 31.—Women of Alabama will be given an active part in the life of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation from now on. Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, dean of women at Auburn, secured the passing of a resolution at the last meeting of the executive committee of the Bureau, dealing with this subject. Miss Harris will take the future necessary steps toward placing in motion the new development. The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

The Bible teaches us to beware of the man who blows both hot and cold. Therefore we advise you to keep your hands on your ballot while some of our Democratic friends are spieling forth their campaign thunder. We hear them one week telling the people that the Republican ticket stands for negro equality, and saying many other hard things that are calculated to make a Republican seeter. There as soon as they see that such stuff is hurting the Democratic ticket more than it is the Republican ticket, they come out the next week with one of the smoothest and nicest appeals you ever read, pleading for peace and quiet, and urging everybody to be good and considerate of his neighbor's feelings before saying things that are hard and unkind. Shame on such methods. No wonder those who preach such doctrine are blown about as chaff upon every political breeze, and drift away into nothingness as the mush-room that flourishes in the wet places, but dries up with the first ray of sunlight. No wonder such doctrine cannot stand when it is challenged to come out of the dark alleys and risk its merits before the eyes of an intelligent people.

Hon. J. Osmond Middleton of Mobile arrived in Clanton Wednesday morning to assist in winding up the Republican Campaign in this county. Especial attention is called to the closing speech which he will make at Cross Roads near Thorsby on next Monday night. This will be a speech which any Republican in the county can afford to go far to hear.

How Not to Take Cold.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becomeing over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

REYNOLDS AND MIDDLETON WILL SPEAK AT CROSS ROADS, BEAT 9

The present Republican Campaign in Chilton County will be closed Monday night, Nov. 6th, with a speaking by Reynolds and Middleton at Cross Roads school house near Thorsby in Beat 9. It is expected that this will be one of the best meetings of the Campaign as it is most certain there will be a record breaking crowd present.

COUNTIES QUESTIONING

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 31.—Dallas and other Alabama counties are calling meetings at which they want officials of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation to appear and answer questions. It seems there are some phases of the work that have not yet been made clear to all, and farmers and other business men want those points cleared up. Officials of the several departments of the organization will appear at these meetings and will make short talks outlining their work and then be open to questioning by those attending the meeting. The Dallas meeting, first on the list, will be held in the court house at Selma, November 8.

FATE FOSHEE MOVING STORE TO CLANTON

The many friends of Mr. Fate Foshee in this section will be glad to learn that he is moving his store from Thorsby to Clanton. He will be located west of the railroad in the building formerly occupied by Wiley Littlejohn. Mr. Foshee is a mighty good citizen and we are glad to have him in Clanton.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be neded before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

Johnnie Cleckler, the merchant, of Beat 11, was among the visitors to Clanton Wednesday.

BEAN TELLS FRIENDS TO VOTE REPUBLICAN

Clanton, Ala., Oct. 31, 1922.
Editor Union-Banner:

I have closely watched the present political campaign in this county and fully believe that the Republicans are sure for a complete victory in November; but being over-confident once caused our defeat, and lest we Republicans become negligent about going to the polls, I am going to ask every Republican in this county to closely study the situation, weigh the points for and against both sets of candidates, and I believe that you will reach a conclusion that it is to the interest of the common people that we elect every man nominated on the Republican ticket. There seems to be just a bit of confusion and dissasisfaction over some of the nominees, but on August 9th the Republicans held a primary wholly and solely for the purpose of determining whom they should put up against the Democratic nominees. This primary was not held for the direct benefit of any individual, but for the benefit of the entire Republican party, and before the primary was held no one knew who would be nominated. I doubt if there is a voter in the county who got every man he or she voted for in that primary, but a majority of the Republicans have said by their votes that the men whose names will appear on the Republican ticket should be our standard bearers in the November election and why not all of the Republicans who participated in that primary be governed by that old fundamental principle of letting a majority rule and then go to the polls and vote the entire Republican ticket, and assure the common people of a voice in the management of our county affairs. You may rest assured that the Democrats will vote for their nominees to a man, but if we Republicans let prejudice and narrowness creep into our minds and vote only for the nominees whom we voted for in the primary and leave all others off, it is a certain fact that the entire ticket will go down in defeat never to be resurrected again. But I have the utmost confidence in the people of Chilton County and I know that every loyal Republican will be governed by a majority and then victory will be won.

Republicans, just think what a defeat to the Republicans of this county meant to us in 1910. Every one is familiar with that record of the Democratic party of placing this county in debt over $200,000 and left us with but little to show for it. The Deason administration did not only spend $200,000 wastefully and extravagantly, but it spent all the taxes we paid for six years and that $200,000 upon top of that. Space and time will not permit my writing much, but I must just say to the Republican voters of this county who are fully familiar with the records of this party that if you endorse the Deason administration's extravagance, and if you endorse the Democratic war record and the Democratic school legislation and their record in general, then you ought to anounce your allegiance to that party and vote a full Democratic ticket; but if you denounce their record on these points, then you should, in my opinion, go to the polls on November 7th and vote a full Republican ticket The Republicans are fully a thousand votes in the majority in this county and victory is practically assured. But let's don't quit the fight until victory is won.

Very truly,
W. T. BEAN.

CLANTON BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL WENT OVER THE TOP

The Clanton Baptist Sunday School ran away with its own self last Sunday, reaching the record attendance of 312. Loud cheers rang out in the auditorium of the church as each of the classes made reports. Some of the classes went over their goals that had been set for that day. Many others nearly came up to their mark, and the others showed about double the attendance they have been having.

But 312 is not the stopping place. The goal for last Sunday was a total of 350. For next Sunday it is 400 You may not believe it, but we are going to see this Sunday School reach 500 before Christmas. The spirit has got into us and we are going to win.

There were 56 present in the men's Bible cass, who listened to a very fine lecture on temperance, by Dr. V. J. Gragg.

The young men's class, of which Miss Roberta Curry is teacher, was one which went over the goal with an attendance of 28.

THIS MAN INTENDS TO KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE

"In May or June, 1913, I sent to you and got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but these 4 bottles of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. — Alred Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.

A WARNING TO SOME REPUBLICANS

Editor Union-Banner:

I have heard that there are some Republicans in Chilton County who are going to vote the Democratic ticket on Nov. 7th. I wish you would give me a short space to say a few words to such Republicans, if there be any.

I want you to stop and consider the matter, Republicans. How can you afford to vote the Democratic ticket? Have you forgotten the misrule of greed and extravagance and corruption that was forced upon us during the last Democratic administration we had in this county? Have you forgotten the debts that were created on our county, which burden is hanging over us to-day and causing us to have to pay high taxes?

It is high time we consider these matters well, and lay aside our prejudice and personal grievances, and walk up to the polls like true men and true women and lend our support to those men and those measures which guarantee to our county the most equitable administration for every citizen. I feel sure that to do this will mean that our people will stand true to the Republican party.

I submit that Brother Messer is a good man. Likewise do I believe that Judge Deason was a good man. But Mr. Deason did not control the policies of his office while he was Probate Judge; neither will Brother Messer control the policies of the office, should he be elected. We all know that there is a combination of men who have always controlled the Democratic party for their own good, and the same will be true in the future, if we turn the affairs of our county over to them.

I believe that if the Democrats come into the control of our county again we will have more debts created and consequently more taxes to pay.

Some of the Democrats deny that they throw "nigger" at the Republicans. How can they deny it when their Democratic paper comes out and hurls its dirty insinuations into the faces of every Republican in the County?

Republicans, do not make a fatal mistake now. Come down to honest and true reason, and help us save our county by electing the Republican ticket.

Respectfully,
JOHN BAKER, Jr.
Clanton, Ala., Oct. 30, 1922.

It is funny that Howard Foshee is raising sand because Reynolds let the County Commissioners appoint a Democrat County Treasurer; and now Howard himself has gone to the Democratic party soul and body. If it is such an awful crime for a man to be a Democrat, Howard, how are you going to console yourself upon your recent political transition? But politics makes strange bedfellows, and we are sure Howard has seen some kind of a nightmare.

REYNOLDS PUBLISHES LETTER FROM SAM EDWARDS

Editor Union-Banner:

I have the following letter from Mr. Sam Edwards of Beat 9, which is dated April 26, 1922. I ask that you publish the same for me, if you will:

Thorsby, Ala., April 26, 1922.
Hon. L. H. Reynolds,
Clanton, Ala.
Dear Sir:

Yours of the 22 inst to hand and it was no little consolation to me. I realy was feeling sore. As to what I have been doing for you I have seen a few men and talked the situation over with them, and what I have learned it realy looks like you will have to put up another term as Probate Judge. I have been so busy with my farm work till I havent had much chance to get out. I expect to write a letter to the U. B. in near future that will bear directly on the question of efficiency of the candidates and how nesessary it is at this particular time to have the right man in the right place that we may go over the top once more. I will also mention that it is no time for a training school; what we need most now is a man that can and will land our County out from under bondage. Judge, I wish everybody knew my intentions and purposes in life as good as I know them myself; and that is one grand reason why I am going to support you. I am fully convinced that you are being knocked on by some people without a just cause.

Yours truly,
S. M. EDWARDS.

This is an exact copy of a letter I received from S. M. Edwards just before I was to try a negro that Sam was very anxious for me to convict. I turned the negro loose, and Sam left the trial knocking me. I publish this because I have been informed that Sam wrote a letter in the Chilton County News giving his reason for supporting Rev. Messer. However, I never saw his letter to the News.

Respectfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

SEAPORT AMENDMENT WILL CARRY

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 30.—After reviewing reports from every county in the State today, Chairman Sydney J. Bowie and H. K. Milner of the Alabama Seaport Committee, stated that they were confident that the Amendment would carry at the election on November 7th by a large majority. These reports have been coming from almost every committee in the State, as well as county and district chairmen, and all, with very few exceptions, state that the majority of the voters express an intention of voting for the Amendment. Several of the most prominent men in the State have been speaking in various places during the past week in the State on the Amendment, among these being Senators Underwood and Heflin, Congressman McDuffie and Oliver, R. V. Taylor of Mobile, Sydney J. Bowie of Birmingham and others. The Amendment has been endorsed by the chairman of the campaign committees of both the Democratic and Republican Parties, by former Gvernor B. B. Comer, Governor Kilby, Judge W. W. Brandon, O. D. Street, Democratic and Republicman nominees for Governor. J. C. Inzer and Gordon Ashley, Chairmen of the Democratic and Republican Campaign Committees in the 7th Congressional District and by nearly all the prominent and influential men in the State. It has been reported the last few days that over 2000 cars of freight have accumulated on the yards of the furnace and pipe plants, at the coal mines and at the railroad depots throughout the State, which the roads have been unable to move because they lack sufficient number of cars. The Seaport Amendment Campaign managers point out that if the Port of Mobile were adequately equipped with facilities for handling a large volume of commerce that this fact would bring many more cars into Alabama, which would be available for hauling the State's products to market in other states. The fact that the railroads would have loaded cars in both directions would be increased while the tonnage would be largely increased. In building a big port at Mobile and making use of the navigable rivers of the State, the congested condition of the railroads would be relieved and many freight cars released to handle products of the State more promptly.

ONWARD!

To the Front Rank of Commerce and Industry, the Place Nature Destined for Alabama.

The greatest agency for the upbuilding of the State is an efficient and economical avenue for the passage of her products to the markets of the world. This agency is Alabama's only seaport. Adoption of the Seaport Amendment, numbered 1 on the official ballot used at the election November 7, enables the State to build up this port, which gives the cheapest and shortest route to all foreign markets. The Seaport Amendment is endorsed by the following organizations:

Alabama Farm Bureau Federation:

The Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, in convention assembled at Montgomery, this 29th day of July, 1922, recognizing the fact that the State of Alabama has only one port, located at Mobile, and believing that the State of Alabama as a whole should give its undivided support financially for the purpose of developing this port as a State-wide proposition, in order to enable the shipping of State products to be directed through this port, which in the past has been hampered by reason of lack of proper facilities; and further recognizing the fact that such industrial development would be beneficial to the agricultural and industrial interests of the State and would be advantageous to shippers in both export and import.

Be it resolved, that the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation urge upon every voter in the State of Alabama to give their united support by casting their votes at the election in November, in favor of State aid for the development of the State's seaport.

State Democratic Convention, September 7, 1922:

We favor the fullest possible development of the rivers, highways, wasting water powers, and the natural resources of the State and Alabama's Seaport. We endorse the pending Amendment looking to the development of Alabama's Seaport and recommend it to the favorable consideration of all the voters of the State.

Vote for the Amendment, Says Farm Facts

There is no politics in the Port Amendment question. Some folks throughout the State tried to put politics into it, but the effort fell flat. Democrats and Republicans, Prohibitionists and antis, (if there are any of the latter left in the State), the farmers and mechanics represented in organizations, industrial associations and chambers of commerce are all for the Port Amendment because it is an economic and not a political question. It affects the entire State, not alone the Port of Mobile. If Alabama was an interior State, it would feel the want of a port in freight rates. Having a seaport it is enabled to combine rail and water rates to the advantage of every shipper in Alabama products, under the railroads' own classifications. The Port of Mobile is the factor in holding down interior rates. If the facilities at the port are insufficient for the volume of shipping offered, the value of the port as a safety valve on rail rates is thus lessened. Competent authorities—State authorities, not Mobile interests—have told the people of Alabama that the shipping facilities at Mobile are inadequate. The Amendment to the State Constitution affords a way to make them adequate without a penny of expenditure of public money. New Orleans and other ports have made their State-owned facilities pay for themselves and it is foolish to say that the people of Alabama have less business sense than those of other States who have tried out this principle and made it successful.

Alabama Bankers' Association, May 20, 1922:

Whereas, The development of the Port of Mobile means cheaper freight rates and greater opportunities for the products and commerce of Alabama to reach the markets of the world and will greatly promote the welfare and progress of the entire State.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Alabama Bankers' Association in annual convention assembled, do earnestly endorse the proposed Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Legislature to grant State aid in the development of Alabama's only seaport, and we pledge ourselves as an Association and as individuals to aid the passage of the Amendment at the election in November.

The Alabama Farmers' Union Heartily Endorsed the Seaport Amendment at a Meeting Held Early in the Year 1922.

State Republican Convention, September 7, 1922:

Be it Resolved, That this, the Republican Convention of the State of Alabama, in convention assembled at Birmingham, September 7, 1922, does hereby heartily endorse the proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama which would authorize the State to own, control and operate the port terminals at Mobile, and Further Resolved, That we pledge the earnest co-operation of the Republican Party in Alabama in the campaign now in progress for the ratification of the said Amendment.

Other Endorsements of the Seaport Amendment:

Hotel Men's Association of Alabama, at Anniston, December, 1921.

And many other organizations throughout the State.

These You Have Trusted; They Are for the Seaport Amendment.

These leaders in statecraft, commerce and industry are for the Seaport Amendment. Read what they say about it:

Governor Thomas E. Kilby:

A highly efficient and economically operated port, with ship service to all important parts of the world, acts as a stimulus to industry and commerce, not only at that port, but in all of the territory adjacent to or tributary to it. As in the case of Mobile, if instead of an average of two and a half ships a day there were ten or fifteen ships a day receiving and discharging freight in her harbor, it would mean an enormous increase in the freight tonnage for the railroads; a largely increased output for the factories and foundries and mills; larger markets for the farm products, and a general development in all lines in the territory several hundred miles back from the port.

Hon. O. D. Street, Republican Nominee for Governor:

Alabama possesses in the port of Mobile an asset of inestimable value and one of the finest natural harbors in the world. It cannot, however, yield its greatest benefits to our State until needed improvements and dock facilities are provided. I very much hope the Port Amendment, which was indorsed by the Republican State Convntion, will receive the approval of the voters at the coming election.

Very truly yours,
O. D. STREET.

Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, U. S. Senator from Alabama:

I am glad to say I am heartily in favor of this (Seaport) Amendment. The Port of Mobile is naturally one of the best in the United States and, in my judgment, is the peer of the ports on the Gulf. It has a great hinterland from which the commerce of the Mississippi Valley will come for export, especially to South America, but no port can function without the proper facilities to do business, and the proposed Amendment is to aid in supplying these facilities.

Congressman John McDuffie, First Alabama District:

The prosperity of every state is largely determined by its accessibility to the markets of the world. The most prosperous states of the Union today are those which have developed and properly equipped their seaports.

Port development is a step toward better and cheaper transportation facilities in Alabama.

Port charges will furnish ample revenue with which to pay the interest on the expenditure for improvement and retire the bonds as they mature. Every citizen and every business no matter how far removed from the port that business may be, will derive benefits from the improvement of their seaport. Let us develop this great natural asset for the good of the whole State.

Congressman W. B. Oliver, Sixth Alabama District:

Without adequate and modern port facilities at Mobile, publicly controlled and regulated, the impatient tide of our State's progress will be restrained and constitute a costly barrier against the flow of commerce out of and into the State, and the shipping of our cotton, coal, steel, lumber and other products to foreign markets on advantageous terms. It cannot be too often emphasized that all of our staple industries are now organized so that the yearly needs of our home market can be supplied in less than twelve months working time. We also have surplus crops which must seek a foreign market, and if farming is to be made to pay in Alabama and wage earners are to be employed for the entire year market must be found for our products in other lands.

Alex C. Birch, Chairman Republican State Campaign Committee:

Gentlemen: I wish to say to you that I consider the adoption of the Seaport Amendment, to be voted on at the ensuing election, of paramount importance to the people of Alabama.

The Republican Party of the State, in convention assembled, on the 7th day of September, unanimously endorsed the Amendment. As chairman of the Republican State Campaign Committee, I feel it my duty to let the public know my full approval of this act and my earnest hope that it will carry in every county in this State. Two years ago it was lost because of lack of information in regard to its merits. With the very effective campaign of education that has been put on this time, I feel sure that the people understand, and will register their favorable approval at the polls.

With best wishes for your success, I am
Very sincerely yours,
ALEX C. BIRCH,
Chairman Republican State Campaign Committee.

Judge W. W. Brandon, Democratic Nominee for Governor:

I unqualifiedly endorse and approve, and will vote for, the said Amendment.

If the Amendment be adopted, I, as Governor, will approve only a conservative plan of development, the money raised upon the State's credit to be used only for acquiring facilities as needed, the issuing of bonds to be limited to the amounts necessary to secure such facilities, no excessive prices to be paid for any property, and the State's right to condemn needed property to be always available.

My endorsement of the said development is not in conflict with my platform of retrenchment, reduction of taxes and rigid economy in the administration of the State's affairs, because full investigation of the present volume and character of traffic has convinced me that State owned and controlled terminal facilities at Alabama's only seaport, acquired and developed in keeping with the principles here stated, will be self-sustaining; that the income therefrom will not only pay the interest on the money invested, but also will be sufficient to build up an ample sinking fund for the retirement of the bonds at maturity; and that such income after the retirement of the bonds will afford large revenue to the State.

Former Governor B. B. Comer:

Yours asking my views regarding the making at Mobile of a shipping port commensurate with all outgoing and incoming business.

Answering, I have always been an earnest approver and advocate to make at Mobile a shipping port both incoming and outgoing second to none. From my extensive experience in freight transportation, there is no better governor of a rate than water transportation. There is no surer method to insure fair treatment than to have at your door a port of entry. Alabama today —I mean all Alabama—on account of the Panama Canal and the port of Mobile is receiving all the Pacific freight quite a bit cheaper than it would be possible otherwise, and this would be much more so if we had proper facilities at Mobile.

I am sure Alabama, if need be, could not more economically give its credit to secure money, I mean money that would come back in such large returns to all the people, than in accomplishing such a port.

Assuring you that I am not a late convert, but since I have been familiar with the State's affairs I have been just that way.

Wishing you much success.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) B. B. COMER.

Hon. J. Thomas Heflin, United States Senator from Alabama:

The Mobile Port is Alabama's doorway to the seaports of the world and its possibilities for valuable service to the whole people of our State cannot be overestimated.

Being convinced that the credit aid sought for the port at Mobile can be granted without cost to the State, and that the advantages to be derived and the service to be rendered through the development of that port will be of incalculable value to all our people, I am heartily in favor of the adoption of the Mobile Port Amendment.

Congressman Lamar Jeffers, Fourth Alabama District:

The development of Mobile harbor will undoubtedly mean cheaper rates in the shipment of our commodities. It will mean a cotton market nearer and better than New Orleans. It will mean new business enterprises in Alabama, thereby promoting her progress and prosperity. It does not mean a drain on our State Treasury or any special tax or increase in our taxes.

A. G. Patterson, Chairman of the State Democratic Campaign Committee:

Gentlemen: The Democratic Party, in convention assembled, on the 7th day of last September, endorsed and approved the Alabama Seaport Amendment. I very heartily concurred in this action, and I want to express to you my very sincere hope that every county in the State will register its approval likewise. With the splendid endorsement, not only from both political parties, but from the Farmers' Union, Farm Bureau, the Alabama Bankers' Association, the American Legion, representative labor organizations, and hundreds of other civic bodies, there ought to be no doubt of a successful issue to this campaign. No business measure that has been presented to the people of this State for many years has been more important to our people than this.

Wishing you every success, I am,
Very sincerely yours,
A. G. PATTERSON,
Chairman Democratic State Campaign Committee.

You have trusted these men before. They never betrayed you. Can you not trust them again?

FOOTBALL FRIDAY

The Tutwiler Literary Society will clash with the Lanierian Literary Society in their annual football game next Friday at 3:00 P. M. The Tutwilers won a decisive victory last year but the odds this year seem a little in favor of the Lanierians as they have a majority of the regular string players. However, each society is going out to win and they have every member behind them. The practice that is taking place every afternoon this week indicate that this will be a game equally as interesting as an inter-scholastic contest. There will be no admission and you are invited to come if you want to see some real school spirit, and a good game of bootball.

HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY CONTEST A GREAT SUCCESS

It was great. That Library Contest. The Tutwiler Society finally won out by a very small margin. A total of $97.20 was raised for the purchase of new books for the high school library. Publishers are now being asked to submit bids upon the books which the school desires to purchase. In addition to the above through state aid we have recently ordered about 30 new volumes. The Manual Arts Class will make extra bookcases at a very nominal cost to properly shelve the new books. It is very gratifying to the student body to know that we will soon have more than 100 more good wholesome books for supplementary reading. The faculty is well pleased with the use that the students are making of the present library. A great majority of the enrollment of the school raised their quota, one dollar, and many exceeded this amount. No finer spirit has been displayed by any student body that shown in the hearty co-operation given in putting over this successful contest. Every student who worked and every person who contributed is heartily thanked for the splendid help rendered.

The Laboratory equipment for the Science Department has recently been doubled and fine work is being accomplished. Practically every student in school has elected some Science work and with the facilities now in hand they are being offered very interesting and profitable work.

The faculty is well pleased with the average of work being done. Very few are doing brilliant work but the average is unusually good. Watch for our Honor Roll in next week's paper.

Sunday was our regular preaching day at Adams and was attended by a large crowd to hear two good sermons by Rev. Edwards.

Mr. Thomas Klinner and family motored to Selma Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Adams spent Sunday with Mrs. Lue Ratliff.

Mrs. Coy Klinner and family dined with Mrs. Oliver Chambers Sunday.

Our prayer meeting at Antioch is Progressing nicely. We invite all Christian people to come and take a hand in it.

Reynolds Stood up Under Fire of Democrats and Knife of Republicans and Nosed Out With Small Majority Over Messer.

The unofficial figures obtained from the results of the election in Chilton County Tuesday show that the entire Republican ticket was elected. All Republican County Candidates have safe majorities of one hundred to five hundred except Reynolds for Probate Judge, whose majority over Messer may fall below one hundred in the official count. The vote in Chilton County appears to have been the largest in the history of the county reaching a high water mark of near four thousand.

As returns came in Tuesday night beat by beat the shouting shifted from Democrats to Republicans back and forth. Now and then the crow of the rooster rang out from Democratic headquarters down town and was borne by the loyal followers of the donkey into the camp of the Republicans who were entrenched about the court house. Then as the result was shifted by another beat and showed a majority for Reynolds, the roar of the elephant was taken up and carried down the street by the anxious army of the G. O. P., where it was mixed with the Democratic joy, making a grand celebration in which everybody felt good and at the same time anxious to know the out come of the closely uncomfortable race.

It now appears that J. Z Mims will lead the Republican tciket as many Republicans who split on the Probate Judge stayed by Mr. Mims in his race against Tom Parrish.

Tom Littlejohn will have a safe majority over B. L. Jones for Sheriff. Jim Mims and Tom Dorminey were elected County Commissioners and Wm. Billingsley and A. L. Robinson were elected members of the County Board of Education.

Present returns give W. M. Wyatt a majority of about 300 over J. L. Johnson for Representative. This majority will be increased in the official count.

SHELBY COUNTY WON BY DEMOCRATS

According to advices received over telephone here Wednesdy morning, Shelby County was won by the Democrats in all county offices by a majority of 36 in the Circuit Clerks race to five or six hundred in other races.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN SEVENTH DISTRICT

Returns Wednesday morning show that Allgood, Democrat, has defeated Noojin, Republican, for Congress in the Seventh Alabama District by over 5,000. Cullman County, which is normally Republican, was lost this time, all Democratic County officers being elected.

PORT AMENDMENT CARRIED TUESDAY

It is practically certain that the Mobile Seaport Amendment was carried in Tuesday's election by a good majority.

UNCLE TOM BATES SICK

The Union-Banner is sorry to report that Uncle Tom Bates of Providence, Beat 16, is in a bad state of health. It is feared by his friends and relatives that his condition may prove fatal.

Uncle Tom is one of the oldest citizens in his community, and he has a host of friends who hope that he may recover from his illness and be able to stir again soon.

LANIERIANS DEFEAT TUTWILER IN ANNUAL FOOTBALL GAME

The Lanierian Literary Society clashed with the Tutwiler Society in their annual football game Friday afternoon. The Lanierians defeated their rivals 7 to 0, but that does not tell the story for the Lanierians gained almost twice as much ground as the Tutwilers. The Tutwilers didn't seem able to stop the Lanierian's backfield. Every man in Lanierians backfield starred. It was composed of Mullins and Riggins at halves, Daniel at quarter and Curlee at full.

The pep of the Lanierian followers helped more than anything else. The Tutwiler could be heard when the Lanierians started their yelling. There is no alibi whatsoever because the Tutwilers had the two best backfield men that have been in school in a long time.

Daniels made the only touchdown of the game with a pretty 25 yard run. Curlee kicked goal. The Tutwilers got in 15 yards of our goal line but the half ended and they did not threaten to score again.

MRS. MAUD ALICE ASKINS

Mrs. Maud Alice Askins of Billingsley died in a Montgomery hospital last Saturday. Her remains arrived at Billingsley Sunday where the funeral was conducted Monday by her pstor, Rev. J. C. Carpenter of the M. E. Church. After the funeral the remains were taken in charge by Martin and carried to Verbena for burial in Moody lot. Mrs. Askins was a very prominent figure in the church at Billingsley and her death is mourned by a large number of friends and associates.

ELOISE ROUGHTON.

CANE CREEK

Dear Editor:

Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to this place.

Health of this community is very good at present.

All who failed to come to church Sunday missed a good time. We had an excellent sermon delivered at eleven o'clock by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Parrish. At 1:30 the church met together with the Baptist S. S. Convention, also the Clanton quartette was here and rendered some good singing which we all were glad to have them with us and hope they will come again.

At about 2:30 Rev. S. J. Ezell delivered a grand sermon. We also had a good lecture on Sunday School by Mr. J. J. Pickens. We were glad to have the convention meet with us and hope the good talks which were made will awaken this church and community to the sense of their duty and every one will come out next Sunday at 10 o'clock with the intention of making our Sunday school a grand success. We hope every one will remember the last song that was sung Sunday afternoon, which says, "Don't forget to pray." We must think to pray also think to come to Sunday school. We especially invite the older people and boys to come and I am sure the good mothers and girls will be present to do their part.

Our preaching days have been changed from the second to the first Saturday and Sunday in each month. We invite everybody to come out on each of these days, especially the members of the church.

BETHANY

Health is very good around here, taking everything into consideration. Of course we are compelled by the nature of things to allow for the Alabama bad colds and a few cases of break bone fever.

Some of us are enjoying life just fine now. Well, practically all of us are, with the exception of a few of us school kids who have Latin to contend with.

The all day rally that came off at Enterprise last Saturday was a grand success. However, I will not give any of the details, as I am expecting to see an account of it elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

A truck load of us went over to pilgrims Rest Church Sunday afternoon to the singing. All of us are compelled by truthfullness to report a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Manning of Mulberry were visiting relatives in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cagle and son, Leo, were visitors to this community recently.

HAMPTON NEWS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please alow me space to tell the people of our box supper which was announced last week.

Folks, you who failed to come, missed the fun. Our play, "The Village Gossip," played by eight girls, dressed as house-keepers, was well conducted, potraying how "gossip" grows great from nothing.

Then we had a most touching scene, "A Tableau," played by six girls, while the music, "Almost Persuaded" was rendered by the Misses Ida Hampton and Ida Scott.

After this the boxes were sold. Miss Ida Hampton's box being leader netting $4.60. Miss Ida Scott's ranked second; Miss Laura Howell's ranked third.

In all we realized $16.30 from the sales. The proceeds to be used for the benefit of White City-Hampton Consolidated school.

We are proud to say the best of behaviour prevailed during the whole performance, which speaks well for Hampton community. We hereby tender our thanks to all who assisted in making it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonza Robinson was back at Friendship Sunday as usual.

There will be a singing here Sunday afternoon. Everybody is cordially invited to come and help us out with the singing.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL STILL CLIMBING

Although the Clanton Baptist Sunday School did not reach its goal of 400 last Sunday, the attendance of 328 showed an increase over the previous Sunday. The spirit of progress is growing in all departments and we look for the 400 mark to be reached next Sunday. Our prediction of 500 in this Sunday School by Christmas still stands. It can be done if we will all half-way do our duty. Let's try it and see how easy it is. Start next Sunday.

A Wish

"I have taken Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak, too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard for us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work."

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be neded before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

REV. B. M. BRIDGES GIVES US THE FACTS IN HIS CASE HERE

It is doubtful if there has ever been a medicine endorsed by so many ministers of the Gospel as has Tanlac. Indeed, there is scarcely a faith, creed or denomination in all the land in which one, or more, of the clergymen has not publicly expressed their indebtedness to the Premier Preparation for the benefits they have derived from its use.

One of the latest to speak out in this connection is Rev. B. M. Bridges, a widely known and beloved Baptist preacher, residing at Mooresboro, N. C., whose statement follows:

"Tanlac has given me a good appetite, toned up my system and renewed my strength in such a gratifying way that I am glad to recommend it to anyone who is in a rundown condition. For ten years past I have had such a severe case of indigestion that I could not find anything to eat that agreed with me. Finally I became very nervous and could get but very little sleep or rest.

"It seems that I took nearly everything trying to get myself right, but nothing helped me until I ran across Tanlac. My nerves are so much better now that my sleep is sound and refreshing. I enjoy my meals and have also gained weight. I can say from experience that Tanlac is a splended medicine and tonic, for it has built me up wonderfully."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

CLANTON BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

The reporter has one regret—that he can not write 400 present. Looked like it until Secretary Ross announced only 322 present. "Failure" you say, but was it? Yes, in desired numbers, but not in spirit. Several classes confessed that they forgot and fell down on the job. Here we may see the meaning of the clause, "If we only had."

We need to realize the truth that "Notfailure but low aim is crime." Next Sunday we have an opportunity to do our duty. Bear with us again to repeat, "Work will win." I forgot—you forgot—we forgot, is why Ross reported only 322 present.

How Not to Take Cold.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becomeing over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

ALABAMA NOTES

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE

Two large distilling outfits, 1,150 gallons of beer and two and a half gallons of liquor were recently captured in one day and destroyed in Limestone County by state law enforcement officers, who also placed three men under arrest on charges of operating a still. Another still and 100 gallons of beer were taken in Morgan County. In Houston County a still, 30 gallons of beer and two gallons of liquor were destroyed and one man arrested for alleged operation of a still. In Mobile County a still, 720 gallons of beer and three gallons of liquor were captured.

Alabama's penitentiary lacked eight prisoners of having 3,100 at the beginning of November. Records of the state convict department show that the total when books were closed October 31 stood at 3,092. During October 157 new prisoners were received, a decrease of 18 from the number received during October, 1921. In September 91 new convicts arrived at the prisons, compared with 114 in September, 1921.

After being at large for more than two years, Alfred M. Gilmore, white convict, is to be returned to the Alabama penitentiary to serve the remainder of a sentence imposed on him in the circuit court of Jefferson County in 1918. Gilmore was located in Kansas City, Mo., where he was taken into custody by detectives of that city.

All efforts to identify the body of a white man found floating in the Alabama river near Mount Vernon in the northern part of Mobile County, have proved futile. The man was dressed in blue overalls, light hair and beard recently cut, apparently about 45 years old. He is believed to have fallen off a Warrior river barge or a steamboat.

Reports received by the state conservation department at Montgomery for October, showed the conviction of four persons on charges of seining and six for hunting without licenses in Jefferson county. Three persons were convicted during the month in Lee county of charges of dynamiting streams in violation of the fish protection statutes.

Sheriff John L. Scogins, of Montgomery county, has discovered that post holes are being used as a burying ground for liquor in Washington Park at Montgomery. The sheriff recently fished out fifteen pints from one of these holes and is holding it pending the owner's claim—it is not expected the owner will come forward and make his claim.

Civil service examinations for the coast and geodetic survey service will be held at the Birmingham postoffice building Dec. 13 and 14. This service offers young engineers a $2,000 government position and an opportunity to travel throughout the country.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes.

Note: Write for valuable free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend," to Bradfield Regulator Company, BA-23, Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Mrs. Armstrong Hostess to The Civic Club.

A lovely meeting of the Civic Club was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. White, when Mrs. John Armstrong was a charming hotess. A tall vase of exqusite white roses and chrysanthemums lent fragrance and beauty to the scene. A short business session was held. A request was read for a donation to the child labor law; also aid for the Anti-Tuberculosis league. A donation was made to both of these worthy causes. A "penny" campaign was discussed also a community club house was planned. Mrs. McDavid gave a most enthusiastic report on the meeting of the women's Federation clubs held recently at Georgiana. There will be no meeting in December the month will be devoted to the empty stocking fund. Red Cross seals will also be sold. Later in the afternoon the hostess served a delightful salad plate.

Woman's Missionary Society Meets.

Mrs. P. D. Wilson delightfully entertained the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church on last Monday. The parlors of the Hotel were decorated with chrysanthemums and georgeous dahlias. The meeting was opened with song, "All the way my Savior leads me," followed by reading of 105 Psalm, then prayer by Mrs. Pearson. The society gladly added a new name to the roll. Mrs. J.B. Deramus. Mrs. M. A. Gore was made our Chairman of the Fish Pond at the Bazaar to be given on the 28th of this month Each member is asked to give a quarter toward this booth.

Mrs. Fox, Chairman of the tent committee was instructed to have the tent ready on that morning. No further business, the meeting adjourned . The guests were then invited into the dining room where a delightful salad and dessert course was served to sixteen members.

Hallowe'en Dance Given.

One of the most delightful events that Clanton's young people have enjoyed in many months was the Hallowe'en dance given at Mitchell Dam Halowe'en night. The guests were escorted down steps bordered with evergreens to the hall where the dance was given. A "Spooky" yellow lantern on the balcony decorated with vicious looking cats created a typical Hallowe'en atmosphere and thus prepared the guests entered a hall gay with Hallowe'en decorations. Underneath a bright canopy of yellow and black streamers and miniture lights the charmingly attired masqueraders danced from nine until twelve o'clock. The affair was the most elaborate yet given at the Dam and will linger long in the minds of the guests. The ball room was festooned in smilax and Japanese lanterns and streamers of black and yellow. The large lights throughout the ball room were concealed by ribbons under which hung lanterns of bright hues. Near the entrance of the ball room a table was placed banked in evergreens and flowers from which delicious fruit punch was served throughout the evening. About ten o'clock the judges assembled on the center of the floor to ascertain the best costumes and dancers. Mrs. Heard attired in an attractive pierret costume of black satteen appliqued with yellow witches and other Hallowe'en emblems received the prize for the best costmue. Mrs. Heard is a beautiful dancer and was charming in her unique costume and was very much admired by all the guests present. She received as a prize a huge box of Whittman's candy. Mrs. Hollinsworth, who is the house guest of Mrs. Meyers, received a large box of candy as prize for the best dancer. She wore a spanish dancer's costume and her beautiful nymph like dancing was quite in keeping with her costume. After the prizes were awarded the guests unmasked and much to the delight of the bystanders the identity of the Sheik, French, Artist-Pirate and the numerous other masqueraders was revealed.

Mrs. Browder Entertains.

A lovely meeting of the card club was held at the home of Mrs. John Browder on last Wednesday afternoon. A pretty array of dahlias and chrysanthemums adorned the reception rooms. At each table a bud vase held a pretty white chrysanthemum and at the close of the game high score at each table was given same. Highest score was held by Mrs. Hance Alred, who was presented a luncheon set. Sherbert and cake was served at the close of the game to Mesdames Carrie Mullins, Eric Hart, Downs, Johnson, N. S. Johnson, V. J. Heard, Hance Alred, Ross Mullins, Frank Callen, G. Reynolds, Misses Kathleen and Bettie Mullins.

Theatre Party Given.

Quite a brilliant dinner party was given at the New Cafe on last Friday night by the young men of Clanton. The party enjoyed a show at the tent proceeding the dinner. Beautiful baskets of carnations graced the center of the table and place cards were also marked with corsages and boutomieres of these lovely flowers. The favors were dolls dressed in green tulle for the ladies and miniature cigars for the gentlemen. The following delicious menu was originally carried out. Cream of tomato, "Kitty" style, "Counts" young pig in barbecue sauce with apples, "A la Deramus," scalloped oysters, "By Judge with pan," baby lima beans in butter, "By Clara," fruit salad, "a la Grover dear" on "Bills" Lettuce, "Adelaide" celery, "Delo" olives, "Fuller" dill pickles, "Frances and vicks" devil food with "Almas" Surprise, "Otto" coffee-black, "Mary Raisen Jack." This congenial party was composed of Misses Kathleen Mullins, Roberta Curry, Mary Fuller, Alma Ratliff, Adelaide Courtney, Jessie Byrd Fuller, Maud Mullins, Messrs John Deramus, Omar Reynolds, Clay Marcus, Otto Jones, Burton Higgins, Grover Walker, and Bill Lanier, and were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Heard.

Mrs. Page Hostess.

Mrs. J. C. Page proved a charming hostess on last Thursday, having as her guests the members of the Thursday Embroidery Club at her attractive new home in the Gowan addition. A profusion of cut flowers were attractively arranged. Fancy Sewing was indulged in during the afternoon. Later the hostess assited by Mrs. Wade served coffee and Fruit Cake. The guests of the Club were Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. J. D. Armstrong, and Mrs. J. E. Gowan.

Round Dozen Meets.

Mrs. D. M. Pearson threw the doors of her hospitable home open to the members of the Round Dozen Sewing Club on last Wednesday. Lovely roses were used to adorn the living room. Fancy sewing was enjoyed and Christmas ideas exchanged. During the social hour the hostess served a delicious ice course.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-looker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peaky, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

CLANTON PUBLIC SCHOOL

The second month of school shows very little improvement over the first. Our average attendance reached 306, which is far too low for the white school. The colored has an average of 128, with only 11 tardies the whole month.

A picture was given by the Study Club to be kept in the room making lowest score on absences and tardies. The second grade held the picture during second month and is entitled to it again the third month.

Some pupils do not seem to feel the importance of being on time, while others come too soon, getting to the building more than an hour before school begins. Parents, please do not let your children go to extremes either way. The teachers are at the building by eight o'clock, which is early enough for any child to come. If the pupils come so very early. Countless petty troubles "ferment" before any teacher arrives. I do not feel it my duty to be there before eight just because a FEW persist in seeing the sun rise from the school campus view point.

We have an over-crowded condition in nearly all rooms, but especially in third and fourth grades. The two sections of the first grade were thrown together and one teacher is taking some classes from the first grade, some from the third, and some from the fourth. This helps some, but at best it is only an attempt to relieve and can not do what ought to be done. I frankly confess I can not really TEACH the forty-seven in my grade. I had a high percentage of failures in nearly every subject. Some may feel that I am not doing anything, but I can perform an impossible feat The same is true in other grades.

1st grade,	91.1%
2nd grade,	95.8%
3rd grade,	96.4%
4th grade,	95.6%
5th grade,	94.9%
6th grade,	96.6%
7th grade,	93.2%

Percentage of tardies by grades follows:

1st grade,	none
2nd grade,	2.2%
3rd grade,	4%
4th grade,	8.1%
5th grade,	4.7%

OAK GROVE

Dear Editor:

Will you please allow me space in your wonderful paper to tell a few happenings from this place, as I have not seen any from here in quite a while?

Health here is very good at present. Everyone is making syrup and also working on the church that is going up in front of Oak Grove school house, which we hope to be a success and a house of God's worship soon.

We have a good Sunday School with 104 on roll with good attendance and everyone that comes takes a part.

Our Singing Society met here Sunday afternoon, Nov. 5th, with a very large crowd. The house was called to order by the President, Mr. L. B. Cobb. The directors for the afternoon were: Vester Campbell, C. L. Langston, J. B. Northcutt, J. S. Castleberry, Gorbon Sammons, Grady Headley, E. L. Glasscock, W. J. Northcutt, Ivy Matthews, A. H. Glasscock. We were dismissed by Mr. J. B. Northcutt about four o'clock.

The Junior's B. Y. P. U. met at five-thirty, which was followed by Seniors. Was called to order by the president, Mr. W. H. Falkner. Had the Bible quiz and looked after the business, then the roll was called by the secretary, Mrs. W. A. Martin. Then the group captain, Miss Lesta Cobb, took charge of the union. We had a grood program and some good singing; had two quartetts by Vester Campbell, Paul Wilson, Prof. J. M. Lawson and Ivy Matthews and we adjourned.

Mrs. C. L. Martin entertained her Sunday school class at her home last Saturday night. There were thirty-two present and all seemed to have a grand time. Had a Bible drill and the boys hemmed the girl's aprons. A. J. Martin won the prize for the best sewing.

Now we must go and if this don't go to the waste basket we will come again soon.

FRIENDSHIP NEWS

Sunday afternoon was our regular singing time here, and we had an extra good singing. Had several of the Providence singers with us.

We invite everybody to come every second and fourth Sunday afternoons and help us with our singing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson of Providence visited relatives here the latter part of last week and first of this week.

Misses Loris and Myrtle Grant of Coopers and Miss Lena Yates spent Saturday night and Sunday as the guests of Misses Effie and Roma Hand.

Miss Clyde Hawk was the guest of her sister, Miss Vema Hawk Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Gore and Mrs. John Robinson visited Mrs. Emmett Popwell Monday.

THE FRIENDSHIP SINGING

The Friendship Singing Society met in regular session last Sunday afternoon. The Chairman T. G. Wyatt, called the society to order at 2:00 o'clock by singing, and prayer was offered by R. Robinson.

After the chairman sung two or three songs he called on the following leaders, who directed three songs each: G. C. Powell, R. M. Robinson, Maxie Boswell, E. L. Powell and C. H. Robinson. A nice quartet was rendered by Mrs. C. H. Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Collins, E. L. Powell and C. H. Robinson. The closing lesson was directed by R. Robinson, who made some very encouraging remarks followed by singing two or three good old gospel songs. The benediction was given by Mr. W. W. Hand.

All in all, this was a fine singing, one of the best we have had this season. We were indeed proud of the visitors from Providence and elsewhere, and we invite you to come back again. The society meets every Second and Fourth Sunday afternoons, at 2:00 o'clock.

BETHANY NEWS

Howdy Do!

We are indeed glad to state that health is very good at present, except had colds and break-bone fever.

Everything seems to be moving on smoothly and nicely, except politics is still a wee bit warm.

Quite a crowd of us went down to Bethsalem to the box supper Saturday night. All of us had a nice time, However, the writer was unlucky so far as the guess cake proposition is concerned.

Our school at enterprise is moving on rather nicely now under the able supervision of Prof. G. C. Weldon.

Mr. J. W. Cagle returned to Mitchell Dam Monday morning.

Messrs I. D. Huett, W. B. Williams and J. M. Williams spent the week end visiting relatives and friends around Sylacauga. They returned about telve o'clock Sunday. All three of them report a nice time.

COTTON PRICES GOING UP GET YOUR BALES IN POOL

At least seventy-five per cent of this year's cotton crop is out of the hands of the producers.

This cotton is with the big dealers, or the cotton pools of the several southern states.

A rising market is looked for. Many think it will be a run away market.

Most of the southern mills are supplied up until spring. The rest of the cotton consuming world, for one reason or anothetr, did not buy. They will need cotton later.

It is certain the big dealers are not going to try to lower prices. The cotton pools won't—and these two have the cotton.

Alabama farmers who still have a chance to get their bales placed with the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association will do well to move very quickly.

The foregoing statements are the crux of the meeting of the Association's directors held in Montgomery last week.

Members of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association may now draw against their cotton for the difference between what they drew at first and the new limit of $75.00 a bale. If they drew $60.00 a bale, they can now get $15.00 more on each of their bales by sending for it.

Only six per cent of the Alabama cotton pooled has been sold so far.—Alabama Farm Bureau News.

MIDDLETON WON THE THANKS OF REPUBLICANS OF CHILTON

The Republicans of Chilton County feel like they owe a debt of gratitude to Hon. J. Osmond Middleton of Mobile for the splendid assistance which he rendered our cause in the campaign just closed. We have heard many expressions that are highly commendatory of him and the noble way in which he upheld the cause of our party and our candidates.

Mr. Middleton spent the best part of two weeks in Chilton County, speaking every night. He was greeted at every place with record breaking crowds, nd his masterful appeals for the Republican party were everywhere greeted with a profound response from the people.

Osmond Middleton is a home product of Chilton County. He was barn and reared among us, and his friends are numbered by the thousands from Waxahatchie to Autauga and from Coosa to Bibb. When the voice of this staunch advocate of the interests of Chilton County's people was heard abroad in our land it was heralded as the sound to arms by those who know and appreciate the full meaning of Middleton's sincerity of heart and loyalty to their interests. The result was seen on election day when the votes showed that the majority of Chilton County's citizenship still feels that it can yet safely commit their interests to the hands of the Republican party.

Indeed we thank you, Osmond for your consecrated interest in the welfare of your home county, and the abiding faith which you have in us. Though you have chosen to cast your lot with others and leave us behind, still we feel grateful to you as we know you are ready to come home and raise your noble voice in our defense when we are being ambushed by the enemy.

May the Lord keep and prosper you is the prayer of legions of those in Chilton County who love you sincerely. And remember always that if you should grow weary of your adopted home, there always awaits you a welcome of warm hearts in Chilton County.

PATES CHAPEL

All who were not present at Pate's Chapel Sunday evening missed something worth going miles to hear. There was not such a large crowd but enough to have some fine singing. Everyone entered into the service with a good will and the following directors sung from one to three songs each: Chester Maddox, Harrison Hayes, J. F. Robinson, Pearl Cleckler, Mae Maddox, Eula Caton and Myrtle Robinson. Organists for the afternoon were Miss Ester Atkinson and Miss Mae Maddox.

How many of you have ever heard a group of little children singing? Most all of you have and you know how sweet and tender their voices are. Sunday two of our directors were only about twelve years old. Besides this we had a sweet song sung by the following littie girls: Hazel Maddox, Sybel Maddox, Agnes Maddox, Myrtle Robinson, Zemma Hayes and Eula Caton.

On the next Fourth Sunday evening we are going to make an effort to have a special program prepared. Everyone is cordially invited. Home folks! don't forget to come and boost your community.

County Commissioner C. T. Walker fromShoults spent last Sunday night in Clanton and was a welcome visitor at the services of the Clanton Baptist Church. He remained here Monday and Tuesday to attend the meeting of Commissioners Court.

ALABAMA NEWS TOLD IN BRIEF

A RESUME OF EVENTS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE STATE.

'BAMA AGRICULTURAL NOTES

A Weekly Recapitulation of Alabama's Farm Data and Infirmation as Compiled by F. W. Gist, Agricultural Statistician.

Prices of peanuts, as well as cotton, continue to advance. Reports from Washington under date of November 1 says that the crop in the southeastern district is much shorter than expected, and that prices are steadily advancing. Some sales are reported at $80 per ton, while many mills are paying $100 for Spanish. Mills are offering $70 to $80 for runners. The crop is not moving fast, as many shippers are holding for the top price at shipping point, and few runners are yet available.

Another week of perfect working weather has gone by, during which harvest has continued uninterruptedly. Cotton picking is nearing completion in the middle sections, and in the northern counties is approaching the end.

It is still too dry in many sections for fall plowing and sowing. It is doubtful if wheat sowing will come up to the area of last year, and the acreage to fall oats will probably be some shorter unless sowing may be accomplished within the next few weeks.

A representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, after studying at first hand the situation in Europe, expresses the opinion that the buyer over there, instead of anticipating his needs and buying when our stuff is ready for market, is using his own supplies first and waiting until they are exhausted before coming to our market. If this is true it would suggest a careful marketing of our suplies to prevent undue profits in farm products by the interests who buy up now to sell abroad later.

A study of the trend of wages shows that farm labor, life farm commodities, is selling for less relatively than all other classes. Compared with railroad labor, farm wages are now 133 per cent of 1913, while railroad wages are now 199 per cent. While railroad wages have fallen about 11 per cent since 1920, farm wages have dropped 38 per cent. There may be some compensation in the fact that in this state farmers are doing their own work, while the drift of the hired man to other lines may increase the demand for farm products and ultimately raise their prices.

Some of the theory about inferiority of grass fed beef has recently been exploded in Montgomery. Grass-fed cattle shown at the fat stock show recently have been killed and brought to the table. It dressed out to excellent proportions and when served gives complete satisfaction. If the sumpreme test is ability to eat the whole steak, this meat is good beyond question. Of course this meat came off a good pasture and one which was continuous in its feeding capacity. It is unquestionably proven that good beef can be grown on pasture alone, and, of course, the profit is excellent.

George O. Blackabna was fined $50 and sentenced to 60 days' hard labor in Covington county in March, 1921, following his trial on a charge of violating the prohobition law, but the supreme court recently failed to uphold the action of the circuit court because the word "guilty" was not contained in the verdict of the jury. The jury's verdict read: "We, the jury, find the defendant and assess a fine of $50."

In a decision handed down in the case of the People's Bank of Red Level vs. Barrow & Wiggins, the supreme court has held that money received by a wife through the sale of property in which she has a homestead interest is exempt fron the payment of the debts of her husband.

Spencer Clemmons, negro, has been identified as the alleged axe-man who assaulted Abraham Levine, causing his death and his wife, at Birmingham. Elaine and Gertrude Levine, daughters of the victims picked Clemmons out of four other negroes at the county jail.

Leland J. Henderson, secretary of the Florida Short Route Association and field representative of the American Automobile Association, spent a few days in Anniston recently assisting in the organization of a motor club for Anniston, which will be a branch of the American Automobile Association.

GILSTER'S BEST FLOUR

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Thorsby suffers a distinct loss in the death of Mr. P. G. Ault, who passed away in Birmingham last Sunday night, and was buried there on Tuesday. Mr. Ault came to Thorsby last spring and constructed an Electric light and power plant which he had been operatnig successfully for several months.

It is not definitely known at this time what arrangements will be made to continue the operation of this electrical energy business, but it is confidently expected that it will be operated without interruption as it is a public utility on which Thorsby people have learned to depend.

Thorsby Institute Basket Ball team motored to Calera Saturday afternoon, and a lively game defeated Calera Schol team by a score of 10 to 16 in favor of Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Norton desire to express to their friends in Thorsby their appreciation for the many kindly greetings they have received since their return from their long tour, and they especially want to note the gracious act of those who opened their home and prepared a supper for their comfort and enjoyment on their arrival Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. Wm. Goodgame, who recently sold his planing mill in Thorsby to the Forest Lumber Company of Clanton, says he is preparing to start another planing mill at Jemison.

Since returning to Thorsby we are pleased to note the many signs of prosperity in business lines. Business at the Bank of Thorsby seems to be good as we noticed frequent deposits. Harper & Bilinlgsley present the apeparance of plenty of goods and a clean and comfortable place to do business. A. M. Johnson is wearing a broad smile and can wait on more people in an hour than any other man in town, and make each one feel that he is doing them a personal favor.

Pate Brothers are having some hard luck in their homes, where most of the members of both Mr. Jim and Mr. Sam are down with the new kind of fever that is quite epedimic in many places. Their store is practically closed for the present. Miss Versie Littleton, who is the "presiding genius" at the Thorsby Leader, reports business good and she certainly is not looking glum.

We stepped into Geo. Freman's store, and it really looked as if some body had been putting things in their places and vigorously using a broom. Perhaps the great improvement there is due to the completion of his new warehouse in the rear of the store. We are pleased to note that the genial Mr. Ward is still on duty at this place.

Mr. Bradford of Thorsby Drug Co., says business is good. The work of restoring the building on the A. K. Horn property is nearing completion, but so far we have not learned who is to ocupy it.

Mr. J. R. Martin has filled an ugly gap by reconstruction of his store building, which is now ocupied by Mr. J. W. Vinzant's barber shop and Thorsby Meat Market, under management of Mr. J. L. Foss and Mr. M. J. Soberg. Both these institutions now have comfortable and commodious quarters.

Mr. Stoughton Bice reports good business at his Cafe and is planning to add improvements to his equipment.

Mayor Bentley's garage appears to be an up-to-date and thriving concern.

Thorsby Hardware Company, under the management of Mr. A. E. Reagan, is a business organization that would be a credit to a much larger town than Thorsby.

Mr. Felix Eiland is doing a good business at his store and feed mill east of the railroad.

Never in the history of Thorsby has its prnicipal business street presented so attractive and thriving appearance.

Howard Brthers make a fine showing on carnations at their greenhouses. Mrs. Anna Villadsen reports a light crop of pecans of the excellent quality and her pecan nursery stock in fine condition.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Soberg on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 2:30.

Thorsby Institute is filled to capacity with a student body of boys and girls, second to none in the land and a splendid faculty of trained Christian teachers, which together with its new building and equipment, makes it altogether a vauable asset to Thorsby.

That Thorsby Chamber of Commerce is a live and going organization, was very evident at its open forum meeting last Monday night in Masonic Hall, where a large and intelligent audience listened attentively to an address by Rev. Petterson, pastor of the Lutheran Church, on "The Ideal Community." Mr. Petterson out of the depth of a long and varied experience handled his subject in a masterly manner, which could not fail to be an inspiration to all who heard him. Mr. Norton, by invitation, also gave some impressions of civic benefits gathered from observation during his long tour in many states, during the summer. The discussion which followed the set speeches was participated in by Mrs. Anna Villadsen, Mr. M. J. Soberg, Rev. E. W. Butler, Rev. Petterson and Mr. C. E. Lucas. Rev. J. W. Davenport, president of the Chamber of Commerce, oficiated as presiding oficer, interspersing his remarks with humorous stories that were well received by the audience.

During an intermission, light refreshments were served by the ladies.

The Ladies Guild of Thorsby will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl C. Petersen at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 23.

Mrs. S. P. Kelley and daughter, Willie May, spent Saturday with her son, Russian, in Minooka.

Mrs. Nels Peterson returned home Sunday after a three weeks visit with her parents at West Point, Ga.

A neighborly surprise was given Mrs. M. J. Soberg Monday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. The guests were Mrs. Lefstead, Mrs. Olaf Schieve, Mrs. Martin Peterson, Mrs. Dyrhood, Mrs. Conrad Carlson, Mrs. Carl Green, Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald, Mrs. Martha Grothy, Mrs. Anna Villadsen, Mrs. B. Erdahl, and the Misses Caroline Skinnes, Ada and Marie Green, Inga and Anna Erdahl, Agnes and Mary Ella Gerald and Nellie Werness.

Mr. Magnus Sekse arrived in Thorsby last week. Mr. Sekse came to America on the same ship with Mr. Magne Anderson, but they had never met since until they met at the depot last week.

Mrs. Larkin and daughter, Lida, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Larkin's mother, Mrs. C. M. Forsman, several days last week. Mrs. Larkins left for Birmingham Friday where she will visit her brother, Mr. Bennett Forsman.

Mr. Earl Mead spent Sunday and Monday at his home in Thorsby.

The Chamber of Commerce at Florence passed a resolution at a recent meeting which requests the city commission to call an election within the near future so that the electors can express their approval or objection to the city engineer's plan for development of the Cypress creek hydroelectric power. The plans for building a dam and power house on Cypress creek for the purpose of supplying electric current for lighting and power purposes has been agitated by Florence citizens for many months, sentiment in its favor being more or less crystallized when three civic clubs of the city recently passed resolutions favoring the plan.

Inspired by the victory of the "Crimson Tide" over Pennsylvania, a special meeting of the executive committee of the University Million-Dollar Drive was held recently in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium with a full attendance and plans were made to voluntarily raise Tuscaloosa's subscription to her quota from $90.00 to $100,000. HOSPITAL NOTES

We have been so busy for the past week or two that we have not had time to gather all the details of news concerning the things that have been taking place at the Central Alabama Hospital in Clanton. We would like to have been able to mention the names of the many people who have been treated there, but the rush of other business has prevented us doing so.

But we can summarize the events of the past few weeks by saying that the hospital has been very busy indeed. It has been doing business on a big scale. There have been as high as five or six operations a day. The white apartments of the building have been so crowded that it has been necessary to place some patients on cots in the sun parlors.

There have been quite a number of out of town people in the hospital, as well as a great number of local people.

Hereafter we hope to be able to give a weekly report of what is doing at the hospital.

I THANK YOU FRIENDS

It is with the deepest gratitude that I extend my thanks to the voters and citizens of Chilton County, a mjority of whom said by their ballots on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, that they wanted me to represent this county in the next Legislature of Alabama. My efforts shall be expended at all times in an honest and sincere endeavor to properly represent the people of our County. It is said by some of my opponents that being a Republican, I will necessarily be out of harmony in a Democratic Legislature, and will be unable to render any service to my people. I do not believe that my being a Republican will render me incapable of seeing the interests of our county and State in a true light. And my political views will not hinder me from taking such stand upon various measures as I think our people would have their Representative take.

The Legislature is not the proper place to fight out the political battles of our state. The efforts of that body should be devoted to the higher and nobler task of so reconstructing our governmental machinery in a way that will bring to the people a more satisfactory and equitable arrangement of the manifold functions of government and laws of every kind.

I feel sure that in so far as the legislature may be disposed to play politics, that part of the game will be taken care of by the Democratic leaders who will be in control. I shall have nothing to do with that phase of the subject. I would not if I could, because such practices as the promotion of politics in our law making machinery is out of place and is responsible for much of the useless and extravagant things that have been foisted upon our State by the Democratic party in the past.

But I feel that I am fully capable of determining the interests of the people of our State, both large and small, and I have no fears but that I shall have a chance to let my voice be heard in championing those things which should be fostered and preserved to the eternal benefit of our State.

It is no shame for a Republican to be a member of the Democratic House of Representatives. It is indeed a distinct honor, for which I sincerely thank my good and loyal friends in Chilton County. That I may be able to serve you in the proper way, with credit to myself and honor to my county, is my one sincere hope.

Respectfully,
W. M. WYATT.

THE ELECTION LAST TUESDAY

The result of the election in Chilton County on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, 1922, is not unlike the outcome of all elections, in that those who were elected are glad, and those who were defeated have some other kind of feeling other than gladness. And too the same spirit that is displayed by the successful and unsuccessful candidates likewise possesses their friends and the party whose standards they bore.

But in many respects the campaign which was brought to a close by this election was different from any ever before witnessed in Chilton County. The Republican party and its candidates at no time during the campaign were in any danger at the hands of the Democrats alone; it was the dissatisfaction within the Republican party, coupled with the natural opposition of the Democrats that made the situation threatening, and brought a close finish for Judge Reynolds against Rev. Messer, the Democratic candidate, who received not only the votes of the Democrats, but hundreds of Republican votes as well.

But great and powerful as was this combination of curions political circumstances, it was not quite powerful enough to crush the popularity of Judge Reynolds with the people of the county. It was not able to override the splendid official record that has been made by Judge Reynolds in the administration of the affairs of the people through the office of Probate Judge. It was not sufficient to bring about the repudiation of the Republican party at the hands of a majority of the people of the county, as was hoped and prayed for by the Democratic leaders who were jubilant over the action of those Republicans who were willing for this time at least to leave their own party and join hands with the opposition in order to wreck vengeance on Judge Reynolds for their imaginary political unrighteousness which was charged to him on every hand.

If the Democrats had had behind them a party record of worth and had offered the people of the county a constructive and definite program for the future, and had put up candidates who were unquestionably able to meet the demands, the result might have been different.

But we are glad to say that there were enough of the people of the county who kept steady in the boat, and turned the result in the manner most assurnig of the future of the county, as we believe that future is and will be best conserved in the hands of the Republican party and the candidates of that party which were elected.

Now that it is all over, we can only say to our Democratic friends that we hope your defeat will not hurt you too bad. We feel like the Republicans made an honest and clean fight against great odds, and we are glad that the verdict of the people has sustained us to the end.

To those Republicans who did not choose to stand by all the candidates on the Republican ticket, we can but say that we hope you were honest in your attitude, though we believe you were mistaken in your conception of the situation. With the greatness and gravity of the things that were at stake, we do not see how anybody could lay it all aside and line up in a campaign of personal abuse and bitter prejudice, but that is not for us to explain. That matter is with those who took such a stand.

Our hope is that you may yet be able to see that the interests of our county will be properly administered by the Republican officials who were elected on last Tuesday. You may have had what you consider good and sufficient reasons for not supporting the Republican ticket this time. But you cannot stay with a party that offers you no more than the Democratic party does. When you see that the Republican party is continuing to march on through the future carrying with it the protection an proper administration of the public affairs of our county and its citizens, we believe you will reflect over the matter through the coming years out of the heat of political campaign, and we feel sure that all of you will be able to get yourselves set upon the right road again ere long.

We would remind those who were elected on last Tuesday that the repairing of the broken places in our party is with you. If you will perform the duties of the offices to which you were elected in the right way, and render the proper account of your stewardship, those who cast their votes against you this time will not do so to your successor when he comes up before them in years to come. It is in your hands now to bring these prodigal Republicans back to the party or to drive them further way from home.

BETTER PRICES FOR COTTON

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 15—Cotton sold, so far, by the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association has secured for owners of the bales approximately three cents a pound more than that sold outside of the organization.

From information given officials of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association, and coming from all over the state, it appears that the average price "paid on the street" for cotton not handled by the Association has been about three cents less a pound than paid to the Association members.

President J. M. Kernachan of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association invites the attention of growers who do not belong to the Association to the fact that though they are getting a better price, or can get a better price, because of the existance of the organization, at the same time they are unconsciously fighting their best interests by not placing their cotton in the pool.

Each bale placed with the organization tends to raise its own value and better the price of all.

ABOUT CONTESTING THE ELECTION OF REYNOLDS

There is much talk in the Democratic camp about contesting the election of Judge Reynolds on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, 1922. It seems that many of the Democrats, especially those who have nothing to do but stand around on the streets of Clanton and blow their hot air, have concluded that the Republicans won this election through various kinds of fraud and numbers of illegal ballots. We have not heard them say how many illegal votes there were cast for Brother Messer. Perhaps they have not figured on that part of it yet. But if they want to contest, that bit of information will be given the public, as well as the truth concerning the fraud which they charge to the Republicans.

The Union-Banner feels that the Republicans are in equally as good shape to stand a contest as the Democrats; so if they are not satisfied with a defeat of thirty-three for Mr. Messer, we are perfectly willing for them to have their contest, which we feel sure will give Reynolds a much bigger majority than that which the official count showed.

We have heard so much of this Democratic rot about the fraud and crookedness of the Republicans that we are ready to have a contest in order that the public may know that this stuff that is being blown about by irresponsible persons is wholly untrue.

From the way some folks talk, you might think all Republicans wore tin horns and all Democrats sprout wings. If those who talk such stuff want to have a contest we will have the pleasure of seeing who is the devil's tin angel.

FROM MR. J. Z. MIMS

To the Voters of Chilton County:

I wish to take this means to partially express my thanks to the Republican voters of the county and also to any one else who might have seen fit to vote for me this time.

I cannot command words to fully express my thanks and appreciation of the splendid vote that I received at your hands on November 7th. My ambition and concern will be to prove my appreciation of your confidence by an honest and businesslike administration of the affairs of your Circuit Clerk's office for the next six years.

I have always looked upon a public office as a public trust, and shall so consider my office. I do not expect to do just as every body wants me to do, but I do intend to treat every body as nearly right as I know how. When you need me, call on me and I assure you that I will wait on you in a kind and courteous manner.

Again thanking each and every one that cast their vote for me, and assuring you that I will strive to give you no just cause to ever regret what you did for me. I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
J. Z. MIMS.

JUDGE REYNOLDS ATTENDS PORT CELEBRATION, MOBILE

Judge L. H. Reynolds left Wednesday night for Mobile to attend a "jollification meeting" in celebration of the passage of the Mobile Port Amendment by the people of Alabama in the recent election. The invitation to Judge Reynolds was extended through Sid Lyons, who was Mobile's Chairman of the port campaign. Governor Kilby, Governor Elect Brandon, Hon. Sid Bowie and Hon. H. K. Milner will also be honor guests of Mobile in this celebration.

Judge Reynolds will be in Mobile for a couple of days on this trip. He will come back to Clanton the last of this week.

ISAAC O. RETHERFORD

The death of Isaac O. Retherford, age 94 years, occurred at his home near Mineral Springs on Monday afternoon. He had been sick only a week with pneumonia.

Surviving him there are left three sons, Joe Retherford of Gorgas, Ab Retherford of Mineral Springs, Jim Retherford of Cane Creek and Green Retherford of Clanton. He also leaves an aged wife to mourn for the loss of her companion of many years.

Mr. Retherford was loved and honored by everybody as a noble Christian man. He was a Methodist Minister for many years, continuing as such until unable to do so by the weight of old age.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. D. M. Pearson of the Clanton Methodist Church at Mountain Springs, after which the burial was made by the Clanton Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Retherford was a faithful member.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION FROM JUDGE REYNOLDS

Clanton, Ala., Nov. 15th, 1922.
Editor Union-Banner

Permit me to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to my friends who supported me in the last election, and I ausre you that I will so endeavor to manage your county affairs and your county court in a manner that will never give you any cause to regret having supported me.

I shall strive at all times to mete out justice to every man, woman and child, with fairness and impartiality. As I stated before the election, it is my purpose to keep the county on a cash basis, to preserve your money, and lessen your taxes. As you know, I have served twelve years in this same capacity, and I believe I am qualified to advise you correctly along any line pertaining to the office, and I want you to always feel free to call upon me whenever I can be of any assistance to you.

I have no word of censure for the Republicans who voted against me or against the party, for it is a man's privilege to vote the dictates of his own conscience. It is only our party's interest that I have in mind, and I shall be glad to see the parted factions once more reunited, that our party may grow in strength and in power. We have built a strong party in Chilton County, but unless it becomes solidified again, our party is destined to fall.

I am informed that there were numerous illegal votes cast in this election, and I believe the Grand Jury should investigate those who took an oath and voted knowing they were not qualified. Some of these voters have never registered in this county and others of them have failed to pay their back poll tax; in fact, it has come to be a joke to take the oath and vote illegally. I have been informed that a certain lawyer in Clanton advised some to vote who weren't qualified, assuring them that they would never be prosecuted. We must keep the ballot box clean and for the legal voters only. I have heard some talk of a contest, and if one is filed, I want a thorough investigation; and if Rev. Messer has one more legal vote than I have I want him to have the office. In the meantime I think every illegal voter should be made known and dealt with acording to law.

Again, let me express my sincere appreciation for the support I received, and for the supreme and undying loyalty among my friends, and with an asurance that you will be remembered with a mind that knows not the word "forgetfulness."

Yours very truly,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter. . . consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating. I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer."

Have you tried Thedford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be neded before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

DEATH OF MRS. MILLER

On last Monday morning at 6:00 o'clock the death angel visited the home of Mr. Fate Miller and removed from our midst his beloved wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller. She had been a sufferer for years and had to spend several years of the latter part of her life in the invalid chair.

She was about seventy years old and has been a consistent member of the Baptist Church from childhood. She was a loving wife and a devoted mother. She leaves a husband and three children and three step children, one brother and several grand children.

We extend our heart felt sympathy to them in their bereavement and point them to the giver of all good and precious gifts; and may we so live from this good hour as that we may be able to say as she did in her last days that she was ready to go.

We would say to the bereaved, weep not as for those who had no hope, but let us rest assured that our loss is heaven's gain.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Hughes at 4:00 o'clock and the remains were laid to rest in Chestnut Creek Cemetery.

BOX SUPPER, PLEASANT GROVE

There will be a box supper at Pleasant Grove Friday night, Nov. 24. Also there will be a cake for the best looking girl. So all girls are invited to come and bring along your best beau. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the school.

Everybody invited to come.

ALONZA L. WILLIAMS

Alonza L. Williams, age 41, died Monday a.m., and was buried in the family lot at Samaria Tuesday p.m., Rev. S. J. Ezell assisted by Rev. B. Lawrence, conducting the services.

Mr. Williams has been a member of the Baptist Church for 29 years and has lived a pious Christian life, and was liked by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed by the entire town as well as his church to which he was so loyal.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Williams, one son Irvin, who is with the L. & N. Railroad Co., two daughters, Mrs. Lois Mims, Clanton, Mrs. Ruby Smith, Birmingham, two step children, Tera Parrish, Birmingham and Lorine Parrish, Clanton, a Godly mother, Mrs. Lela A. Williams, seven brothers, Rev. J. Toy, Missionary in China, Rev. J. O., of Athens, Ala., T. L., with Alabama Power Company, Clanton, T.E., Bank Cashier, Albany, J. Harvey, Bank Cashier, Guntersville, H. G., now in Seminary, Louisville, Ky., and J. D., Birmingham, two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Wood, Lock 12, Mrs. Joe Parrish, Lock 12.

The many floral oferings and the great concourse of people at the funeral was evidence of the esteem in which he was held.

We were glad to have 320 present in Sunday School last Sunday. This is good, but had it not been for several cases of a contageous disease among the children in town, we would have had 400. Glad to see so many in the Adult classes. Men, Women, Let's go! The primary department is coming.

Come and bring one with you next Sunday and let's have 400.

Good Health.

If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowles regular. No one can reasonably hope to feel well, when constipated. When needed, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle.

MISS CLARA GENEVA SCOTT

Miss Clara Geneva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott, Thorsby, Route 1, died Tuesday morning at Central Alabama Hospital, Clanton, after an operation for apendicitis. She was buried at Pleasant Hill on Wednesday. She is survived by a father, mother, three sisters and four brothers, besides many other relatives and friends who will greatly miss her.

This young girl reached the operation table just a little too late. All that the doctors and nurses could do was of no avail.

How Not to Take Cold.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becomeing over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

EAST VIEW'S BASKET BALL

The East View Basket Ball team has been doing good playing this season. Since our players are too light for foot ball, they decided to start early in the season to make basket ball a success.

East View has lost only one game out of the four played. They put it over Enterprise by three points, 13 to 16; and the next time on East View's court they cleaned Enterprise off of the map. Nelson and Courtney did extra well, also Driver did some good playing. The score was Enterprise 3, East View 23.

We are expecting the East View Tigers to clash with the fast team at Coopers Friday, Nov. 17. Though there may be no game, Coopers may not agree.

Remember, we are not the best players in the county nor senior students, but it is believed that East View has a lively and good little team.

At East View 45, vs. Coopers 1;
At Enterprise 13, vs. East V., 16;
At East View 4, vs. Verbena 12;
At East View 23, vs. Enterprise 3.

The East View Tigers were even with Verbena at the end of the third quarter. The score at the end of the third quarter was: East View 4 and Verbena 4. Some how the Tigers let Verbena out play them on the last quarter and the end of the game was: East View 4 and Verbena 12. The game with Verbena was the cleanest one of the season. We expect to do better next time we play at Verbena.

What Every Expectant Mother Should Know--

Mrs. Laura Hendrix, Gracemont, Okla., says: "I want to express my appreciation of "Mother's Friend." I am the mother of six children, expecting another one soon. I have used "Mother's Friend" with every one of my babies. I think it is the grandest help that has ever been discovered for the expectant mother. I can't do without it. I recommend it to all expectant mothers. I can't say too much for it."

"Mother's Friend" was originated by an eminent physician. It has saved thousands of expectant mothers from useless suffering. It is externally applied; aids the muscles and tissues to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and up to the moment baby arrives.

"Mother's Friend" is safe and beneficial, and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. Avoid mere greases and useless substitutes.

CHANCE TO FIND OUT

Just now a belated effort is under way to find out some of the facts about government business and government employment. The Bureau of the Budget has been organized and is in operation under the direction of Charles G. Dawes.

Both houses of congress are working on the problem of reclassification of government positions and salaries. The Veterans' bureau has been organized and has taken over the bureau of war risk insurance, that part of the public health service which had to do with veterans, and all of the work of the federal board for vocational education except that part which had to do with the treatment of persons injured in the industries.

There is also the inquiry being made by the joint committee on the reorganization of the administrative branch of the government of the two house of congress, of which I have spoken. Walter F. Brown of Ohio is chairman of this committee, representing President Harding. The members of the committee are, on the part of the senate, Senators Smoot of Utah, Harrison of Mississippi and Wadsworth of New York. The members on the part of the house are Representatives Reavis of Nebraska, Temple of Pennsylvania and Moore of Virginia.

The job of this joint committee is to "make a survey of the administrative services of the government for the purpose of securing all pertinent facts regarding their powers and duties, their distribution among the several executive departments, and the overlapping and duplication of authority."

In reporting the resolution from the judiciary committee to the house the members were told:

It is a matter of common knowledge that millions of dollars are wasted by the government by the almost endless duplication of activities. There has been no fundamental change in the administrative activities since the organization was devised by Alexander Hamilton, and the result is that activities entirely out of harmony with the functions of departments have grown with the passing years until the government of the United States has become not only the biggest business in the world, but the world's worst managed business.

The purpose of the resolution is to ascertain so far as possible the extent of the overlapping and duplication of activities, with the view that numerous commissions and bureaus may be eliminated and a great saving effected in the governmental expenditures. The committee feels that no more constructive legislation is possible under existing conditions than the legislation proposed by the resolution. With the present condition of the nation's finances and the burdens the people suffer because of excessive taxation, any legislative measure looking to real economy should commend itself to the sympathetic attention of the house, and we feel that the passage of this resolution and the work of the committee which will be done under its authority will result in the saving of millions annually.

It can be predicted with considerable assurance that nothing will come of this proposed voyage of discovery unless we, the shareholders in the enterprise, maintain an active, lively, sustained interest in it. One thing is always true of the house of representatives—it is representative. If we breathe warmly upon it, it glows. If we are indifferent it becomes cold.

This isn't the first time that a plan has been set in motion to find out something about how the government's business is conducted.

The earliest inquiry into the administrative methods of the executive departments was made by the Cockrell commission in 1887. Six years later, in 1893, a joint commission, of which Representative Dockery was chairman, was appointed to examine the status of the laws organizing the departments. President Roosevelt in 1905 named an interdepartmental committee, of which C. H. Keep, assistant secretary of the treasury, was chairman, to consider department methods. President Taft in turn, in 1910, named a commission on economy and efficiency of which Frederick Cleveland was chairman.

Broadly and generally speaking, nothing came of these enterprises. You and I—commonly and vaguely known as the public—were not interested, and neither was congress. That ended it.

But just now, at this moment, we have the best chance we ever had to find out about our common business and how to improve it and lessen its cost to us. The burden of supporting it is heavier than ever before.

You will perhaps notice all through these articles that the information supplied me about the general facts of government employment and government business are in terms of estimates and approximations. This is one of the defects of government organization. It is so large and so formless, and its parts so unrelated, that exact and precise information about the whole is virtually unobtainable.

It is of the greatest urgency and need that the people shall know about their government, but they will find it difficult to learn until the government knows about itself.

CHILD REPORTED KILLED BY TRUCK

Report reached here Wednesday afternoon that some time Wednesday morning Mr. Elijah Deason ran over his four year old son with a truck and killed it instantly. The tragic accident is said to have happened at the Deason home down below Kincheon. Efforts were made by The Union-Banner Wednesday night to confirm the report but we were unable to obtain the facts.

A petition filed with the Alabama Public Service Commission by the Chamber of Commerce of Albertville and various shippers of cotton residing in that territory, requests that the N., C. & St. L. Railroad be required to issue bills of lading for cotton in the towns of Albertville and Boaz when cotton is offered to it. The petition also requests that the respondent railroad be required to furnish cars for the shipment of cotton when they are demanded by the plaintiffs in each of the towns named. It is alleged that there is a quantity of cotton on hand at Albertville ready for shipment, but that cars cannot be obtained from the railroad to ship it in.

The finding of a human skeleton in the excavation for a new building in the downtown district at Florence has stirred up much speculation among the old residents of that city as to the identity of the gruesome find. Captain James Simpson, one of the old residents of the city, who is 94 years of age, has volunteered that as a child he remembers that he was told that Capt. Dick Rapier, one of the pioneer river men on the Tennessee and Mississippi rivers, was buried at the spot where the skeleton was found.

C. L. Anderson, convicted in Jefferson County of taking two $1 bills, a 50-cent piece and 50 cents in change from Lloyd Franklin McEachern by violence and against the latter's will, must spend the rest of his natural life in the penitentiary. Anderson was found guilty of robbery on indictment charging that offense and on March 11, 1921, was sentenced to life imprisonment. The supreme court of Alabama has affirmed the decision in a decision announced.

Roosevelt memorial tree planted on the Alabama capitol lawns by Boy Scouts recently has mysteriously disappeared and in its place the night watchman found a note typewritten which read: "Montgomery, Get this Alabama! To all concerned:—The Daughters of the Confederacy are our mothers (war-mothers) and this is the south. There are no trees in honor of southern gentlemen in the capitol yard at Washington and our war-mothers do not want this one here."

Things hoped for are being brought to reality by the military department of the University of Alabama. The university is now building a target range for gallery practice in connection with the R. O. T. C. The range will be located in front of the armory and is being rapidly rushed to completion so that matches may be held with various colleges of the south.

At a meeting of the State "Y" conference recently held in Montgomery, a state council for the colleges of Alabama was organized, and John J. Sparkman, who is now president of the university student body, was selected as president of the organization. Patton of Auburn was seletced vice-president, and James of Birmingham-Southern, secretary and treasurer.

Extensive preparations are being made in Elmore county for farming next year. The farmers, having realized a profit from this year's efforts and seeing that the future holds prospects still brighter for them, have taken heart and will move toward their tasks of another year with a great deal more vim than has been the case during the past several years.

Stuart Johnson, alias "Ferrill," pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing an automobile of F. I. Spaulding, a prominent business man of Mobile, when arraigned in the circuit court on a charge of petty larceny.

"Business in the south is again on the upgrade," says Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway company at Washington, D. C., in his annual report which has just been made public.

North Alabama shivered October 18 in the coldest weather so far this season. The first frost fell and tender vegetation were nipped in many counties.

More than 50 prisoners from Dallas County are now being worked at Tredenburg, according to Judge Watkins Vaughan of the probate court at Selma.

Ground is expected to be broken in a few days for the dye works that will be constructed as an adjunct to the Autauga Cotton mills at Prattville.

The Presbyterian training school, the first of its kind to be conducted by a presbytery, closed a two-day session recently at Athens.

Plans are on foot to erect a large hospital at Jasper. A Birmingham party, headed by Dr. A. C. Jackson, well-known surgeon, was in Jasper recently confering with the Walker County Medical Society, and investigating the claims of Jasper as a suitable place for a hospital.

CHURCH OF CHRIST HOLDS SERVICES IN CLANTON

Last Sunday was a great day. The members of the Church who live in and around Clanton came together and held a unique service in the nice little hall over Smith & Downs Whole sale Grocery Store. The hall was filled to its capacity with more than thirty members of the church present to make the beginning. O. C. Dobbs of Fayett, Ala., preached. His sermon was to the point and well taken. In the afternoon a business meeting was held in which Brother Dobbs talked to us about the organization of the church, qualification of Elders and Deacons, etc. Every member pledged himself to work for the establishment of a good congregation in Clanton.

There will be church services every Sunday at ten o'clock, a.m., and we most cordially invite one and all to come and worship with us whenever it is convenient. To those who do not attend services elsewhere, we especially invite you to "Come over and help us." You will find a warm welcome and a hearty handshake for all who come.

J. S. Moores of Wetumpka, Ala., will preach for us at eleven o'clock next Sunday. Come and hear him.

Little Gastonia Woman Gains 25 Pounds

"When I began taking Tanlac," says Mrs. Shirley R. Froneberger, of 115 East Third St., Gastonia, N. C., "I was almost a nervous wreck. My condition had become such that I was almost desperate. I was troubled with gas on my stomach and had sick headache so bad I often had to take to my bed. I was so run down that even the care of my three little children was almost beyond my strength.

"What six bottles of Tanlac has done for me is too wonderful for words to express. My nerves are as calm now as nerves can be and I am off to sleep nearly as soon as I get in bed at night. I have gained 25 pounds and am feeling fine. If it is ever necessary for me to take medicine again I will certainly take more Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Rev. P. G. Carter of Mobile stopped off in Clanton Monday and spent the day and night with friends. He left Tuesday morning for Cullman to attend the Alabama Baptist State Convention.

MULBERRY DOINGS

(Arrived too late for last week.)

Well, as we never read any Mulberry News last week, we decided we wuld come asking admittance in your good paper. Wt can't do without The Banner as it brings news from all over the County.

Miss Vera White, who is teaching school at Longview, was visiting home folks Sunday.

The entertainment at Isabella High School Saturday night was sure good and all during the exercises it furnished lots of fun. We think that the old plantation dance could not beat it, especially the song sung by James Lecroy. The proceeds went to the school, which was $40.00.

We hear that Mr. Bill Veazey has a brand new Ford right out of the factory.

Miss Bertha Manning, accompanied by little Miss Tracy Beutell, from Clanton visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Manning Sunday.

From the way we see cars from Wetumpka every Sunday at Mr. D. O. Manning's, there is danger of us losing some of our teachers. What about it girls?

Our prayer meeting is still going on nicely. Prof. Griffin was with us Sunday night and made us a good talk on how to live right. If we would live as Prof. Griffin is living and as he tells us to live, we would not even touch a single drop of whiskey at home on the road, around the church, and no where. Listen, boys, does your mother want you to drink? Before you take your next drink, ask her does she care if you drink some whiskey and use bad language afterwards.

Ardel Mooney, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mooney, is very low. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Veazey visited Mrs. Veazey's sister, Mrs. Callie M. Wright at Macedonia Sunday.

Miss Jewell Wright is on the sick list this week. Hurry up Jewell and get well and come back to school. We miss you.

Mr. June Garner from Birmingham was visitnig in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. G. H. Deshazo made a flying trip out home one day last week to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Deshazo.

D. O. Manning is in Coosa County this week seeing after his farm.

Miss Virginia Cook Likes It!

Miss Virginia Cook of New York says Royal Guaranteed Roach Powder is the best she has ever used. "I got rid of them quickly." POPLAR SPRINGS SINGING

Our regular Singing Society met with a good large congregation last Sunday morning. Our directors were Messrs Grover Gilliland, Reese Wyatt and Newton Gilliland. Organists for the afternoon were Miss Jewell McDowell and Mr. Grover Gilliland. After the society, we heard a fine sermon preached by Rev. M. J. Parrish.

We cordially invite all singers to meet with us on every second Sunday at 9:30 o'clock, a.m., and every fourth Sunday at 2:00 o'clock p.m., and bring your new song books.

GROVER GILLILAND, Pres.
LAWTON McDOWELL, Secy.

MT. PLEASANT

Our school is progressing nicely and from all prospects we will have the most successful term that we have had in several years.

Misses Eula Foshee, Hollis Wells and Vera Atchison spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Foshee.

Mrs. Orman Love of Wylam spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rowell.

Mrs. Eula Culver of Birmingham, spent last week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foshe.

Mr. Lake Thompson of Selma spent last week end with his sister, Mrs. John Duncan.

Mr. Kin Vinson is now employed as Chief Clerk in the office of Probate Judge Reynolds. Mr. Vinson is a young man of energy and ability, and his clerkship in the Probate office will no doubt be a means of rendering the patrons thereof a very efficient and satisfactory service. For several years Mr. Vinson was connected with the county tax office in which capacity he made a splendid record for accurate work and devotion to duty.

REPORT OF BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

Rev. Ezell did not preach a "regular sermon" at the eleven o'clock hour lat Sunday morning, but took up the time to render a report from the Baptist State Convention which was held at Cullman last week. His report combined the story of the good time which was shown the delegates at the convention with some very pungent facts and figures concerning the work of the Baptist denomination in Alabama and the South, and in the foreign fields of the world. Particular stress was laid on the importance of the 75 million campaign and the great impetus which it has given to Baptist work and religious progress. Rev. Ezell and Brother H. S. Shaw were the delegates to the Cullman Convention from the Clanton Church.

FROM MR. LITTLEJOHN

Clanton, Ala., Nov. 20, 1922.
To the Voters of Chilton County:

I wish to express my thanks to the Republican voters of the county and also to others who saw fit to vote for me. Now, the election is over, let us all go to work for the best interest of the county. With your help will try to keep old Chilton a clean place to live in.

Yours truly,
T. J. LITTLEJOHN.

Fire-Fighting in Clanton Should be Systematic.

The editor of The Union-Banner was not present at the fire last Monday, which destroyed the home of Mr. J. A. Nivens; but we have heard various kinds of comment about the inadequacy of the fire-fighting facilities of the City of Clanton, as exhibited in this particular instance. A little investigation and inquiry into the matter has led us to conclude that the city officials are not altogether responsible for this inadequate fire-fighting that was manifest Monday, and is likewise seen every time we have a fire.

We believe the city officials have provided us with as much and as good fire fighting apperatus as they can under the financial conditions of our town. What we need now more than all else is some system in using the apparatus which we have. We need an organized fire-fighting company with the right kind of a leader.

With the confusion and conflict of efforts which we display every time a fire occurs, we could not put out a fire successfully if we all had a fire engine and a mile of hose apiece. We should have a fire brigade to keep track of all the hose and ladders and such, and that knows just where to find the new and best hose and the next best and so on; and that knows which reel has the old worn out hose and therefore not to be depended on.

We learn that Monday the old worn out hose was grabbed by someone who did not know what he was getting, and placed on the standpipe farthest from the fire and right where the strongest hose was needed. Of course, when the water was turned on, the hose began to leak and burst, and by the time the water reached the nozzle a block away all the pressure was taken up by the leaks back behind.

This could have been avoided if the fire brigade had been organized and was thoroughly acquainted with the means to be used.

You can put this one thing down now: We will never have a successful means of fightnig fire until we get a properly trained and organized volunteer fire fighting company. It makes no difference how much hose and reels and ladders and water pressure and chemical wagons and this and that and the other we may get, it will only add to the confusion, unless it is handled in a systematic way.

We believe the present fire-fighting devices of the town are adequate if handled in the proper manner.

JUDGE REYNOLDS OF CHILTON

That was a close race between Judge Reynolds, Republican candidate for re-election as Probate Judge of Chilton County, and his opponent, a Democrat, in the recent election, the former winning by a majority of only 33, acording to the officil returns. Along with the election of Judge Reynolds was the entire Republican ticket but all by reduced majorities, which gives hope to the Democrats of that county that they will get the judge's political scalp the next time. But the next time is six years off. A great many things can happen in that time. And the judge is a shrewd politician, always on the job. His political career since the days of the formation of the Populite Party, and its long and brilliant existence, is an interesting part of the history of the State.—Editorial in The Montgomery Journal.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Living up to its promise to the people that it would spare nothing in its efforts to make known the advantages of Alabama to the outside world and to constitute this the leading industrial state in the Union, the Alabama Power Company announces that it will maintain an industrial exhibit in New York at the Grand Central Palace, for one whole week, beginning December 7th. This will be in conjunction with a south-wide effort fostered by the Manufacturer's Record to sell the advantages of the South to the Nation. The Power Company intends to make its exhibit so attractive and convincing as to influence the capitalists of the East to come to Alabama with their factories and families.

Tentative plans for the exhibit call for a pictorial display of the State's inducements as an industrial center, motion pictures showing the natural resources and agricultural possibilities of Alabama, and illustrated literature descriptive of the State's many advantages. A special hall has been secured for the showing of the Company's industrial and educational films. Persons thoroughly familiar with Alabama's resources will be available to tell with the spoken word the almost incredible story of Alabama and her yet untouched wealth of natural gifts, which await only the willingness and efforts of men and money to convert them into veritable harvests of riches.

More than one hundred and fifty Alabama Civic Organizations have been asked to cooperate in this movement by supplynig the Power Company with literature descriptive of their communities' advantages, etc.

It is believed that hundreds of investors seeking new fields of endeavor will be attracted to the South through this coordinated effort and that Alabama, which is fast being recognized as the virgin industrial field of the nation, will come in for its deserved share of this vast influx of wealth.

"If Alabama's wonderful inducements and our Company's efforts count for anything," stated an official of the Power Company, "Alabama, from Florida to Tennessee, will be greatly benefitted by this exhibit."

Only a very few things were saved from the fire. Mr. Nivens lived in the home that was originally built by J. C. Jones on Fourth Avenue at Twefth Street West.

Dear Editor:

Health in this community is fine at present. Our Sunday School which was organized a few Sundays ago is getting along fine. We have an enrollment of 48 and there were 32 present last Sunday. We had some good talks on Sunday School by Bro. Joe Cleckler and Bro. J. M. Willis.

Mr. Willis said for everybody to get in the habit of going to Sunday School just like doing any thing else, and it will become natural for them to go to Sunday School.

So, everybody is cordially invited to come and bring somebody with them. VIRGLE SMITH.

MILLION DOLLAR COTTON CROP IN CHILTON COUNTY

The cotton that was grown in Chilton County this year actually sold for over a million dollars. According to the government census report, there have been ginned in this county already of this year's crop 10,816 bales. The average amount which each bale brought can be safely figured at $100, which makes a total of $1,081,600 for our cotton crop. Last year up to this time there had been ginned only 5,309 bales, a little less than half this year's crop.

The total number of bales ginned in Alabama this year is reported as 711,500, as compared with 512,613 up to this date last year.

How Not to Take Cold.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becomeing over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

TALK ABOUT THE CONTEST

We are still hearing some discussion on the streets of Clanton about a contest, and about showing up some illegal practices that have been going on in regard to the elections in Chilton County. We Republicans say, let 'er come, and we will show you some real showing up. We also noticed where the Chilton County News said that the penitentiary was yawning for some people in this County, or words to that effect, with which we most heartily agree.

It must not be forgotten, however, that a man or woman who has registered illegally is not qualified to vote; and in a final outcome those particular votes will be thrown out. It must also be remembered that it takes a majority of the Board of Registrars to act in registering a man or woman, which happens to be two in this County. And last winter when the three registrars of our County split up and one went one way and one another to register Democratic women, intentionally omitting Republican women, that this was absolutely against the law. All those voters who were registered by one registrar individually were illegally registered and are therefore disqualified to vote; hence, these votes will be thrown out in a final count of the contest.

The law also requires these registrars to give notice of the time and place where the voters are to be registered; and when these registrars register any voter at any other place, they have themselves not only violated the law but these voters are illegally registered and will be thrown out.

We say again that we heartily agree with the Chilton County News that these illegal practices should be brought to light and some people made to pay; and we Republicans say again, let 'er come. We believe that every time a Republican is sent to the pen for illegal practices in regard to elections, there will be a Democrat to go along with him.

HIRE GOVERNMENT HELP

The civil service commission hires all employees in the classified service of the government. The only thing to be said about the classified service, is that it has not yet been classified. But you shall hear what the civil service commission has to say about hiring help, without comment from me.

There is an utter lack of definitely planned and well-organized employment policy in the government service.

There is need for a centralized employment office with jurisdiction in all matters relating to employment.

The employment methods of the government should be such as to serve for a model for private business.

There is at present no central control over the executive service short of the President. The President is a busy man and cannot concern himself with the details of the executive departments.

The lack of efficiency in government offices has a marked effect on private business.

Definite information concerning the number of federal civil employees in different branches of the service and the amount of the government pay roll are not readily available.

An official register, or blue book, is issued every two years. It is out of date long before it is printed.

A provision of the civil service rules theoretically gives the civil service commission authority to collect and maintain complete personnel statistics. The labor and expense involved, however, practically prohibit the collection and compilation of reliable statistical data.

In addition to the limits of the commission's authority is the absence of authority to enforce its findings. The commission can make recommendations to the departments and offices and urge their observance, but it cannot enforce them.

Congress passed what is known as the civil service law January 16, 1883. This act created the United States civil service commission. The law was intended to cure in part the evils traceable to the spoils system, which grew out of the four-year-tenure-of-office act of 1820.

During the first 40 years after the organization of our government, administrative practice with regard to the civil service seemed to conform to the intention of the founders. The Constitution fixed the term of no officer in the executive branch of the government except those of the President and vice president. It was the established usage during these first 40 years to permit executive officers, except members of the cabinet, to hold office for an unlimited period during good behavior. The practice was changed in 1820 by the four-year-tenure act. The spoils system, as it was officially described as early as 1835, was introduced and extended until it permeated the entire civil service of the country.

The fundamental purpose of the civil service law was to establish, in the parts of the service covered by its provisions, a merit system whereby selection for appointment should be made upon the basis of demonstrated relative fitness, without regard to political, religious, or other such considerations.

The act requires that the rules shall provide, among other things, for open competitive examinations for testing the fitness of applicants for the classified service, the making of appointments from among those passing with highest grades, an apportionment of appointments in the departments at Washington among the states and territories, a period of probation before absolute appointment and the prohibition of the use of official authority to coerce the political action of any person or body.

In 1883, the year in which the civil service law was enacted, 13,924 positions in the civil service were made subject to competition. The entire number of positions in the federal executive civil service on June 20, 1916, was 480,327. At the height of the war expansion there were approximately 1,000,000 men and women employed in the federal executive civil service, about 700,000 of whom held positions subject to competition. On July 31, 1920, the entire number of federal executive civil positions, as nearly as can be estimated, had been reduced to 691,116. Approximately 450,000 of these were subject to competition, or, in other words, in the classified service. The force is still slowly but steadily decreasing.

During the 19 months of our participation in the war the civil service commission gave competitive examinations under the civil service law and rules to slightly less than 1,000,000 persons, and about 400,000 persons with tested qualifications were supplied by the commission to the service. A normal year's business is about 200,000 persons examined and about 50,000 appointed.

Captain Robert Dollar, long experienced in ocean transportation, is undoubtedly correct in the judgment recently expressed that wihtin the lifetime of shippers now living the center of world commerce will shift from the Atlantic to hte Pacific. Europe has nearly reached if it has not already passed its summit in production and trade. The Americas and most of the countries bordering the Pacific in Asia are undeveloped and have resources thus far hardly touched. Siberia is a vast expanse of latent wealth. CChina holds mineral deposits awaiting use. The East Coast of Africa offers the best gateways for commercial development in the interior of that continent, and Australia is young in industry. South America and trans-Pacific markets offer the best opprtunities for the future of American trade. In those regions there will be the greatest development in the next hundred years and becaue of its own resources, experience, interprize and wealth, the United States shoud be the strongest factor in aiding the transformation of a comparative wilderness into a home land for a vast civilized population. Our commercial relations with Europe are by no means a thing of the past, but the door of greatest opportunity opens toward the West.

STATE AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

Compiled by F. W. Gist, Agricultural Statistician for Alabama.

Another week of perfect working weather has passed in Alabama, says F. W. Gist, federal and state agricultural statistician, which has brought the 1922 harvest just another week nearer to completion. This harvest season, beginning with the first of August, has been perhaps the most nearly perfect since the mind of man runneth not to the contrary. In two and a half months not that many days over all the state have been such as to interfere with farm work. The present crop has been gathered with less extra hired labor than any in present recollection. Farmers have been able to put in solid time in labor almost the eitire crop year, and after all unbroken labor, with a fair return therefor, is the very highest attainment for the man who works. Of all the men who labor to live the farmer is the most constant. He never strikes, he never sulks, who can say that this time the gods of destiny have not been on his side. While his returns in Alabama are gratifying, as indicated by the recent estimates of production, he is entitled to every dollar of it, because he has erned them.

The corn crop of the state is twelve million bushels below last year, and in the aggregate will only half supply the total demands of the state.

With a million bushels of sweet potatoes more than last year, and the price now tending upward from around 80 cents in local markets at the highest to 65 cents in outside markets, sweet potatoes look like good hog feed this fall.

WEEKLY MARKET SUMMARY.

The following average prices were paid to Alabama farmers for products mentioned for the week ending Saturday, November 11:

Cotton, middling, 25 cents per pound; cotton seed, $45.00 per ton; corn, $1.10 per bushel; peanuts, Spanish, $100.00 per ton; runners, $80.00-$85.00 per ton; velvet beans, $18.00 per ton; cow peas, $1.50 per bushel; soy beans, $2.25 per bushel; Johnson grass hay, $16.00 per ton; peavine hay, $25.00 per ton; soy bean hay, $25.00 per ton; sweet potatoes, 85 cents per bushel (50 cents in heavy producing sections); sugar cane syrup, 60 cents per gallon; sorghum syrup, 60 cents per gallon hogs, 7-7 1-2 cents per pound; cattle 3 cents per pound; chickens, 27 cents per pound; eggs, 40 cents per dozen; butter, 30 cents per pound.

Cotton has advanced $10 per bale during the week, and there is free prediction that the staple will reach 30 cents. The government report released Wednesday shows 8,139,839 bales ginned to November 1; the number ginned in Alabama was 709,023 bales. There has been rapid advances since this report was released and big sales were consummated when middling reached 25 cents.

There is a scarcity of corn and other feedstuffs throughout many sections of the South. The price of corn has reached $1.25 per bushel in some sections of Alabama, and there is a considerable demand for corn in car lots coming from farmers in South Alabama counties. It will likely be $1.50 corn after the holiday. Cow peas, velvet beans and soy beans are in active demand, and higher prices are in prospect for these and all other feed products.

The peanut market is active with marked advances during the past ten days. It has developed that the yield is considerably under normal throughout South Alabama this season and that the quality is rather poor. Prices of No. 1 stock range around $100.00 per ton with promise of even further advances.

The potato situation in the east and west is not encouraging to growers, the price ranging from 20 cents to 45 cents per bushel. Some farmers in the Northwest have been offering potatoes free to anyone who would dig them. Production of potatoes has been very heavy in those sections. The sweet potato market is also very unsatisfactory, especially in the central markets of the east and west. They are quoted wholesale in Cincinati and St. Louis as low as 50 and 65 cents per bushel hamper. They are bringing from 65 cents to 85 cents per bushel (in bulk) in southern markets.

Divided into 40 teams, members of the Birmingham Rotary Club have opened their campaign to raise $25,000 for meeting the budget of the Boy Scouts and the Boys' Club for the ensuing year, a task which the Rotary Club has undertaken for several years.

Montgomery was chosen as the place for holding the 1923 convention by the state Baptists at the recent meeting held in Cullman.

Under the leadership of Rev. John Caylor, Baptist student pastor at the University, a new organization is being perfected to lead the students in religious work. It is known as the Baptist Students' Union.

J. King Stanley, district deputy, has been given authority to revive and reorganize the Knights of Pythias lodge at Guntersville which was disbanded some years ago after a long and honorable career.

Taxicabs have been legislated from Perry and Commerce streets by the City Commission of Montgomery.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Notwithstanding the thunder storm last Saturday evennig, a very good audience assembled at Bates Hall to see and hear Jane Goude, in her interpretation of "The Girl from the West." This was the first number of the two entertainments to be given this seson under the auspices of Thorsby Institute. Miss Goude is an artist of rare ability whose impersonations and readings were, in some respects, superior to any yet seen in Thorsby, and we certainly have had some good ones.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Howard Garrick and Miss Stela Lowery, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Lowery, were married at Jemison. They will make their home for the present with the parents of the bride.

Mrs. P. G. Ault has sold her household goods and leased the electric plant and has gone to Atlanta to make her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Anna Villadsen has leased her bungalow, recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Ault, to Mr. George B. Higgins from Mulberry. Mr. Higgins is in the lumber business in some capacity, connected with John B. Higgins Planing Mill at Thrsby, who are doing an extensive business in furnishing material for new freight cars.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson and Mrs. Robert Smith went to Montgomery Monday night, as delegates to a convention of the Order of Eastern Star.

Miss Clara Pearson of Thorsby Institute faculty spent the week end at her home in Eclectic, Ala.

Last Friday afternoon at Jemison, Thorsby Institute basket ball team played a fast game against the boys of Jemison High, who proved no match for their opponents. Capt. Litteton of the Thorsbyites had his men in fine form and captured a score of 31 to 13.

The sick folks of Thorsby, at Sam Pate's, Jim Pate's and Rev. J. W. Davenport's are all reported on the road to recovery, and some of them have been very ill indeed.

Miss Fairbanks of Dakota is a newly acquired addition to Thorsby Institute forces and will serve as a "General Utility Aid" wherever assistance is most needed.

Miss Katherine Perry, girls athletic each, and many other important adjuncts to Thorsby Institute, who has been ill for several days, is again on duty.

We noticed Coach Sappington of the boys athletics at Thorsby Institute limping around with a sprained ankle. Hope he will soon recover.

Last Sunday at the Cngregational church, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Graham preached an eloquent and forceful sermon from the text "What hast thou in thine hand?" Exodus 4-2, showing the reluctance of Moses to undertake the work to which God had called him. Also how few of us ever feel fully prepared for what appears to be set for us to do, but when we are ready to go forward trusting in God, wisdom and grace will be given.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Congregational Church and under the auspices of the young men's and young women's classes of the Sunday School, there will be a Memorial Service for the late Richard Butler, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Butler. During this service a collection will be taken for relief of sufferers from war in the Near East.

Most people in Thorsby know of the handicap under which the manager of Thorsby Section of The Union-Banner is doing his work, and he solicits the hearty cooperation of all our people in an effort to make our paper of live interest to as many of our readers as possible. Bring or send to him before noon on Tuesday of each week such items as will help to make our part of the paper the BEST EVER.

Elmore's has just gotten in 3,000 yards of the best grade heavy Sheeting which they are selling cheap; it was bought before the rise.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be neded before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County, Circuit Court in Equity. Geneva Davis, Complainant, vs. LeRoy Davis, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by affidavit of Grady Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-ofifce address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years.

It is therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him the said LeRoy Davis, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 15 day of December, 1922, or in thirty days thereafter a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.

Chamberlain's Tablets Haave Done Her a World of Good.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Button, Kirkville, N. Y. "I have recommended them to a number of my friends and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation,, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

The shame of a blemished face!

That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Blackheaded pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun,—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean clear-pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

It takes a high-grade flour like Gilster's Best to make tender, flaky pie crust and light, delicate cake. Of course, Gilster's Best costs a little more than ordinary flour, but good cooks know that it is worth it.

In baking with Gilster's Best, be sure to use less lard than you ordinarily would. Because of its high quality and the extreme fineness to which it is ground, Gilster's Best requires less shortening.

If you perfer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

JESS BAKER AND TOM TAYLOR BOUGHT FOX BUSINESS

Messrs Jess Baker and Tom Taylor announce that they have bought out the business of Mr. W. W. Fox, which is located next to the First National Bank, and will continue the same at that place in future. The new owners are to take charge next Monday.

Baker and Taylor are two hustling young business men who are well known here, having been in business for several years. They recently sold out their general merchandise and dry goods store on Sixth Street to Kendrick & Connell.

We understand that Mr. Fox will continue his auction business, dealing in all kinds of second hand goods. His future location has not been selected.

NEW YORK STORE TO HOLD GREAT PROFIT-SHARING SALE

Sale to Start Friday, Dec. 1, 9 a.m.

In a recent interview with the manager of the New York Store, he stated that the people of Clanton and throughout Chilton County will see the opening Friday of the greatest selling campaign ever staged here.

No store in the past has gone to such preparations as this store did to make a real Community Benefit out of a sale. The idea of profit has been entirely discarded and every advantage of our purchases has been given to our customers in the way of the lowest price since 1914.

At this period of the year when the people need new wearing apparel and other incidentals, why this Sale will be a blessing to the community for the amount of money it will save them.

Early Attendance is Advised.

As this event has been advertised for many miles arund and into almost every home in the County, why it would be prudent to get here as early as possible Friday so when the doors open at 9:00 a.m. the pick of our large stock will be easily selected. Read about this big sale elsewhere in this issue.

PATES CHAPEL

On Sunday afternoon, despite the cold weather, a very large crowd met at the church for singing praises to God. We always appreciate our visitors presence and were especially glad to see so many of the home folks out. If we keep singing we hope to have fine class here soon.

Among the directors for the evening were Harrison Hayes, Chester A. Maddox, Hazel Maddox, Eula Caton, Zemma Hayes, Sybel Maddox, Lillie Cook and Mrytle Robinson. The closing song was sung by four of our little girls, Eula Cotan, Hazel Maddox, Rena Hayes and Ollie Pate. Even this one song was worth facing the cold wind to listen to.

Saturday and Sunday Rev. Lowery will preach here. Come and listen to him. You will not regret it.

With all good wishes to The Union-Banner, will close.

CARD OF THANKS

I extend herein my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my friends and neighbors who were so faithful and untiring in their help rendered us in our sickness with the flu. I feel under special obligation to Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Ruffin for caring for the baby while we could not care for him. Wife and children join in thanking you all. J. A. RAINES.

$100,000 SPENT BY SCHOOLS OF CHILTON COUNTY

The annual report of the County Board of Education, which has just been issued in pamphlet form by Supt. Howard L. Foshee, shows that a total of more than one hundred thousand dollars has been spent by the County Board in the past school year for educational purposes.

Summarizing the years work, the report of the Board closes by saying: "We feel that this shows that the people of the county are now appreciating their schools and are doing what they can to make them a success. With the continued co-operation of the teachers, trustees and patrons, the Board feels that we will soon have in Chilton County as good schools as any rural county in Alabama."

Any person who desires a copy of this report may get it by asking for same at the office of Supt. Foshee.

OAK HILL NEWS

Our Sunday School is still progressing nicely with Prof. A.H. Glasscock as Superintendent. Our new preacher (or old preacher made new) will be back on his job and fill his regulr appointment next Sunday and Sunday night. Come and hear him.

Our singing society met Sunday evening with a fairly good attendance for a cold day. The class was called to order by vice president, E. L. Glasscock, who sung the opening song, followed with prayer by J. B. Northcutt. Then the following directors sung from two to four songs each: J. B. Northcutt, Paul Wilson, Prof. Lawson, Vernon Northcutt, Vester Campbell, Grady Headley and A. H. Glasscock. Organists for the evening were Misses Lena Glasscock, Esther Atkinson, Flossie Cobb. The singing was fine as usual. We began singing at 2:00 o'clock and sung until 4:00, and everybody seemed to enjoy it. This was evidenced by their patience and good order throughout the evening. We had some visitors from other places, which we were glad to have with us. Among them were Mr. Vester Campbell who has just recently moved from this community to Oak Grove. We regret very much to lose such a good Sunday school and church worker, but we are always willing to make a sacrifice for those in need of such men as Mr. Campbell. He is a good singer and we are always glad to have him and all other visitors with us at all times.

One of the boys who participated in a difficulty at this place on last fourth Sunday evening was here apologizing for his conduct and asking that he be given another chance to make good, promising never to be guilty in any way of such a thing again. We are always glad to have the boys with us, but we expect them to leave off their drinking and fighting when they come to see us, for it is a violation of the law to even appear in public intoxicated, and the church is no place for a drunkard. So for the sake of your good name, your parents and your pocket book, boys, leave it alone.

REV. WILKERSON COMING AS PASTOR METHODIST CHURCH

According to arrangement made by the Methodist Conference in Montgomery last week, Rev. C. C. Wilkerson comes to Clanton for next year as pastor of the Clanton Methodist Church. Rev. Pearson goes to Selma next year.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Pearson in Clanton regret to see them leave our city.

Election Contest Filed Tuesday Afternoon

Messer Says Much Fraud and Crookedness was Practiced to Beat Him out of Probate Office And Keep Reynolds in Again.

The petition of C. D. Messer contesting the election of L. H. Reynolds as Probate Judge of Chilton County in the recent election was filed in the Circuit Court of Chilton County Tuesday by parties representing Mr. Messer. This action brought to a conclusion many rumors that have been afloat since the election regarding some alleged illegal phases of the same. The rumors will soon take form of cvidence in the court and will be either substantiated or annihilated.

Mr. Messer sets out the following grounds upon which he will seek to prove that the election of Reynolds was illegal:

That illegal votes were cast, counted and returned for said L. H. Reynolds, which if taken from him will reduce the number of legal votes given to him to or below the number of legal votes given to Messer.

That at said election legal votes were rejected which would have been cast for Messer and which if they had been permitted to be cast for Messer would have increased the legal votes cast for him to a number which would exceed the number of legal votes cast for L. H. Reynolds.

That L. H. Reynolds, being at the time of said election and for many months prior thereto Probate Judge of Chilton County was guilty of malconduct, fraud or corruption in connection with or in the performance of his duties as Probate Judge in connection with the administration of the law commonly known as the absentee voters law, which malconduct, fraud or corruption consisted in this: That L. H. Reynolds received the ballots of absentee voters and failed to safely keep said ballots and failed to deliver the same on election day to the respective voting places of such absentee voters, which of itself alone or in conjunction with the giving of illegal votes to L. H. Reynolds, or the rejection of legal votes belonging to Messer, when everything is corrected will reduce the number of legal votes for Reynolds down to or below that of Messer. Te respective names and voting precincts of such absentee voters being at the present unknown to the petitioner, Mr. Messer.

That L. H. Reynolds did prior to said election furnish ballots to absentee voters without the application of said voter therefor, which when corrected will reduce the number of legal votes received by Reynolds down to or below the number of legal votes received by Messer.

That in said election at the various voting places in Chilton County there was malconduct or fraud on the part of the majority of the inspectors or miscalculation or mistake made in counting, certifying or canvassing the votes at said voting places, which of itself alone or in conjunction with other illegal practices herein set out will reduce the number of illegal votes cast for Reynolds down to or below the number cast for Messer.

That said elcetion inspectors or a majority of them counted ballots for L. H. Reynolds which were not cast for him, or failed to count ballots for Messer which ballots had been cast for him.

Bond Filed.

With his declaration of contest, Mr. Messer also filed a bond of security for the costs of such contest, which bond was signed by the following list of persons:

C. D. Messer, the Democratic candidate for Probate Judge, who is the one declaring the contest;
John M. Robinson, Lumberman, of Clanton;
L. F. Gerald, local attorney for the Alabama Power Company and the L. & N. Railroad Company;
B. L. Jones, merchant of Clanton and recently defeated Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Chilton County;
O. O. Roper, of Clanton;
G. C. Armstrong, merchant of Clanton;
N. S. Johnson, local physician for the Alabama Power Company;
T. C. McSwain, of Clanton;
Arthur Johnson, local physician, of Clanton;
J. W. P. Murphy of Clanton, sales clerk of Clanton Mercantile Co.;
T. H. Neighbors, druggist of the Alred Drug Co.;
J. H. Gulledge, merchant of Verbena;
J. Hance Alred, of the Alred Drug Company, Clanton;
S. L. Gibson of Verbena;
W. A. Gulledge, merchant of Verbena;
D. I. Deramus, merchant of Verbena;
A. H. Allen;
J. T. Allen;
D. M. Martin;
William Walker, farmer of Mulberry;
G. W. Fox, of Maplesvile;
H. M. Nix, dentist of Maplesville;
G. A. Coleman;
J. P. Lawrence of the Lawrence Garage, Clanton;
J. J. Pickens of the Downs Hardware Co., Clanton.

In closing, the petitioner, Mr. Messer, prays that the cause be entered on the trial docket of the Circuit Court of Chilton County as a civil cause pending for trial, that the Clerk of said Court issue a certified copy of the statement of the contest to L. H. Reynolds, requiring him to appear within five days to make answer to the same, and that the Court will hear and determine this contest on the day to be fixed in accordance with the law, and upon such hearing the court shall ascertain that the petitioner, Mr. Messer was duly and legally elected to the office of Probate Judge of said County.

From the best information we are able to obtain, we learn that the case of Mr. Messer and the Democratic party in this contest, will be handled in the court by Hon. Fritz Thompson of Birmingham, one of the legal attaches of the Alabama Power Company and also by Mr. Lawrence F. Gerald, attorney of Clanton, who has for many years past represented the Alabama Power Company locally.

If this is the array of legal talent that is to conduct this political post mortem of the voters of Chilton County, we wonder where the Alabama Power Company is going to stand while the sepulcher is opened and the filthy fumes released by their own attorneys, as they promise to do, and bust the Republican party of Chilton County into smithereens?

GROWING SATSUMA ORANGES HERE IN CHILTON CCOUNTY

When Judge Reynolds returned from his trip to Mobile a few days ago, he brought back a quantity of the famous Satsuma oranges which grow in the southern part of our State. He was exhibiting them to some friends around the court house, and among whom was Mr. Wiliam Billingsley of Thorsby. Mr. Billnigsley took notice to the Mobile Satsumas and then told the crowd that he could show them some Chilton County oranges that were equal in every respect to those from Mobile. When he came back to Clanton last Friday he brought along one from his trees and left it at The Union-Banner office. So far as we can tell the orange that was grown by Mr. Billingsley is as good as those which came from Mobile. He says he has two trees at his home in Thorsby, which produce a full crop every year.

It just took until noon last Thursday for the ten dollars to be won by Miss Genie Collins. A correct solution of the missing letter puzzle was presented at the Retherford Furniture Company just before noon by Mrs. H. F. Downs, who was not eligible for the prize, because she is a member of the family of a merchant of Clanton. A few minutes later a second correct solution was presented by Miss Genie Collnis who carried away the prize.

There were quite a number of others who solved the puzzle correctly, but got there too late.

HOSPITAL BUILDING DAMAGED BY WIND MONDAY NIGHT

The high wind which blew with terriffic force all night Monday night did some damage to the roof of the Central Alabama Hospital building in Clanton. A section of the metal cornice was blown off and a wide space of the roof proper was raised from its moorings ready to sail away if the wind had gotten a bit stronger.

It was a peculiar wind of the dry variety, not being ccompanied with any rain or other atmospheric phenomena other than down right hard "blowing."

Neighbors Were Astonished At Her Change

"I had lost nearly all faith in medicine, but I am thankful a thousand times over that I ever believed in Tanlac strong enough to try it," recently said Mrs. Martha Baker, 508 Sixth St., Gastonia, N. C.

"My daughter thinks I might not be here now if I had not used Tanlac and no doubt she is right, for I was failing pretty fast. The lightest kind of food hurt me nd many times I could not retain anything I would eat. I was also fearfully nervous, couldn't sleep, and got up mornings completely worn out.

"After I got Tanlac I improved so rapidly that my neighbors were astonished and wanted to know what I was doing for myself. I am just like a new person now and I know at least a dozen people have taken Tanlac and got well on account of what it did for me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

ANOTHER COUNTRY EDITOR

The senior member of the household of The Onlooker rises serenely to the task of congratulating the people of Chilton County in their choice of Editor W. M. Wyatt as their representative in the next legislature. Some may say, "Why congratulate Editor Wyatt? Nay, not us. It was the wisdom of the thinking voters over in Chilton that placed the political chapeau on the head of our esteemed compatriot. Over here in Baldwin the voters look at a Republican with a sort of don't-give-a-darn concern for his feelings.—The Foley Onlooker.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS CLEAR AND CONVINCING

Washington, Nov. 27.—"Whatever the effect may be upon Congress, President Harding's address on the merchant marine problem will appeal to the country as sound in logic and remarkably clear in presentation of fact and reasoning," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Whatever may be the result of the vote on the pending bill, history will approve the President's effort to secure its enactment.

"Briefly summed up, his address demonstrates that the United States needs an American merchant marine, that the present effort in that direction is costing the government about $50,000,000 a year, that under a subsidy plan half of our ocean commerce can be carried in American ships at a cost to the government of not to exceed $30,000,000 a year, that a merchant marine under the American flag is not an advantage to coast states alone but to interior states that produce the commodities to be shipped, and that America must have merchant ships as aids to the navy in case of war.

"No brief summary can do justice to the address, however. It was written in language which any citizen can understand, and every citizen should read it before reaching a final judgment on the subject. A full copy can be had on application to any Senator or Representative. Moreover, every citizen who is represented in Congress by an opponent of the pending subsidy bill should write to each Senator or Congressman and ask him two questions: "Are you in favor of an American merchant marine?' and 'If you oppose the pending bill, what other measure do you propose for securing a permanent American merchant marine?'

"This is the great issue of the day, and the outcome should be in accordance with the best interests of the public opinion."

MESSER FILES HIS CONTEST

The much-talked of contest over the election of Judge Reynolds as Probate Judge of Chilton County in the general election of November 7th, took on an aspect of reality when Mr. Messer formally filed his contest papers in the Circuit Court of Chilton County Tuesday afternoon.

As will be seen by the more detailed account of the matter in another place in this paper, the statements of Mr. Messer set out a number of charges of fraud and misconduct in the election on the part of Judge Reynolds, the election officers, and voters who participated in the election and voted for Reynolds.

He avers that those errors and illegal practices, when corrected, will reduce the majority of Judge Reynolds to nothing, and place the total vote of Messer higher than that of Reynolds, thereby taking the office away from Reynolds and bestow it upon himself.

That is Messer's side of the argument. But there is another side to the question. This other side will be looked after by Judge Reynolds. While there may have been some illegal Republican votes cast, we feel that it is even more certain that there were also some illegal Democratic votes cast. We therefore feel sure that while Brother Messer is engaged in his task of purging the Republican voters of all uncleanliness there will be all the power and opportunity necessary at the proper time to show how the Democratic side of the matter will look when the light is turned on in the dark places.

Judge Reynolds will spare no means nor effort to uphold himself and the Republican side of this contest. If there are those who think the Democrats are going to run away with this business like taking candy away from the baby we warn them now that they will change their minds when the battle gets well under way.

There is one thing about this contest that has caused quite a ripple in the thought and reflection of the people of Chilton County: which is the personnel of the lawyers who are said to be in charge of Mr. Messer's contest. It is reported that his lawyers are Hon. Fritz Thompson of Birmingham and Hon. L. F. Gerald of Clanton. As both of these gentlemen are known to be on the staff of the Alabama Power Company there is much speculation as to whether the power company is taking any hand in the proceedings or looking upon the same with any interest or favor. It will be interesting to note developments in this phase of the matter.

Now, that the contest is to come we declare again, as we have said before, the Republicans are ready for it. It is going to be no half-way business but a fight to the finish, with the end in view that all parties in the case shall be measured by the same rule. We are for the fair and honest thing.

The Republicans of this County have not got millions of wealth to back them in their position. But they will put up such a noble defense as has never been excelled. The party is composed of honest people, many of whom long years ago left the Democratic party because of the rascality which it practiced in elections. Such men as those are honest. They are willing to sacrifice anything for the right. And they can be depended upon to stand true to their convictions.

We believe that whatever position or power or influence the Republican party in Chilton County has, it achieved it honestly. And we know there will be no yielding of ground without some stubborn contest over the same.

What is believed to be the most remarkable yield of cotton in northwest Alabama produced under boll weevil conditions, is reported by Dr. W. R. FARM BUREAU NEWS.

The total advance to members of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association now exceeds $2,300,000. Since the directors announced the availability of an additional advance of 15c per pound to those who have placed their cotton with the Association, a total sum slightly exceeding a quarter of a million dollars has been added to the money circulating in Alabama. The graders of the association announce that there is now some slight falling off in the grades of cotton being received, which is to be expected this late in the season, though compared to previous years the quality is much higher than in the past. The number of long staple bales found in the samples sent to the Association is now well over the 600-bale mark. The Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association wants each member next year to plant some long staple cotton and advises the farmers to take this matter up immediately with the Extension Service at Auburn and learn what seed is best suited to their particular locality.

More than $50,000 in cash has been subscribed by Alabama citizens for the erection of the proposed Alabama Memorial Building which is to stand on property south of the capitol building at Montgomery. This building, which is to house the department of archives and history, is to stand as a memorial to Alabama and Alabamians in the World War.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be neded before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Mr. Grover A. Bice, Postmaster at Thorsby has succeeded in securing at Washington an improvement in mailing service that will be greately appreciated by the business peple in Thrsby. Trin No. 12, the morning local from Montgomery, now carries News papers and Parcel Post packages and delivers same at all stations between Birmingham and Montgomery. At stations where this trin is due before Rural delivery men starts out on their round this means delivery, to rural sections of newspapers, magazines and parcel post packages one day earlier than under the old service, and permits the mailing of parcel post packages in the morning that formerly had to wait for the evening train.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jackson are rejoicing over the arrivel of a 10-lb baby girl last Sunday morning.

In an accordance with an established custom at Thorsby all of our people are invited to unite in holding Thanksgiving services this year. The meeting will be held at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, Nov. 30 at the Baptist Church. It is not definitely known at this writing who the speaker or speakers will be, but there will be an opportunity to make a Thank Offering for the benefit of some worthy cause, as is always done on these occasions.

Considerable interest has been aroused among Scandinavians in and about Thorsby by the publication in a Scandinavian newspaper of a letter from Mrs. Anna Lundeen, wife of a Lutheran Missionary in China, written to her sister in St. Paul, Minn., relating scenes and incidents pertaining to the capture and carrying off of her husband and a Mr. Fosberg, also Rev. Nels Benson, all Lutheran missionaries at Honon, China, by bandits. Mr. Benson will be remembered as a visitor to Thorsby last spring while on a vacation in America and a visit to his home at Hastings, Minn. A brother of Rev. Benson stationed at Silver Hill, Ala., has preached frequently at Thursby Lutheran Church. So far as is known these men have not been injured in any way, but are probably being held for a ransom.

The electric light plant has been getting their power from John B. Higgins planing mill, and the well which supplies water for their steam boiler is temporarily out of order, hence no lights until repairs are made, which is being pushed as fast as possible.

Having purchsed all interests of the late P. G. Ault in the Thorsby electric plant. When fully organized, it is the intention of the incorporators to make such improvmeents as will provide constant and dependable service.

The services in memory of Richard Butler, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Butler, who died August 24th, 1922, near Daytona, Fla., held at the Congregational church in Thorsby Sunday Nov. 26th under the auspices of the young mens classes of the Congregational Sunday School, will long be remembered by its simple earnestness in portrayal of the all-around beautiful development of character in a normal red blooded boy.

Rev. James W. Davenport, pastor of the church spoke briefly of the maturity of his understanding of Christian principles and his helpfulness in Christian service among boys and girls of his own age, about 14.

Wilbur Peterson, who had been asked to speak of Richard as a friend, spoke as follows:

I have been asked to say something about Richard as a friend. I have been trying to write, but every time my eyes get dim with moisture—you understand. Therefore, what I shall say will not be one-tenth of what someone could say about Richard as a friend. Richard was a boy, every inch of him, with enough manhood sprinkled in to demand respect. I can truly say that I have never had a truer friend than Richard. I may live to be an old man, but I shall always be happy to remember Richard as my boy-hood friend, and when I shall pass to that great beyond, I could never desire anything more sincerely than to be met by my boy friend and escarted by him to his Eternal Home.

Mr. Owen Sappington, athletic coach for boys at Thorsby Institute, gave his impressions of Richard in a few impressive words. Also Miss Jenkins, principal of the Institute paid her respects to him in a short but touchnig discourse.

Miss Katherine Perry recited the poem "Away," by James Withcomb Riley; and Miss Agnes Gerald sung "Some Sweet Time Bye and Bye," and a quartet from the young mens class consisting of Gerald Smith, Spurgeon Kelley, Glover Smith and Monroe Adams, "When the Mists have rolled Away."

The Thorsby Parent-Techers Association held their regular meeting Friday evening, Nov. 24th. In the absence of Rev. J. W. Davenport, president, Mrs. Clarence Bice, first vice-president called the meeting to order. Mrs. Bice read the 19th Psalm and Prof. Harris led in prayer. On motion, it was voted to send Mrs. Bice as a delegate to the State Convention at Birmingham December 6 and 7. Mrs. T. W. Robinon, Mrs. S. C. Wood and Mrs. L. E. Davenport president, Mrs. Clarence Bice first vice-president, Mrs. Chas. Howard second vice-president and Mrs. W. L. Leary secretry and treasurer. Mrs. Bice read an able papel on a new school for Thorsby, emphasizing the fact that it must be decided by the general public whether it is to be a school for Thorsby alone or a consolidated school that will benefit the larger surrounding community. The latter seems to be most prevaent at the present time. Prof. Harris made some remarks on the same general subject, but giving some details of plans for working along this line.

The business meeting was followed by a social program by children of the public school.

POOR ORIGINAL

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Joint Hostesses Entertain.

One of the loveliest of the children's parties given recently was that of Miss Lena Mims and Master Jackson Armstrong celebrating jointly their 14th and 10th birthday anniversaries, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Armstrong. The apartments were prettily decorated in fall flowers and yellow and white streamers conveying a color note of yellow and white. Numerous juvenile games were enjoyed, the most interesting being the pinning on the donkey's tail, for which Billie Smith won first prize, receiving candy. Lurline Minor won booby, a "stick" of candy. The dining table held the birthday cakes, holding the 14 and 10 yellow and white candles. Here much merriment was caused by blowing them out. Later in the evening a most delicious ice course and fuits were served. The guest list embodied about sixty of the younger set.

Mrs. Downs Hostess.

A pleasant meeting of the Card Club was held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hosea Downs. Tables were arranged in the living room for the gme and was decorated with pretty chrysanthemums. The score prize, a luncheon set, feil to Mrs. Arthur Johnson. At the close of the game a lovely dessert course was served to the club members only.

Skin Ablaze with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are rundown. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

Mrs. Alverson Hostess.

Among the most enjoyable social affairs of last week, none was more enjoyed than on last Wednesday, when Mrs. S. E. Alverson entertained the Round Dozen Club and friends at the spend-the-day party, at the home of Mrs. Luckie.

Exquisite yellow chrysanthemums decorated the living room, while fragrant pink decorations graced the dining table. At the noon hour a most delicious repast was enjoyed. Sewing was indulged in during the day. Those enjoying this hospitality were Mesdames M. A. Gore, H. M. Simpson, Luckie, Watts Moore, Hugh Jones, Macy Jones, T. C. McSwain John Armstrong, George Polk, and Miss Kathleen Mullins.

Mrs. Hart Hostess.

The members of the Card Club enjoyed a lovely afternoon with Mrs. Eric Hart on last Wednesday, playing bridge at three tables. An elaborate display of ferns and cut flowers made a pretty scene for the guests. At the close of the game Mrs. Carrie Mullins was given score prize, and a refreshing salad plate with coffee was served to Miss Bettie Mullins, Mrs. Harvey Chandler. Mrs. John Vanderveer served as substitute for the absent embers.

How Not to Take Cold.

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becomeing over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

Inspired by the victory of the "Crimson Tide" over Pennsylvania, a special meeting of the executive committee of the University Million-Dollar Drive was held recently in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium with a full attendance and plans were made to voluntarily raise Tuscaloosa's subscription to her quota from $90.00 to $100,000. The committee checked over the subscriptions which showed that there is now in hand more than $93,000, not including the $50,000 additional subscription from L. B. Musgrove.

Mayor R. A. Burns has proclaimed the week of Nov. 25 as "clean-up week" in Alabama City and is urging the citizens to aid the authorities in ridding the town of all trash and debris during the campaign. Mayor Burns recently returned from several years service as a major in the medical corps in the regular army, and it is his desire to make Alabama City as spick and span and as neat as an army camp.

The Sylacauga Public School has ar outgrown its present building since the opening of this school year. Two teachers have been added to the faculty, and two rooms have been established in the auditorium to take care of the over-crowded situation. The city council has been working on the situation, and plans are on foot now for the addition of a number of rooms to the building.

J. P. Phillips, of the Birmingham Packing Company, has been appointed a member of the committee on improved livestock breeding and a member of a committee to confer with livestock producers to represent the Institute of American Meat Packers. The Institute of American Meat Packers is the trade and research association of the meat packing industry, said to be the largest in the country.

A committee which has had the protest of the white people as to the location of a new negro school house at Gadsden has reported to the council that the old school site be retained and the new building erected on the same lot. A strong petition asking that the school be not placed on Kyle street was presented to the council.

A. W. Burns, cotton census taker for Etowah County has reporter there had been ginned from the 1922 cotton crop 5,235 bales of cotton up to Oct. 18. For the same period last year there were ginned 5,089 bales. These figures show there have been ginned 246 more bales in the county this year than last year for the same period.

Messrs Frank and Bill Mullins of Birmingham will be home for the holidays.

The open season for deer and quail in Alabama will start November 1, and the open season for wild turkey gobblers will start December 1. The State Department of Conservation has announced that the first supplies of hunters' licenses delivered to the probate judges had been exhausted and that practically all probate judges had requested additional supplies. This is accepted as an indication that more interest is shown in the game laws than ever before.

H. H. Montgomery, state superintendent of banks, at Montgomery, has called for a statement of the condition of all state banks of Alabama at the close of business October 17. Due to the good prices now being paid for farm products and to the agricultural interests it is probable this statement will show the banks to be in better condition than at the time of any other statement since the period of deflation started.

A student volunteer band has been organized at the high school at Wedowee. This is the first organization of this kind ever attempted in Randolph county and success of the undertaking is hoped for by the large number of friends and patrons of this institution.

MAIN FEATURES OF SHIP SUBSIDY BIL

House Committee Reports Bill and House Decides to Vote on Passage Nov. 19th.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The principal features of the "Merchant Marine Act" as the proposed ship subsidy bill is officially entitled, are as follows:

Sale of present government owned merchant ships to citizens of the United States, the complete payment of the purchase price not to be deferred longer than 15 years from date of sale and the unpaid balances bearing interest at a rate not less than four per cent per annum. These sales are to be competitive sales after due advertisements, except specifically ordered otherwise by the Shipping Board upon an affirmative vote of not less than five members and if such vote and a full statement of the reasons authorizing such sale, are made a matter of record.

Loans to American citizens desirnig to construct new ships. These loans are made up strict to two-thirds of the value of new construction. They are to run not longer than 15 years and are made at a low rate of 2 per cent. They are to be made out of a revolving fund of $125,000,000 which is credited out of the funds of the Shipping Board.

Exemption from federal taxes of certain income from operation of American merchant vessels under the proposed Act—provided the income so exempted is used for the construction of additional American merchant ships.

An exemption from federal income tax of 5 per cent of the amount of any freight charges paid by shippers in this country to American merchant marine vessels operating under this Act. This proviso takes the place of the preferential tariff or rebate provided for in the Jones bill, but which was declared to be a violation of international treaties and therefore untenable.

All passenger vessels carrying U. S. mail shall be paid for upon the same basis and rate that the United States pays foreign vessels for carrying mail. This proviso repeals an existing law which provides that all American ship carry United States mail free of any charge. This change was made because the passenger vessels which carry mail are the class of vessels which will suffer a financial loss by reason of the prohibition laws of this country. It is believed that paying them cash for carrynig the United States mails will to a large degree offset any loss of revenue they suffer because of the operation of the prohibition laws.

Requirement that 50 per cent of emigration to the United States shall be carried in American vessels.

All army and navy transport in merchant vessels of American registry.

Payment of direct compensation: One-half of 1 per cent for each gross ton each one hundred nautical miles traveled by vessels with speed under 12 knots an hour; higher compensation for greater speed, with authorization for compensation up to 1 cent per ton per hundred nautical miles for vessels traveling over certain officially designated routes.

Funds for the paymnt of direct compensation to be derived from tonnage duties and dues, estimated at $4,000,000 a year; 10 per cent of all customs receipts; present payment for transportation of mails and recoveries from excess earnings of compensated shipping.

Compensation is limited to a 10 per cent profit to the operator. When net earnings go above 10 per cent, one half of the excess profits would be returned to the government and be converted into the compensation fund.

REGULATING TRAFFIC ON THE STREETS OF CLANTON

The Town Council of Clanton has enacted some new traffic laws and have secured the services of a brand new chief of police to enforce the same. The name of the new policeman is Mr. Harvey Foshee. He has already entered upon his duties and one of the first results we have noticed following the enforcement of these regulations was the nice and orderly manner in which care were parked on Main Street near the depot last Sunday evening about train time.

For many months there has always been on Sunday evenings a general confusion among automobiles which were jammed and packed around the railroad crossing. This disorder was brought about by nothing but careless ness and lack of thought by those who were driving the cars. It is much easier and much nicer to have order and system as was done last Sunday, and it is much safer for the public.

We commend our town council for taking these steps for safety in our town, and we hope Mr. Foshee will continue to see that the regulations are enforced.

The new chief says he hopes the public will give him their cooperation and support in his efforts to keep our streets clean and orderly by the enforcement of the rules and regulations of the town authorities.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING OF THE UNITY ASSOCIATION

The Fifth Sunday Meeting of the Unity Association will be held with the Verbena Baptist Church on Dec. 30th and 31st.

All churches should send representatives. The program will be announced later.

HOWARD GLEE CLUB COMING TO CLANTON

Frank Mullins, who is a student at Howard College and a member of the Glee Club of that institution, was in Clanton last week-end for the Thanksgiving holidays. He informed us that the club will be in Clanton on Monday, Dec. 11 for a program that night at the High School auditorium. I gives us pleasure to announce this event for Clanton, as we are sure it will be an occasion of much pleasure for those who have the opportunity of attending. We hope that a good audience will greet the entertainers upon their appearance here.

HELP!

Clanton Chamber of Commerce Begins Something that will Put Our Town and County on the Map—Every Citizen Should Support Them!

The Clanton Chamber of Commerce has undertaken the publication of a booklet setting out the wonderful possibilities of our town and County. They expect to make this one of the most attractive things of its kind ever gotten out by a community in the South. Don't laugh at this statement and say it sounds big for Clanton and Chilton County. The best in the South is exactly fitting for this county because of the fact that right here we have future advantages and possibilities that cannot be duplicated anywhere in the whole Southland.

It is the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to thoroughly advertise these advantages in all parts of the country, and to this end they invite the hearty support of every citizen. We hope the response will be in keeping with the tremendous import of the possibilities which are to be dealt with.

Beginning the work of compiling this booklet at this time of year, the only difficulty they anticipate is securing photographs of farming scenes in growing and harvesting season. Therefore the appeal is made to every person in the county who has kodak or big views or negatives of such scenes in the county to kindly carry them to the office of the Secretary, Mr. Victor Heard; thereby you can help to make the booklet really represent the wonderful county in which we live. These pictures are wanted to print in the book.

This appeal should be responded to now, as the work of printing the book will soon be in progress. Mr. Heard assures everyone who submits photos or negatives that the same will be returned to the owner after the printers reproduce them for the book.

The plan of financing this project is for citizens and business people of the town and county to purchase at 50 cents apiece as many of the books as they can; the distribution of which is left with the Chamber of Commerce. So far the following persons or firms have subscribed for the number of copies opposite their names:

J. P. Lawrence,	60
Clanton Motor Co.,	60
J. Lee Smith,	60

It is the duty of every citizen to help in this most worthy undertaking of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce and we hope that many more will subscribe for as many of the books as they can. You should help out some if it is not more than a dollar.

This scheme is going to carry the story of Clanton and Chilton County to the outside world in a manner that has never been done before. We believe it is the dawning of the great era of progress and development which awaits us in the near future.

BAD AUTOMOBILE WRECK LAST SATURDAY NIGHT

A serious automobile wreck happened about dark last Saturday night near Baker School House, when a Ford driven by Mr. Tom Smitherman was struck by a big car driven by Lum Williams. Mr. Smitherman was coming toward town and the big car was going from town, when the collision happened.

It is reported that the Ford was completely demolished, but the big car continued on its way after knocking the Ford out of the road.

The passengers in the Ford were Mr. Tom Smitherman and his little boy about five years old, his father-in-law, mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell, and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sewell. The little Smitherman boy and Cliff Sewell were the most seriously hurt. They were taken to the Central Alabama Hospital for immediate attention.

Mr. J. C. Jones is in Birmingham this week with his wife, who is in the Norwood Infirmary.

Oscar Jones, Dr. N. S. Johnson, Maurice Lande, Hosea Downs and Frank Callen went over to Atlanta Thanksgiving Day to witness the foot ball game between Auburn and Tech. They report a splendid trip.

BETHANY NEWS

As the writer happened to the sad misfortune of having a tough case of flu, there has been no news from this place for the last two weeks. But Thanksgiving has passed, and we feel thankful that most of the people around these parts have had their part of the flu and are able to be up and going again.

Several from this place went down to the singing Sunday afternoon, and of course report a nice time.

Mr. R. C. Morris and family from near Verbena spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. C. B. Huett.

The Enterprise School has been vacated for the last week on account of influenza. We hope it will reband itself again this morning, which is Monday, Dec. 4th.

Messrs Willie Dykes and Dewey Huett were the honored guests of Misses Ruby Gray and Eunice Jones Sunday fternoon.

Mr. I. D. Huett spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cagle.

Well, as we have not written for some time, we will hush for the present; but if the world stands, you may look for us again next week.

NEW HARMONY

There will be a box supper at New Harmony Schoolhouse next Friday night, Dec. 8th about 7:30. Every body is invited to atend. Proceeds for benefit of the school.

CONGRESSMAN JEFFERS WARNS ALL DISABLED EX-SOLDIERS

Those Suffering Vocational Handicap and Wishing to Apply for Vocational Training Must do so by December 15th, 1922.

Congressman Lamar Jeffers has issued the following statement regarding the matter of disabled ex-service people who may be entitled to vocational training making application for same:

"All ex-service people who have reason to believe that they are entitled to vocational training at the hands of the government but who have not yet made application for such training should make the application at once if they expect to do so at all.

"If the application is not in by December 15, 1922, it will be too late, as the law says the application for vocational training must be filed by that date. Since this provision is a part of the law, the Veterans Bureau must, of course, require that the application be in by that time.

Application can be made by simply writing a letter to Colonel Dallas B. Smith, District Manager, U. S. Veterans Bureau, New Orleans, La. It is necessary for the applicant to sign his name himself so that the Bureau may consider the application as being made by the man himself.

"In making application, the applicant should give his former rank and organization and should give a brief statement of facts covering the origin, nature and extent of his disability, and explaining now he considers that he is suffering a disability that could properly be considered as being a vocational handicap. Applicant should sign his name clearly and also give his correct address.

"I centainly hope and trust that every disabled ex-service man whose disability constitutes a vocational handicap and who wishes to make application for vocational training on account of such disability will write out this application at once and send it to Colonel Dallas B. Smith, District Manager, U. S. Veterans Bureau New Orleans, La. The last day of grace is December 15th, 1922. After that date it will be too late to apply."

SHELBY ROAD WORK BEING ADVERTISED

We note with interest that the State Highway Department is receiving bids for the construction of the Shelby County link of the Birmingham-Montgomery Highway. It is expected that the work will begin some time soon after the first of the new year.

This is welcome news to motorists hereabouts, as the bad roads of Shelby County have been a nightmare to the traveling public for several years.

SHILOH NEWS

Health in and around this community is not the best at this writing. Bro. T. W. Billingsley and Sister J. I. Bice were kept away from church Sunday because of sickness. Hope they will soon recover.

There was good attendance Saturday and Sunday, also good order. Collection of the Orphanage, $8.15 in cash and 25 gallons of syrup.

I hope the churches of the Chilton County Association will put forth a strong effort to do mission work the coming year more so than we have done this year. The Lord has greatly blessed us with good crops, and we ought to show our appreciation to Him by giving to His cause.

We hope to have preaching at Shiloh Christmas day. The church voted strong yesterday to invite Bro. Ezell of Clanton to preach for us on that day. Hope the Lord will direct him to come.

Our general meeting will meet with Cane Creek Church, six mies northeast of Clanton, Saturday before the Fifth Sunday in December, 1922. Brethren, come and get there on time and stay until it is over. If you don't come you will miss something good. We always have good meetings. Let us make Cane Creek remember us a long time. We hope to have a good program, which will be published in the papers later.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Thanksgiving day Union service at the Baptist church was well attended and although Rev. Brannon of the Jemison Methodist church was expected to give the address and was known to be in Thorsby Thursday morning, he failed to appear. However a Union service at Thorsby is not dependent on any one man to make it go, for Thorsby has an array of resident ministerial talent of no mean order. Rev. James W. Davenport, just recovering from a severe illness, was chosen leader, Rev. S. M. Adams, State Senator-elect, made the invocation and also a closing prayer. Rev. E. W. Butler read the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation. Rev. W. P. Lowery made the long prayer, Rev. J. M. Graham read the scripture lesson. There was some very creditable choir work and hearty congregational singing, with Miss Agnes Gerald at the piano. Mr. Graham, without expecting to be called on, then delivered an inspiring address on Evangelization, Education, and Sanitation, incidentally drawing attention to the fact that progress along these lines gives great cause for thanksgiving. A collection was taken for Near East Relief, which added to the amount contributed for this cause at the Congregational Church last Sunday makes a total of a little over $41.00 from Thorsby in one week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Norton and Rev. James W. Davenport were guests of Miss Jenkins and Miss Leech at the Thorsby Institute dining hall for dinner Thanksgiving day. After dinner students, teachers and friends of the school to the number of about forty, scrambled into three big wagons and went out to the Poor Farm for a song and prayer service conducted by Rev. E. W. Butler. It has long been a custom in Thorsby to devote a part of Thanksgiving day to carrying a bit of young life and sunshine to those less fortunate.

Last Saturday evening the Congregational Christian Endeavor Society held a sociable at Thorsby Institute dining hall, a fine place for such gatherings. About fifty young people were in attendance and under the leadership of Miss Katherine Perry enjoyed games and stunts for a couple of hours. The evening's activities closed with the presentation of a Missionary play, in two acts, presented by some members of Miss Jenkins Sunday School Class.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Helliland of Eagle Grove, Iowa, after spending 8 days in Thorsby as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Magne Anderson, left the end of last week for Pensacola and other points in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Horn and family spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Horn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Magne Anderson. Mr. Horn returned to their home at Mitchell Dam, while Mrs. Horn and the children will remain in Thorsby about ten days.

CHILTON COUNTY HEALTH WORK.

Rev. James M. Graham, field direction of the Alabama Tuberculosis Association with headquarters in Birmingham, spent Thanksgiving day with his wife at their home in Thorsby, and in an interview with the writer in regard to his work in Chilton county, he said some things which we believe will be of public interest.

It is estimated that Alabama has not less than forty thousand active cases of tuberculosis, and that Chilton County has at least 550 cases. He further said that it is estimated that the state suffers an economic loss from tuberculosis of approximately $150,000. When asked what is being done about this problem, Mr. Graham stated that, in addition to established state and county boards of health, he has been able to form in each county of the state some sort of working committee on tuberculosis.

His plan, as outlined by him, is that every county shall have a permanent committee to sell tuberculosis Christmas seals, and that only 25 per cent of the gross proceeds of such sales which shall run through the month of December, shall go to the state and national work, and that the remainder shall be used by the County Committee for work in the county. Mr. Graham says that Messrs J. L. Johnson and Howard L. Foshee have been appointed to take charge of the work in Chilton County and appoint their committees in the several communities. We hope we shall have unusual success in this matter this year and get money enough to do some effective prevention next year in the fight against tuberculosis.

Future plans contemplate securing for each county in the state the full time services of a trained nurse who will visit schools and homes in the interest of the health of children and older people. In addition to this, it is expected to have in each community a doctor and a dentist who will treat physical defects of indigent persons free, and through literature, lectures and moving pictures, educate the people how to build up resistance against tuberculosis and many other forms of disease.

Miss Still and sister Ruby of Birmingham were guests at the Hughes home for Thanksgiving.

The speakers are affirmative, Porter Lee Music and Edith Robinson; negative, Truman Pierce and Verona East. This subject is much discussed today, and is attracting the attention of the whole world. There is a "let up" in the enforcement of the Volstead law and numbers in the country are claiming that it is a failure. Each side of the question will be taken by strong speakers and quite a number of people are expected to be present and enjoy the argument.

MORE BUSINESS HOUSES TO BE BUILT HERE SOON

We learn that there is another building spell just ahead for Clanton, by which there will be another business houses erected on Second Avenue near the railroad crossing. The story of the new development says that Mr. J. Q. Wade has purchased the old Dick Edwards property which includes the store house occupied by Broadhead and Sons and the vacant lot west of it. And that upon this vacant lot Mr. Wade will erect a new building to be occupied by the Main Street Garage.

Mr. G. M. Wyatt of the Main Street Garage says that his business has outgrown his present location, and he will be ready to make some needed expansion by the time the new place is ready to be occupied.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chaberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? Sold By Upchurch Drug Company, Clanton, Ala.

USE CHECKS!

If all the people in this country were to turn out their pockets, purses, hidden stockings, buried cans and other containers of cash, how big a pile of money do you think it would make?

THREE BILLION DOLLORS

is the estimate of a federal reserve bank officer. Almost half of all the money in America outside the U. S. Treasury, or an diverage of $30 for every individual in the country!

With such amounts secluded from productive use, no wonder money has been "tight" and business deprived of the credit needed to sustain prosperity! Cash hidden or carried not only is in constant danger of loss or theft, but also endangers the life of the owner. It is inconvenient and insanitary, and paying with cash is a risky way—no record and no receipt.

Pay-by-check—the easy, clean and systematic way that gives y u a perfect record and receipt as well as saving countless steps.

Safeguard your money in a checking account and you also help yourself by helping to insure prosperity and "good times."

WHAT AN ELECTION CONTEST MEANS

There seems to be a great deal of speculation among the people of Chilton County as to just what is meant by an election contest, and to what extent the matter may be carried. Many different expressions have come to our notice recently which lead us to believe that many people do not fully realize just what a mouthful they have bit off when they take hold of the contest which is now supposed to be waging in this county with Bro. Messer trying to take the Probate Office away from Judge Reynolds, who was elected on the seventh day of last month.

Now we do not profess to know all there is to know about contesting elections. But we feel like we know some more about that job than does one of those fellows who says it will all be over in two weeks and Reynolds will be put out of office, and half of the Republicans confined with in the "yawning walls of Kilby prison," all for a cost of about ten dollars apiece to the dozen or so men who signed the bond of Messer. The fellow who figures thusly on this contest is going to wake up with a severe jolt before the thing is over.

As we have said before, there is going to be no quarter in the defense of Judge Reynolds and the Republican party in this thing. It is not going to be a half-hearted piece of business, but a fight to the last ditch. The cost of the fight it not going to be considered. We have not got millions of wealth to put up, but we have got the loyal spirit of the Republican citizenship of the county behind us, which spirit demands a defense of itself and the people and a recognition of their expressed wishes in public elections.

As to the cost of the contest, we recall two instances in our State where contests similar to this one have been fought out, and these may give us some idea as to what we may expect from this one. There was in the past the famous Shepard-Sartain contest over the Probate Judgeship of Walker County; and also the Graves-Buckner contest for Sheriff of Blount County. In each of these contests the court costs alone ran up to over twenty-five thousand dollars, and the men who made the bonds were practically ruined financially in order to pay the bill. The time required in the latter case was three years. There are many more voters now than there were then, and hence the cost will be greater, for the reason that in an election contest every voter may be summoned as a witness. This is exactly what will be done in this county. Every voter whose ballot was counted for Messer will be summoned as a witness by Judge Reynolds, and the acid test put to his or her qualifications as a voter.

Mr. Messer received, according to the count, 1810 votes. How long do you think it would take to put those 1810 people on the stand and thrash out their qualifications as voters? Do you think it can be done in ten days or two weeks? It would very likely in many instances take as much as a day to settle the question of a single voter's qualifications. Then again do you think the cost of summoning these 1810 witnesses and keeping them in court from day to day during the trial would be not over ten or fifteen dollars for each of the dozen or so men who signed the bond? Witnesses receive a dollar and a half a day and mileage, you know. Then too, it is well to remember that witness fees is a very small item of this cost. There are fees to be paid the Clerk and the Sheriff, which would be astounding in this case, where so many witnesses would be involved.

There is one thing sure, if this contest continues to the bitter end, there are some people who are going to learn a big sight more about election contests than they have heretofore known, particularly the matter of how much they cost and how long they last.

At present, while some of the speculation in regard to different phases of the contest seems to have somewhat subsided, the matter hangs in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court awaiting a sufficient bond upon which to proceed into the court for further consideration.

Rev. E. A. Norris of Verbena was a visitor to Clanton Monday. He publishes in this week's paper two interesting programs in regard to the denominational work of the Baptists of the County.

ADVERTISING CLANTON AND CHILTON COUNTY.

The Clanton Chamber of Commerce contemplates the undertaknig of a very laudable and much needed effort in the near future—that of advertising the commercial, industrial, and agricultural advantages of our town and county to the outside world thru the publication of a very handsomely illustrated booklet portraying both by word and picture the many supreme and unmatchable advantages that are to be found in our midst. The movement is already well under way, and is an assured success.

The printing and compilation of the matter for the book will be in the hands of The Southern Opportunities Magazine Publishing Company of Anniston, assisted by some local person who is well acquainted with our town and county, and who knows those things which we have to offer that will be attractive and inducing to the prospective investor. This publishing concern, in addition to the publication of their regular monthly magazine, "Southern Opportunities," make a specialty of just such publications as that which our Chamber of Commerce proposes to issue. We have seen a copy of a booklet dealing with Autauga County, which was published by the Prattville Chamber of Commerce, and gotten up and printed by these same people, and our judgment is that it is just the thing upon which we need to inform the outside world of what we are prepared to offer the man who wants to find an ideal place in which to live and make money and educate his children and spend a happy and carefree eventide of life.

The Autauga county booklet contained twenty-four pages. But it will not be possible to tell all the good things about Clanton and Chilton County in so small a book. Recognizing this fact our Chamber of Commerce anticipates a book containing thirty-two pages.

We urge that it is the unquestionable duty of every citizen of Clanton to support this proposition most heartily. It is the first step toward bringing about the great era of progress and development that awaits us just around the bend of the road. Every citizen and business man has the opportunity of helping advertise the town in this way by subscribing for any desired number of these books at the price of fifty cents per copy. Mr. Victor J. Heard, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, or any member of the Board of Directors would be glad to inform anyone of the details of the proposition, or take your order for as many copies of the book as you might desire. The distribution of the books to prospective investors and home seekers will be left in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce.

And last, but yet well worth having, is another feature about the proposition. In addition to publishing the booklet, the contract provides an agreement whereby a number of feature stories about Clanton and Chilton County will be carried in the magazine "Southern Opportunities," from time to time after publication of the book. These stories will be written by able people, and will be illustrated with the same pictures that are used in the book for the Chamber of Commerce. This feature alone is worth a great deal, as that magazine will thereby carry the story of Clanton to its thousands of renders all over the United States.

UNCLE TOM BATES DEAD

We are indeed sorry to learn of the death of Uncle Tom Bates, an old and respected citizen of Providence Community in Beat 16. His death occurred Monday night after a protracted illness. We do not know his age, but are certain that his life reached well towards the limit of the three score and ten allottment. He lived in Beat 16 practically all his life and reared a large family, all of whom have attained their years of maturity.

Surviving him are his children, several in number, and a great host of grand children and other relatives, all of whom will sadly mourn the passing of the one to whom they have looked for counsel and advice throughout their entire lives.

The publishers of The Banner feel a personal loss in the death of Uncle Tom. When we were boys in his community his fireside was home to us, and his tender heart was our solace many times when we were suffering our boyish ups and downs along with other children of that time. Since we attained our majority and embarked on the journey of life which has taken us away from those cherished scenes of play and rollicking in Uncle Tom's plum orchard and around his black smith shop, he has ever kept his interest in us, and often lifted our burden by a return of his expressions of hope and encouragement. He scarcely ever came to town without coming to our office for a short visit. We are glad to say for him that we never received any word of advice from him that was not altogether sound and wholesome.

We join our hearts with those of his children and grand children and other relatives and friends in deepest sorrow for his death. We shall indeed miss him much.

The funeral was conducted at Providence Church Wednesday by Rev. W. W. Robinson, after which burial was made of the body beside the faithful and loving wife who has been sleeping beneath the sod of old Providence Cemetery for many years, waiting for the coming of her devoted mate.

Mr. Reedie Taylor, who is attending business college in Montgomery, was home for a few days last week. He returned to the city Sunday night.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT VERBENA

In response to a feeling that promoted it a Thanksgiving service was held at the Methodist Church here on Thanksgiving eve. There was not a large crowd in attendance, but it was a truly typical one of the Verbena community and of the American nation that gathered there to observe the custom begun three hundred and one years ago by the Pilgrims on the lovely New England shores, and to there with humble hearts thank God for the further continuance of his blessings on them individually and as a nation. The services were beautifully simple and informal, and fully in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. The following program was rendered:

Song—"America." Scripture reading, by Rev. C. P. Roberts. Prayer, by P. F. Mitchell. "What the Pilgrim Fathers had to be Thankful for" by J. C. Pattillo. Chorus—"Crown Him." "What we have to be Thankful for today," by Dr. H. T. Caffey. Solo—Mrs. C. E. Gulledge. Chorus—"All Hail, Immanuel." "What we can do to Perpetuate Thanksgiving by Samuel Scott. Prayer by Judson Strock. Doxology, and benediction.

OAK GROVE NEWS

Dear Editor:

Here we come again for a few words in your most successful paper, as we did not see any news from this place last week.

Mrs. Lassie Northcutt has gotten able to be out again after her fall, and is doing nicely now.

Our Sunday School is still progressing nicely, as our number has increased from 103 to 109 in the last month, but we are sorry our Superintendent, Mr. C. W. Langston, has moved away. The assistant, Mr. L. R. Cobb, is going to serve until next quarter. Also the church and B. Y. P. U. are doing fine. There was a good program put on last Sunday night with some awful good singing. Two quartetts were rendered; first, Mrs. Orbie Martin, Miss Roberta Martin, Mr. Vester Campbell and Mr. Lester Northcutt; second, Messrs W.J. Northcutt, Vester Campbell, Lassie Northcutt, Harvie Castleberry. As we haven't time to tell all about the program we will just stop and tell you about our singing Sunday afternoon.

We began singing at 1:30 and sang until four o'clock. The directors for the evening were Mr. L. R. Cobb one song, prayer by Mr. W. J. Northcutt, Ammie Boswell, Ivey Matthews, Vester Campbell, Paul Wilson, the president, sang and was dismissed by E. L. Glasscock. We had a good many visitors which we were glad to have with us, and we invite them to come again.

GETS PLEASANT SURPRISE

"About 6 months ago my father was very sick with his stomach'whichhad been troubleing him for several years. Three doctors said he had cancer and one said it was gall stones—all agreed an operation necessary, but on account of his age Iwas afraid to risk it. I told a friend of it who said his wife had been through the same trouble and had been cured by taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I at once bought a bottle for father and he is now as strong as a bear and can eat more ham and cabbage than any 3 men." It removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.

MT. PLEASANT

After having attended the splendid exercises rendered by our school last Thursday I cannot refrain from writing a few words of praise and encouragement to our pupils and teachers. The entire program was a grand success, and the splendid conduct of the pupils showed how the teachers had influenced them in the moulding of their young minds to become moral thinking men and women. The student body as a whole seems to be more interested in their work than ever before, and we believe that it is all due to the way they are managed.

In conclusion, I wish to congratulate both the teachers and the pupils for the splendid exercise which was enjoyed by the large crowd that attended.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for this space, I will go.

THORSBY PUBLIC SCHOOL

As has been the custom for the past several years, the Thorsby Public School sent a very generous collection of "good things to eat" to the Poor Farm on Thanksgiving day. The pupils of this school always respond liberally when called upon to contribute to the relief of those who are in need. Is it possible that some of us were not properly trained in the "spirit of giving?" I fear that this essential characteristic of a good citizen is too often permitted to develop by mere chance. Let us not forget to teach it and practice it as well.

If the poor farm is out of reach, help some needy, worthy person or cause that is in reach.

Dear Editor:

Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to our Sunday School. It is progressing nicely under the care of J. N. Miner as superintendent; Class No. 1, Mr. J. A. Cleckler, teacher; Class No. 2, Miss Zula Willis, teacher; Cilass No. 3, Mr. J. M. Willis, teacher.

And all are glad to see so much interest in the school. Come on, everybody and let's have a fine Sunday School. Let's pray for our boys and girls and try to teach them the true word of God. That is the way I understand the way to lead souls to Christ.

We have preaching every first Saturday and Sunday. Last Sunday was our preaching day and we had a noble sermon preached by Rev. M. J. Parrish. He always does that though. Come on now, brothers and sisters; let's stand by our pastor and Sunday School and come every Sunday at our regular hour, 10 o'clock. Let us pray one for another, and we will have a good Sunday School.

We had some new visitors last Sunday—Mr. Dewey Driver, Miss Evie Jones, Mr. Alonza Oaks. Come back again and join our little Sunday School. And also Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are invited to come back.

Mrs. Willie Cleckler, who has been visiting her relatives and friends here returned home a few days ago at Mitchell Dam.

Well, as this is my first time to visit The Union-Banner, I'll cut this off short; will come again soon.

IN MEMORY OF BIRDIE

It was during the quietness and stillness of the early evening hour of November 21, 1922, that our Heavenly Father sent his death angel to visit the home of Mr. I. C. Blackmon of Maplesville, and took away the sweet spirit of his daughter, Birdie, age 19 years.

She gave to her church a few years of loving and faithful service, ever ready to give of her means and influence to whatever advanced the cause in which she was enlisted.

Our Heaveny Father had need of her and we must bow in humble submission to Him, knowing that Heaven has gained another jewel. Therefore, be it resolved:

First, that, although we feel very deeply our loss, we have the consolation of knowing that our Father doeth all things for the best.

Second, that we entend to her relatives and friends our tender sympathy, knowing that her father and ours will bless and sanctify her memory and in the sweet By and By will bring us together where sickness and death shall be no more

Third, that a copy of these resolutions be sent the grief stricken family, a copy t the Union-Banner and a copy to the Alabama Baptist anda copy be recorded on our permanent record book.

MRS. NANCY McKEE DEAD

The death of Mrs. Nancy McKee occurred at the home of her grandson, W. E. Parrish, on Monday, Dec. 11, 1922. She was a little over 82 years old. The deceased was the wife of Ely McKee, who was killed in the Civil War. Her only child was Mrs. Ella Parrish, wife of W. H. Parrish, who died about a year ago. Before her marriage to Mr. McKee, Mrs. McKee was Miss Nancy Fox.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday at Providence by Rev. Will Cox, after which she was buried in Providence cemetery.

Rev. C. C. Wilkerson, the new pastor of the Clanton Methodist church, was present last Sunday and delivered his first sermon to a large and appreciative congregation.

Work has begun on the new residence of Grady Reynolds at Fifth Avenue and Eighth Street. This will be one more addition to the growing list of beautiful homes in Clanton.

WATER IMPOUNDING WILL BE REGULATED

State Board of Health Will Control Ponds on Non-Navigable Streams.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 2.—Special.—Hereafter, any person, firm, corporation, county or municipality desiring to impound the water of any stream in Alabama that is not navigable, or to raise the level of a previously existing pond by the elevation of point of overflow of a dam, must first obtain a preliminary permit from the state board of health. Newly created impounded water is not to be stocked with game fish—trout or bass and pike—without written permission from the state board of health and the state department of conservation. These provisions are included among others in regulations governing the impounding of water, adopted by the state board of health at a meeting held in the governor's office at the state capitol Friday.

Follows Federal Law.

The regulations, it is stated, follow as nearly as possible the regulations of the federal power commission applying to navigable streams, the state regulation applying to streams that are not navigable. It was stated also that the adoption of such regulations by the state board of health was rendered necessary on account of an outbreak of malaria during the past summer immediately adjacent to an impounded body of water, in the southern part of the state. It is declared that in this instance, out of 199 people living within the flight range of the malaria carrying mosquito, 167 contracted malaria. The board's object in adopting these regulations, it is stated, is to prevent an increase in the prevalence of malaria in Alabama through preventing the breeding of malaria carrying mosquitoes.

In addition to Gov. Thomas E. Kilby, ex-officio chairman, those members of the board present at Friday's meeting were Dr. S. W. Welch, state health officer. Dr. R. S. Hill and Dr. J. M. Baker.

The regulations adopted by the board do not apply so far as the necessity of obtaining a permit is concerned to ponds of less than one-tenth of an acre for watering stock or other domestic purposes, nor the impounding of waters so located that no portion of them lies within one mile of any permanent human habitation, congregation or place of business other than that of the owner. Failure to comply with the regulations, it is provided, will constitute a misdemeanor.

Protecting Top Minnows

Provision in the regulations that newly impounded water must not be stocked with game fish without permission both of the board of health and the department of conservation, is intended, it is understood to protect the top minnow in such new waters, until it has sufficiently multiplied in numbers to the point where the game fish will not form a menace to its existence. The game fish named in the regulations are trout or bass and pike. The natural food of the top minnow is the "wiggle-tail" or larvae of the mosquito, and it is therefore the mosquito's deadly enemy. When waters have been impounded for a sufficient time, it is claimed, nature provides food for the game fish within such bodies of water.

DR. EILAND NOW IN CLANTON

Dr. R. J. Eiland, who has been living at Coopers for many years, and practicing medicine in the southern part of the county, has moved his family to Clanton and will reside here in the future. For the present he lives in the old Stewart house next to Dr. Napoleon Johnson. In the near future he plans to buy property here and build a new home. Dr. Eiland's home at Coopers was recently destroyed by fire.

We are glad to have him and his family as residents of our town.

Deputies from Sheriff's office at Clanton arrested Mell Kimbrell at Jew Town near Mitchell Dam last Saturday on a charge of violating prohibition law. When he was taken in charge by the officers he had in his possession eight Coca-Cola bottles of corn liquor and a 38-Spanish revolver. A search of the barn from which he was seen to come out resulted in a find of five gallon jug and fifteen Coca-Cola bottles of liquor. He seemed to be peddling the mountain dew on a grand scale.

CLAUD L. BRANCH DIED MONDAY IN BIRMINGHAM

The death of Mr. Claud L. Branch occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital in Birmingham Monday afternoon at five o'clock. He was fatally injured at a saw mill in Coosa county last Saturday, and was carried to Birmingham Sunday afternoon for an operation. The operation was performed Sunday night, but did not relieve him. He lingered in an unconscious condition until 5 o'clock Monday afternoon when death relieved him.

The story of the incident in which he was injured says that he was sitting by the fire at the slab pit warming his feet early Saturday morning when a load of slabs were thrown on the skidway above him. It seems that he was not seen by the parties who were handling the slabs until it was too late; and before he could get out of the way he was caught by the timbers in their flight down the incline. He was injured about the head, which caused his death. One of his legs was broken also.

He was working as a foreman at the mill at the time of the accident.

Up until a few weeks ago Mr. Branch had been chief of police at Clanton.

His remains were brought back to Clanton Tuesday morning and buried in the Clanton cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. He leaves a wife and several children.

MUST NOT BURN WOODS

Forest or woods fires have grown to be such a menace throughout the State of Alabama that the legislature at an extraordinary session in 1921 passed an act amending Section 6906 of the Code of 1907, which reads as follows:

"Any person who wilfully sets fire to woods, forests, fences, grass or rubbish of any kind, on land of which he is not in possession or control at the time of setting out such fires, or who willfully causes fire to be communicated to such woods, forests, fences, grass or rubbish, shall be guilty of a misdemeanr, and on conviction must be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00."

All game wardens and special agents of the Department of Conservation are instructed to apprehend and prosecute in the Courts of the State those charged with violating the foregoing Section. Also sheriffs, their deputies and constables, being by virtue of their offices agents of the Department of Conservation, are clothed with authority to make arrests in case of violation of the aforesaid Section.

It is of the highest importance that we keep fires from our woodlands. Forest fires prevent regrowth of timber, kills native clovers and other valuable grazing plants, destroys cover for birds, and robs soil of fertility. The devastation of our forests through fires and other agencies cause both drouths and overflows.

If you want to "set the woods on fire" do so by drougths and overflows.

If you want to "set the woods on fire" do so by creating something, and not by destroying something.

I. T. QUINN,
Commissioner of Conservation.

CLANTON WILL HAVE NEW BRIDGE

The people of Clanton will learn with much satisfaction that negotiations which have been going on for some time between the Town Council and the L. & N. railroad will soon result in the building of a new bridge across the railroad cut at Fourth Avenue. The new bridge will replace the old one which has been in use there for many years, but which has now played out. The present bridge has been posted as "Dangerous" to traffic and many pedestrians and autoists who once used the bridge regularly are now risking the hazards of the Second Avenue crossing in preference to the chances of falling through the holes in the old bridge.

We commend the Mayor and Council of Clanton for their work in getting this new structure. We hope they will not let up until the new bridge is actually built and ready for use by the public.

We have also learned of an effort being made by some of our progressive citizens to get a bridge built at the Third Avenue crossing, which we hope may be successful, as a bridge there, in connection with the opening up of Third Avenue across the railroad would be possibly of more use to the public than the Fourth Avenue bridge.

There is some fine business property along Third Avenue east from the railroad that has recently come into the hands of some of our most progressive citizens and we may look for a great development to take place in this vicinity right away. Third Avenue should be opened up from the Baptist church right across the railroad to the Methodist church. By the proper grading of this street and development of the property along same that section would come into its own as a part of our business district.

Then there is another place where we need a bridge across the railroad cut, at the Fifth Avenue crossing. We would welcome a movement on the part of our town to secure a third bridge at that place. What Clanton really needs is not just one bridge at Fourth Avenue, but three bridges—one at Third, Fourth and Fifth Avenues. We hope that the efforts of our citizens may be correlated with those of our developers and the Town Council in order to bring an agreement with the railroad to meet the needs of our fast growing town by the construction of these three bridges.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeed ing attack and paves the way for the serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chaberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? Sold By Upchurch Drug Company, Clanton, Ala.

ALABAMA FARM NOTES.

By F. W. Gist.

With the 1922 crop season nearing its close, and most things harvested, there is little to say of the present or the future, says F. W. Gist, federal and state statistician for agriculture. Final estimates of farm crop production are due in about two weeks, which preliminary conclusions have indicated as highly gratifying to the producer as well as the consumer.

Business is good right now as a result of the increased purchasing power of the Alabama farmer. The exercise of his debt-paying power has filled the banks with cash, until they are for once seeking borrowers and offering inducements therefor in the form of 5 per cent money.

As a result of the shortage of corn, oats are going in for feed next spring and for grazing this winter. In the northern counties the one-row oat drill has been operated in many cotton and corn fields, and the grain is coming up. It is still time to sow in the south, and doubtless next spring in February and March more acreage will go in. This acreage is going to save the purchase of corn on many farms, which with the present high price of corn looks like many dollars would be saved.

The price of peanuts has again gone beyond the hog or oil stage, and we may look for the sale of a considerable volume of harvested nuts which a short time since was not intended for market. A recent inquiry brought expressions of opinion that only one-half the harvested crop would be offered for sale. Hogs certainly do afford a safety valve for peanuts. If the price goes too low to sell the grower feeds to hogs; if the volume fed to hogs makes serious inroads on the commercial the nuts. This sort of a safety supply the price comes up to get valve might be applied to some other crops with profit.

Definite plans for the transformation of the 19,533-acre tract of land embraced within the boundary of Camp McClellan into a national forest reserve are contained in a recommendation made by E. B. Fletcher, national forest expert, who visited Camp McClellan last summer, copies of which have been furnished Anniston people by Congressman Lamar Jeffers.

The new $10,000 school building at Burns academy, a thriving section of the county a few miles below Gadsden, is rapidly nearing completion, and the board of education is receiving the hearty cooperation of the people as well as their money, and the new building will be ready to house the school children when the new year session begins.

The implication has been made by some of the Democrats that Judge Reynolds is a great criminal. The justification for this insinuation is offered that he has secured the services of great criminal lawyers to defend his case in the election contest. We would ask those who view Judge Reynolds as such a criminal, why have they not gone ahead with their plans to expose him in the courts? They said that was their reasons for instituting the contest. They told us a month ago that it would be only a few days until they would have the fraud of Judge Reynolds and his "henchmen" properly exposed to the world, and put a whole flock of the Republican crooks behind the "yawning walls of Kilby prison." Why don't you go ahead with the rat killing? The Republicans are ready for you to start your fireworks.

The bond of the Democrats that has been filed with Messer's contest may be worth a quarter of a million dollars. We are not clothed with the authority to question that. But we would like to ask some of the Democrats who solicited signatures on this bond what was their idea in calling the thing a subscription list while they were getting it up, and then changing it to a "bond" when they got it ready to file in the court? Looks to us like somebody on the lily-white side has been guilty of some misrepresentation and fraud in this particular. They imagine that Judge Reynolds and the Republicans practiced fraud in the election; therefore they think it perfeetly correct to use fraud to defend themselves. But it begins to look like a large majority of the Democrats of the county do not take on to this fraud business very much, neither in the matter of making charges against the Republicans, nor in the matter of defending the charges made by Mr. Messer and his colleagues in the contest.

MR. POWELL WITH US AGAIN

The management of The Union-Banner are pleased to state to our friends in particular and the public in general, that Mr. Emmett C. Powell is again a member of our force and will be here permanently in future to exercise his splendid ability in helping us to serve this town and county with the very best newspaper possible.

Mr. Powell needs no introduction to the people of Clanton and Chilton county. He has been here before. In fact he was here before he was anywhere else. He was born and reared here, and began the printing trade in this shop—years ago under the late Frank Crichton, whose faithful hand it was that guided the destinies of The Banner from its birth in 1892 to his death in 1913. Mr. Crichton baptized the whole Banner outfit in printers ink many years ago, and to this day we have not been able to get it off.

Since beginning the printer's trade Mr. Powell has practiced the art in Caruthersville, Missouri, and Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He comes from the latter place to here again.

During the time the owners of The Union-Banner were in the army in 1918, Mr. Powell had entire charge of our business here, being the editor and manager of the paper. His work in that capacity was a splendid success and entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

We are glad to have him with us again. His chief duty will be linotype operator, but he is an all-around good printer, and when you come around the shop you might see him feeding a job or cylinder press, setting ads, folding papers, or doing any of the other thousand and one things that are to be found to do about a print shop.

Our plans for the future are to make our paper and print shop keep pace with the growth and progress of our town and county. To help us do this we could not have gotten a better man anywhere than Mr. Powell.

UNCLE TOM BATES, BLACKSMITH

The death of Uncle Tom Bates of Providence, Beat 16, removed from earthly activity a character that had been active and prominent in his community for the past half a century. Besides just being naturally a good, kind and lovable neighbor to everybody who came into contact with him, Uncle Tom was possibly more widely known as a blacksmith than by any other personal attainment.

Right at the place where he died he ran a blacksmith shop for nearly fifty years, and his faithful devotion to his trade made him fame far and near. He was a natural born mechanic, and no one ever carried him a piece of work which did not get the honest attention which it deserved.

Since his death we have learned of one thing which Uncle Tom did in his shop that is somewhat unique. About fifteen years ago when he lost all his lower teeth, he devised a scheme of his own whereby he made for himself a set of false teeth of silver which he used successfully for five years. The whole plan was devised and carried out by his own mind. It seems from this incident that in addition to being a blacksmith, he might be called somewhat of a dentist.

Uncle Tom was not a counterfeiter. Far be it from him. He was the real article in every particular, and always rang true when brought to the test on any matter. But he made a silver duplicate of a ten dollar gold piece for an ornament to put on his gun stock. This achievement, being done as it was, by contrivances entirely his own, shows again that he was a true mechanical genius. But the beauty of his life was not seen in the attainments of his mechanical mind and muscles. Outwardly he was a rugged blacksmith, beneath which ruggedness his friends and neighbors saw and knew a heart that was true and honest, and a soul that was tuned to the notes of those things that stand for the right.

"WHAT WE HAVE TO BE THANKFUL FOR TODAY"

Following is the address delivered by Dr. H. T. Caffey at the Thanksgiving service held at Verbena last Thursday, Nov. 30th:

My only excuse for appearing before you this evening, my friends, is that I'm not responsible for it. Some ladies called on me a faw days ago and ordered it; and I dared not disobey. In the slang vernacular of the day, what the women say "goes." "Mrs. Jiggs," in rounding out my education some 40 or less years ago looked after this part of it. Then, too, my grandmother, bless her sainted soul, looked after my education in my kintergarten days just back in the sixties. Furthermore, I inherited of my great grand father, Adam a disposition to obey the ladies. Anyhow, it's become a fixed habit, and I'm too far on the shady side of life now to disregard it—even if I dared.

Thanksgiving is an annual religious festival in the United States. It originated in 1621, when Governor Bradford of Plymouth Colony appointed a day for public praise and prayer after the first harvest. The practice was observed by the other New England colonies, and during the revolution was introduced into the Middle States. Since then it has extended to all the States, and has been a national institution since 1863. What does Thanksgiving mean to us today? Perhaps, the most natural meaning to a certain class of people is turkey sauce and fruit cake. But to the thoughtful and serious, it means prayerful and heartfelt thanks to the Supreme Grand Master of the universe for countless blessings, gifts from his own unstinting and bounteous hand. Leaving out a consideration the many spiritual blessings for which every decent, normal man or woman is duly thankful, I shall mention only a few temporal blessings for which we should be especially thankful. Our hearts should go out in gratitude to the Giver of all good, because we were born citizens of the greatest country on earth. Greatest, not because the richest; not because of our boundless plains and fertile valleys and magnificent cities and inexhaustible resources, or any of the other things which go to make up temporal prosperity. But great because, in spite of all its defects of administration, its government is founded on the highest ideals of all ages; great because if its noble men and virtuous women whose lives are set to high ideals and noble aspirations; great because she gave birth to the man whose vision has set a model for the ages, who was great enough and big enough and broad enough to rise superior to the petty, selfish things which the world calls patriotism.

We should be thnkful today that we have complete separation of the church and state. So far as I now recall, the United States is the pioneer nation in the application of this principle. We have today logical successors of the witch burners of New England and the inquisition of the past centuries which ingulfed Europe with oceans of blood of martyrs and innocents, and which even to this day cry into heaven for vengeance. Today these latter day inquisitors, constituting militant minorities, are writing on our statute books many foolish laws designed to bind men's consciences and force them to certain lines of moral and religious conduct. What crimes, O God, are committed in thy name! But my friends, allow no cloud of pessimism to overshadow your minds. These fanatics will soon go the way of all the world. Their noise is but a receding wave of civilization, and their ideas with them will soon be buried beneath an oncoming wave of truth and light and civilization. In spite of all these things, we still have the best government on earth with one single exception, and for this we should be duly thankful.

We should thank God for our girls and boys. They are the biggest asset of our nation today. We need no stronger argument to assure us of their importance than the fact that God has reserved for them the only love in the world that has no element of selfishness in it—parental love. Their importance is further attested by the fact that the State gives half of all the taxes levied and collected to their education. They are the pride and hope of our country. Let us therefore afford them every advantage that will develop in them those qualities which make for better and higher citizenship.

But above all these, I thank God for the beautiful women of our country. And when I say "beautiful" I have no reference to that superficial quality which sometimes adorns our young women but which perishes like a flower from the face of the earth; but to that deeper and more enduring beauty of the heart which blossoms and bears perennial fruit in all the years to come. Some of these beautiful women are in the first flush of young womanhood with the blush of roses on their cheeks; some are middle aged; some are wrinkled with age and furrowed with many cares; some bedecked with jewels and live in gilded palaces; some are in the congested centers of our great cities toiling day by day for dependent loved ones; and some are far back in the rural districts and in lonely mountain fastnesses. But wherever they are, they are gentle and kind and sweet and pure just like they came from the hands of God. And though some bear the scars of many battles, still they are beautiful and sweet and tower far toward the heavens and toward God, and are the acme of His creation. There are our wives and mothers and daughters and sisters. They are the balance wheel of our civilization, and those who will win out over the dynamic forces of evil which today threaten to engolf our civilization and submerge us in Stygian darkness. No thoughtful man or woman can doubt that the forces of darkness confronting us today are portentious of the direst evil; and every student of history knows that these same forces obtained and were largely responsible for the downfall of the Babylonian, the Assyrian, the Persian, the Grecian, the Roman, and all the great civilizations of the past. But our women who are good and beautiful of heart will save us.

My friends, this is what Thanksgiving means to us today; these are some of the things for which we should be prayerfully and sincerely thankful.

GLASS OUT OF FOCUS

A statesman with the known sagacity of Senator Glass, of Virginia, opposes the Ship Subsidy Bill upon the ground that it may not accomplish all that is hoped for it. What an amazing objection! Neither the present system nor what we had before the war gave us a merchant marine that could be maintained; of that we are certain. We are now losing $50,000,000 a year. The subsidy plan may not work, it is true, but it can't possibly be a greater failure than what we have tried in the past—so why not give it a test? We shall at least save $20,000,000 a year and in these times of high taxes a saving of that kind is worth considering. If Columbus had abandoned his trip across the Atlantic on the ground that it might not be successful, and all others had pursued that policy, where would we be now?

CLEMENCEAU DISTRUSTS LEAGUE

Washington, Dec. 13.—"It is easy to believe former Premier Clemenceau when he denies that he is urging the United States to become a member of the League of Nations," says the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "What he wants above all else is for this country and Great Britain to guarantee France against future German attacks. Clemenceau knows too much of the complications of European politics and the insincerity of European diplomacy to place any confidence whatever in the League.

"France, for which Clemenceau speaks, already has the protection guarantee of Great Britain and some forty other nations that signed the League covenant. The outstanding feature of that covenant is a guarantee by all that external aggression against any one member will be resisted by all members. If the League were or could be an effective guarantor of peace, France would be satisfied to rely upon that covenant as a safeguard against another German assault.

"But France cannot depend upon such assistance because each of the leading members of the League, as well as France herself, has demonstrated that it has no regard whatever for the obligations of the League covenant. Mr. Clemenceau knows that to be a fact, and he wants to obtain the guarantee of another nation, the United States, which guarantee, if given, he knows would be scrupulously observed.

"Recognizing in advance that many other nations would regard the League covenant as but a scrap of paper, and would neglect their obligations under it, the United States Senate wisely refused to permit this nation to become a party of the league. But for that action, the United States would now be bearing the burden of an effort to maintain, almost single-handed the peace of Europe and Asia.

"This country, fortunately, has not yet reached the extreme of folly where it desires to take up the duties of nations that have thrown international morality to the winds."

ALABAMA FARM NOTES.

By F. W. Gist.

Final reports to the office of the state and federal agricultural statistician for Alabama on peanut production indicate that the volume of acreage harvested this year is materially less than last, according to a statement issued by F. W. Gist. The total acreage last year harvested for nuts amounted to about 330,000, while this year only about 205,000 acres have been harvested. The total harvested this year from solid acreage was about 167,000 and from interplanted acerage about 38,000. The total number of bushels harvested last year was 7,160,000, or about 91,000 tons. Of the total crop harvested about 2,720,000 bushels are Spanish and 1,680,000 bushels are runners. These figures are subject to revision before the 15th of December, but are given at this time as an indication of the available supply for oil, parching, and confectionery purposes. The price of peanuts has materially advanced since the crop began to show up shorter than for the past few years.

The two frosts late in November did not bring temperature low enough to materially affect farm work. Neither did they have much effect on boll weevils, except probably to drive them into hibernation. Other insects, such as turnip lice, which have been rather severe in some sections, have not probably been put out of action. Frost temperatures will doubtless hasten the making of sugar cane sirup and, the completion of sweet potato harvest.

Cotton picking is now practically completed in all parts of the state. Ginners generally report that a very small volume remained to be ginned after the mid-month in November.

HAY POOL GETTING GOOD RESULTS

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 13.—(Special).—Ten per cent of the hay entrusted to the Alabama Farm Bureau Hay Association has been sold. It brought satisfactory prices to grower and distributor in all instances.

So far 2,500 cars have been signed and placed with the hay pool for disposal. Over 280 cars have been sold to date. The hay is being marketed in an orderly manner as fast as the market will absorb it at fair prices. Number One Johnson grass is selling best.

Every car sold has brought a repeat order. Some customers started with one car, now they write they are buying from the Hay Association only. Many of these customers order without mentioning price in their telegrams, knowing they get satisfactory treatment.

J. N. Faust, sales manager of the Alabama Farm Bureau Hay Association, says many of the orders he receives simply read:

"Send a car like the last."

Since the Hay Association was formed it has only lost one customer.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN FOR FARM BUREAU

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 13.—(Special).—Preparations are going forward at the headquarters of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation for the state-wide membership campaign that will be started January 1st.

The slogan of the campaign is: "Every member get a member." The object of the work is to more than double the present strength of the organization so expense may be saved the farmers of the state in selling farm products. Already more than $100,000 has been saved this year in the handling of fertilizers.

Sales of cotton from the pool of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association have passed the 6,000 bale mark, in all instances getting prices above street quotations.

Skin Ablaze with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We knew that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are rundown. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

WHOSE FAULT?

A prominent Democratic newspaper complains of the high taxes the country had to pay in 1921. Well, how does that reflect upon the Republican administration? This administration did not come into power until March 4, 1921, and the costs of government for that year had already been fixed by the preceding administration. The Republicans had forced as many economies as they could, but they were unable to compel the Democratic regime to adopt effective reduction of public expenditures. The criticism of taxes in 1921 is really a criticism of the Democratic regime.

ONLY ONE WAY

President Harding certainly acted wisely if he refused, as reported, to direct Federal intervention in the law and order problems of the State of Louisiana. Whether troubles down there are as serious as represented in some sensational newspapers, we do not know, but we do know that there is only one way under our Constitution in which Federal intervention could be justified. The Constitution authorizes the President to aid the states in case of insurrection on request of the legislature of a state, or on request of the Governor if the legislature cannot be convened. It will be a sad day for the states when they yield police power to a government at Washington, be it Republican or Democratic in political complexion. If the Governor of any state thinks he needs Federal assistance, he should call his state legislature in special session and recommend the adoption of a resolution declaring the downfall of the state government. We believe there isn't a state in the Union whose legislature would do it.

A JOB FOR TEXAS

The I. W. W., which formerly operated so extensively in the demolition of saw mill property and the burning of wheat fields in the Pacific Northwest, has now transferred its activities to the Mexican border states, according to the Houston Post. The people of Washington and Oregon found a way to deal effectively with the I. W. W., and Texas might well learn by observation instead of by experience.

FAIR PROFIT NEEDED

What the farmers of the country need is not an opportunity to borrow money, on which they cannot pay the interest but an opportunity to sell their products at a fair profit instead of at a loss. Encouraging a farmer to increase his debts when he cannot pay the interest on what he now owes, is no act of kindness.

COURT TO TAKE UP MATTER OF FERRYS

Announcement is made this week that the Court of County Commissioners will be in session next Thursday, Dec. 21st to consider the matter of discontinuing the Higgins ferries across Coosa River and the establishment of another ferry that can be used after the back water comes up from Mitchell Dam.

Mr. Wiley Littlejohn, one of the commissions, has been engaged this week in looking over this proposition, having spent some time in that part of the county to be effected by the change of the ferries.

It has been said that it is most likely that the new ferry will be established somewhere not far below Lock 12. All investigation seems to point to that as the most suitable place.

The Court of Commissioners invite all citizens who may be interested to meet with them and discuss this matter.

WHAT OF THESE OLD MEN?

Congress enacted a law in 1890 requiring all heads of departments and independent establishments in the federal service to report each year to the secretary of the treasury the number of employees under them who were below a fair standard of efficiency. Every year this is done and the letters to the secretary of the treasury from the various departments and bureaus are printed in the book of estimates of appropriations compiled for use by congress in making up the annual supply bills. Congress never pays the slightest heed to these reports. They are made up year after year, but the inefficient are never fired.

For example, last year the chief clerk of the treasury reported 170 employees of the Treasury department as below a fair standard of efficiency. But nothing will be done about it. The Interior department reported 139 inefficients, and will probably go on reporting them till they die of old age. There are employees of the government in Washington who are totally blind and who are led from their homes to their offices each day and back home again in the afternoon.

I knew in 1920 one gentleman of ninety-two years who had been in the government service for seventy-two years. He was being paid at that time $900 a year. His maximum pay during his long service was $1800 a year. James K. Polk was President when this old gentleman came into the service. He was born on January 10, 1828. His father was a captain of the regular army in the war of 1812. After that service he led an active life in other occupations until 1848, when he died, leaving a dependent family of nine persons, three of them boys. It fell to the lot of one of them to be the chief support of the family.

It came to pass, then, that at the age of twenty he received through the influence of navy friends of his father a small clerkship at the naval observatory, then under the superintendence of that accomplished officer, Matthew Fontaine Maury, whom he served as amanuensis for ten years, accounting it a great privilege and pleasure to have heard Maury's voice dictating the words of sense and wisdom which make up the sailing directions, the wind and current charts and other publications issued from the observatory for the benefit of the world.

From a copyist at first, November 9, 1848, at $3 a day, the young man was advanced as follows:

July 1, 1853, clerk at $1,200 a year; July 1, 1854, clerk at $1,500 a year; July 1, 1870, principal clerk at $1,800 a year; December 6, 1911, clerk at $1,400 a year; May 1, 1918, stenographer and typewriter at $900 a year.

It will be seen that he was demoted in December, 1911, and again in May, 1918, to lower positions, involving less work and responsibility. These demotions were at his own request. In October, 1917, he received from the assistant secretary of the navy, Mr. Roosevelt, the following letter:

"I have to inform you that you have been granted leave without pay for six months beginning October 13, 1917.

"As you have been in the employ of the government now nearly sixty-nine years, and during all that time your record has been excellent, I regret that there is no way in which the department could continue you on the rolls with compensation.

"I desire at this time to express the appreciation of the department for your long and satisfactory service, and the hope that you will be so benefited by this leave that you can return and resume your duties at its expiration."

He said: "I don't know what congress intends to do about them, but I know what I intend to do with those in my department. I intend to leave them alone. They can stay here as long as they like, until some provision is made for them. When I was new in the department I dismissed two of these old people and demoted another, on the ground that they were superannuated and inefficient and were a hindrance to the work.

"All three of them wrote me sad letters and promptly committed suicide. That was enough and more than enough for me. Never again will I disturb one of them. I do not choose to have it on my conscience that I pronounced sentence of death on an old man or an old woman in the service of the government. They can all stay on here as long as they like. I found them here and some of them will be here when I leave. If congress chooses to provide for them that is its obligation. But I will never sentence another one of them to self-destruction, no matter what the cost to the taxpayer and the government."

POOR ORIGINAL

THE NEW FREEDOM

(Reprinted by Courtesy "Better Farming.")

On the American farms we see the wonders of nature wrought every day. Our eyes are the beholders of the great miracles of modern times. The farmer goes forth in the spring with a handful of seeds, and garners in the summer and autumn a harvest of plenty that is eagerly waited for by a hungry world. Verily the farmers have been taught, and have learned from long experiences, the secret of production. Never in the recollection of men who live now has there been a time when farmers did not produce enough to feed the people and dependent animals, besides big quantities to send to foreign countries.

Farmers Have Never Failed

Factories sometimes have failed to produce plenty of their commodities to satisfy their would-be consumers. Laborers in other fields have refused to work and thus caused a scarcity of manufactured goods, coal, etc., or by stopping the means of transportation have prevented the people from getting needed supplies. But farmers have never failed to respond to the call of the hungry and those who needed to be clothed. Thus the people who produce all the necessaries of life have done their full duty to their fellow-men and to the nation.

Independence Ended With the Harvest

While we were preparing the ground and sowing the seed and cultivating the crops and harvesting, we were supreme. No person assumed to do such hard work for us. The only concern the people had was the fear that we might not raise all that we possibly could—that there might not be abundant crops to handle, transport, store, and manipulate. The interest they took in such operations was to goad us to farm more, farm better, work harder and raise more, although they knew we were producing enough to supply the demand and usually too much to sell at profitable prices. So we have been working as hard as we could, and have been producing all that we could. In these things we were not hindered. But our independence and supremacy ended with the harvest. When the hard work—that of producing—was done, and the easy work—that of marketing—began, our independence ended. When we hauled the load of fine grain, or vegetables, or fruit, or cotton to market, we knew we would not have the same independence in pricing it that we had when we decided to put corn in one field, sow wheat in another, plant potatoes in this one and cabbage in that one, and cotton in the other. On the contrary we knew that there was a man on the market who would tell us what he would pay for our produce. Isn't this true?

Farmers Are the Poorest Paid

The question cannot help but come up: Why are farmers, the ones who produce the most necessary things on earth—the only absolutely necessary things—the poorest paid of all laborers and the only ones of all producers who have nothing to say as to the prices their products shall sell for but have always to take prices decided upon by others?

The Difference in Marketing

When we produce a crop, we consider our work done except that the crop is to be hauled to market to be turned over to other people at their prices. But it is different with other people. The manufacturer does not consider his work done with the completion of a machine or piece of goods. He does not dump his products blindly on the market to be the chips for gambling games played by a set of people who do not produce anything. He learns where the demand is and then he sends just enough there to supply that demand. He can do this because he has a business system at the selling end. This selling organization and this system enable him to prevent flooded markets. As a consequence he and his agents can set the prices and get them, or keep the goods.

So the difference lies in the fact that farm products are not marketed like other things. Instead of their being sold when they are needed for consumption they have been dumped on the markets much faster than people could consume them. The surplus then went into the hands of others, or at least divided the power with others. It is a fact that farmers have all the food supplies for all the people first. Without them people and domestic animals would starve. To get what farmers produce, the richest man in the country would pay all of his wealth for a year's supply if that were the price. But farmers do not control it and set the prices. On the contrary they turn it over to others who hold it as a club to beat down the price on what they have left.

Feeding Humans vs. Feeding Hogs

Farmers have not exercised as much judgment in feeding people as they have in feeding their hogs.

For instance, it takes about 15 bushels of corn to fatten a hog. The farmer does not take 15 bushels of corn and throw it to the hog at one time and expect the hog to get fat. He puts a small portion of corn before the hog each day and by and by he has a nice fat hog worth a nice sum of money. But in feeding the human family it has been customary for the farmer to dump a year's supply in a few months. Human beings cannot consume a year's supply of food in a few months any more than the hog can eat enough corn to fatten him at one feed. Farmers control the food when feeding hogs but they have not been controlling the food of human beings and the dependent animals off of farms. For proof of this, witness the enormous supplies that accumulate in warehouses and elevators the first few months after any harvest. The faster the farmers dump the crops, the greater grows the visible supply and the lower the prices are put. When the farmer markets freely the big manipulators say: "We'll put the prices down and get it cheaper." But when the farmers are stingy about marketing, the visible supply decreases and they put the prices up to tempt the produce from the farmers to the market. Watch the market for a few days and see if this is not so.

Conditions Are Growing Worse

What farmers need is an organization, a business system of their own for the distributing end of farming. Such an organization and its system must be able to control the crop when produced and decide the price and enforce its demands for their payment. It is no use deceiving ourselves any longer believing that conditions will adjust themselves. Conditions are growing worse each season and will continue to grow worse and the fetters of the bad system will be more firmly riveted on the producers if we do not soon take steps to cast them off. It is no wonder that farmers are disgusted with the uncertainty in their business and that they are crying out for reforms. But it will do no good to grumble and do nothing more. The situation is one that demands ACTION and it must be wise action. We can well afford to look to other business men and see how they solved their marketing problems. If the solution of the farmers business problems can be brought about in the same way then it is folly to continue the old system longer.

How Business Men Solved the Marketing Problem

Not very many years ago a number of lines of business were not much better off as regards certainty of values and profits than agriculture is today. But since then manufacturers, merchants, bankers, and other business men, each put forth a concerted effort amongst their own people to increase the efficiency of their operations and guarantee their legitimate profits. Their efforts were directed to reduce the cost of selling through co-operation and to eliminate unfair competition. It was such efforts that have in the past twenty years produced the marvelous distributing systems that now make it possible for the seller of commodities to get certain, definite, profitable prices. Manufacturers figured out that they could reduce the cost of selling or distribution very greatly if they combined scattered producing plants under one central head or selling organization; that is, substituted one selling expense for a dozen or more selling expenses.

Farmers Twenty Years Behind

Farmers are now in a condition similar to what manufacturers were twenty or more years ago. They have thousands of local organizations, each with a selling organization and individual expense, and these thousands of local organizations are in direct and fierce competition with each other. Until this time, farmers who are the greatest producers of all have done very little toward concentrating the selling effort at one headquarters. So, while we have great manufacturing, and mining, and railroad, and mercantile activities with their business systems that are the wonders of the world, we see farmers twenty or more years behind in business system and the adoption of modern business methods and still engaged in the most terrific competition for the common markets with the unsatisfactory results that are plainly evident on all sides.

Money vs. Large Crops

We must understand that Money also, and not alone Large Crops must be the measure of success in farming. What benefits the farmer if he is ever so successful in producing if he must sell his crops at unprofitable prices?

American farmers are naturally proud of the fact that they raise the greatest crops in the world. But what are they working for, crops or comfort? What benefits it the farmers to raise millions of bushels of grain, millions of bales of cotton, millions of barrels of apples, etc., if they cannot be sold for enough to pay the cost of production and leave a good profit besides?

Farmers have learned how to produce two ears of corn, two potatoes, two bales of cotton, two apples, etc., where only one grew before. But often, doubling the crop halves the profit, or destroys it entirely. What we must learn to do now is to put two dollars in our pocket where only one went before.

Get Enough Money

BETHANY NEWS

We told you last week that, 'if the world stood you would hear from us again this week,' so we think it has stood pretty well, and we are back again this week.

We are glad, indeed, to state that health of this community is on the mend, but we deeply regret that Mr. J. A. Boockholdt is very ill of pneumonia. However, it affords much pleasure to state that he is some better than he has been heretofore.

The weather beats all. In times past this community has known some pretty weather, but it seems now that sunshine is a thing of the past. But fortunately, the people of this place make it their motto to look on the bright side of everything. For this reason we call every shower the breaking up shower and have dry weather anyway.

Mrs. G. W. Gray visited Mrs. Georgia Jones Friday night.

Mr. Sam Dykes was a visitor to our school Friday afternoon.

Mr. Wilbert Neeley has purchased a buggy for himself. We don't know what he is up to, but if we wait and see, I'll bet we know what he has in his head.

We regret that Mr. I. D. Huett has recently happened to the unfortunate luck to lose his cow a few days ago, but we are glad to know that he has bought another one.

The Enterprise school has come to the front like a German whirlwind. We have just got in three sanitary drinking fountains and also a number of patent desks. Prof. G. C. Weldon is doing his very best to fatten us on "Algebra" and "Latin." Prof. Weldon is a kind and noble teacher, much loved by us all.

Miss Myrtle Keel has been at home for some time undergoing a tough case of the influenza. She is a pupil of the Chilton County High School.

All of the farmers in this community have just about finished gathering their crops of this year and are now making preparations for the next crop.

Mr. J. W. Cagle has at last quit his position that he formerly held at the Mitchell Dam. We think he is preparing to farm again.

Mr. Curtis Hann visited homefolks near Liberty recently.

Messrs, Willie Dykes and Dewey Huett made a pleasant call on Misses Ruby Gray and Eunice Jones Friday night.

Everybody was surprised Sunday morning when Mr. Willie Bone and Miss Fannie Williams presented themselves to Squire J. W. Cagle to be united into the deep and unknown seas of matrimony. Everybody, one and all, wishes them a long, happy life.

Messrs. Dewey Huett and Willie Dykes were the honored guests of Misses Eunice Jones and Ruby Gray Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Hubert Stroud, of the Chilton County High School, was at home visiting parents Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Sam Dykes was the honred guest of Miss Virlie Sunday afternoon.

Miss Susie Huett went to Bethsalem Sunday. The preacher was not present on account of sickness, but she states that they had some splendid singing.

Rev. B. F. Dykes of Thorsby, was in this community Saturday night and Sunday. We notice that he has purchased himself a Ford car.

Messrs. J. W. Cagle and I. D. Huett started to go to Mitchell Dam Saturday afternoon, but learned from careful investigation that Old South Prong Creek was deeper than their car was high. They also learned that the roads were pretty sticky up that way.

Mr. Omer Gray says that he is afraid he will have this "Flu" that is going around down here now. If he does, I pity his doctor, but it will be quite a blessing to the dining room.

Well, I guess it is time to stop for this time. But listen for us next week—we are coming back once a week and stay six months every time.

SINGING AT EAST VIEW

Our singing society met at East View Sunday afternoon and organized.

The following were elected officers: Mr. J. J. Burkhalter, president; J. C. Driver, secretary; Messrs. D. Driver, T. E. Traywick and J. F. Nelson, program committee.

We meet every second Sunday afternoon. Everybody is invited to come and bring 1923 song books.

J. C. DRIVER, Sec'y.

All who are interested in the cemetery at this place will please meet Friday afternoon, Dec. 15th, for the purpose of cleaning it off.

LIVE FARM BUREAU NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 13.—Special.—To appraise Alabama farm lands and farm buildings two representatives of the Federal Loan Board have been appointed. They will represent the First Joint Stock Land Bank, of Montgomery.

W. C. Swallow, of Demopolis and Montgomery, is one of them. Mr. Swallow is the man who raised the junior yearling Hereford, "Cal Swallow" that won the grand championship at the recent Alabama Fat Stock Show. Mr. Swallow retains an interest in cattle production activities in Hale county.

Paul D. Leverett, formerly of Albany, Ga., will serve in a similar capaciy with Mr. Swallow. Mr. Leverett was for years a representative of banking interests that made loans on farm property in Georgia.

Later the two appraisers will be supplemented by additional men, as the business of the bank grows. At present the work is handled by survey of the property of several applicants for loans, on one acre, at a time. Last reports from the bank stated that applications for loans had already reached the vicinity of $750,000.

LIVE FARM BUREAU NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 13.—Special.—Carl Williams of Oklahoma, president of the American Cotton Growers' Exchange, with headquarters in Dallas, Texas, is making a tour of the South, visiting Farm Bureau and Co-operative Cotton Associations. He spent a day in Montgomery in conference with the officials of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association.

"Cotton has not yet reached the point it deserves to reach," Mr. Williams said. "The demand should carry the price higher. The crop is shorter than was expected and the carry over from last year was small. The acreage planted next year, because of existing conditions, very probably, will be much larger. This will not mean a larger crop, but it is evident a larger acreage will be planted."

Mr. Williams, after an examination of the affairs of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association stated that he did not believe any cotton association would show less cost per bale for operation than the Alabama organization. He said already Alabama is being discussed throughout the South as operating on a conservative, sound and highly economical basis.

"In reading Chinese history recently, I found that China had what was to all intents and purposes, a farm bureau three thousand years ago," Mr. Williams continued. "It functioned admirably for awhile. Then its leaders got into politics, the organization became divided, and it went to pieces."

"The Farm Bureau must scrupulously avoid any connection with or part in politics, if it is to live and thrive. At best all legislation can do is give the farmer permission to do what he has already decided will be beneficial."

GUY ROBERTS GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Mr. Guy Roberts makes the announcement this week that he is going out of business and is offering his stock of goods at special close-out prices. Read his big adv. in another place in this paper.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

The Debating Club of Thorsby Institute had a very interesting topic for discussion last Saturday night—"Resolved. That Prohibition Is a Failure."

The debaters were Porter Lee Music and Miss Edith Robinson for the affirmative, and Truman Pierce with Miss Verona East for the negative. And the judges decided 3 to 0 in favor of the negative.

There are some people and some newspaper and magazine writers who would have us believe that any law is a failure if it is violated, and especially so with the Volstead Act. The great minority make a lot of noise because it hurts, but public sentiment wherever expressed, is overwhelmingly in favor of the law and its enforcement, and their number is increasing daily. California, where the law when proposed was bitterly opposed in the belief that it would ruin their Grape Juice industry, voted by a large majority recently in favor of the law and its enforcement. They have found it far more profitable to sell grapes and raisins than to make wine.

AN EFFORT TO FORCE CLERK TO ACCEPT BOND

Mandamus proceedings were instituted Wednesday seeking to compel Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee to accept the bond in the Messer-Reynolds contest. The refusal of the clerk to accept the bond has had the progress of the contest halted for the past few days, and it is the purpose of the contesting parties to overcome this objection by forcing acceptance of the bond by court proceedure.

When the bond is accepted the case may then be duly filed in court, and all details arranged for trial of the contest case.

Since the bond was filed with the clerk three of the parties whose names are signed to it have taken action seeking to withdraw their signatures, and ordering the clerk not to approve the bond with their names thereon.

The hearing of the case is set for next Tuesday at ten o'clock in the circuit court before Judge McMorris.

USE CHECKS!

If all the people in this country were to turn out their pockets, purses, hidden stockings, buried cans and other containers of cash, how big a pile of money do you think it would make?

THREE BILLION DOLLORS

is the estimate of a federal reserve bank officer. Almost half of all the money in America outside the U. S. Treasury, or an average of $30 for every individual in the country!

With such amounts secluded from productive use, no wonder money has been "tight" and business deprived of the credit needed to sustain prosperity! Cash hidden or carried not only is in constant danger of loss or theft, but also endangers the life of the owner. It is inconvenient and insanitary, and paying with cash is a risky way—no record and no receipt.

Pay-by-check—the easy, clean and systematic way that gives you a perfect record and receipt as well as saving countless steps.

Safeguard your money in a checking account and you also help yourself by helping to insure prosperity and "good times."

UNITED FARMERS OF AMERICA TO HAVE SCHOOL DAY

Perhaps the biggest need of the country today is education. To this, farmers, business and professional men all agree. The wisest man of the world said: "Get knowledge." We may or we may not agree that this applies to every individual, rather than some particular individual or class. Some men seem to take pride in being ignorant of certain rules, laws or principles. Nevertheless, that does not lessen the force of Solomon's language: "Get knowledge." Some men shut their eyes to keep from seeing the rats. We believe in better schools, better churches, better roads, better farmers and better citizens in general. In order to bring this about the individual must be reached. One must be educated to do his or her part—bear his or her portion of the load. When something is to be done we are too prone to want the other fellow to do it. Many a farmer would like to live on a well improved farm instead of the old "run down" place on which he now lives. Why not improve this place and make it what you want it to be? "Oh, I'm going to let the other fellow do that." Did you ever hear a statement like that? Is the farmer the only guilty party of a thing like this? No! Many a good little town has been spoiled by its citizens depending upon the other fellow to make it a "big" town. Some of these towns have had a whirlwind boom but when the wind ceased the boom ceased and the last stage was worse than the first.

We believe that the South is suffering from the fact that she is sending too much of her money out of the country, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with all commercial organizations in helping secure more and better factories, and such other institutions necessary to the full development of the South's trade and commerce. How can we secure these factories and institutions? By education, organization and co-operation. Other countries have made a success in this way. They made it with much less capital and natural advantages to start with than we have. Now they are rich while we are poor. Can we not profit by their experience? Can we not learn the lesson from four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceedingly wise. The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meet in the summer. The conies are but a feeble folk yet make their houses in the rocks. The locusts have no king yet go they forth all of them by bands. The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in king's palaces.—Bible.

The ant says: Make the preparation. The conie says: Make a sure foundation. The locust says: Stay together. And the spider says: If you want a palace—a good home—a good town and a good country, take hold with your own hands and be a builder.

The Lord smiles upon our dear southland in more ways than He does upon any other country in the world.

With these lessons before us, if every individual will catch the building spirit, get into the harness and give a lift and a pull we will go forward.

The United Farmers of America are learning and putting into practice these lessons.

In order that we may know each other better, and what is best for the organization and the county every United Farmer in Chilton county is requested to be in Clanton on Saturday, December 30, 1922.

CONTEST HEARING IS CONTINUED TO SATURDAY

The hearing of the mandamus proceedings against Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee, in the Messer-Reynolds election contest was continued from Tuesday to next Saturday. This action was instituted against the clerk seeking to require him to accept the bond which was submitted as surety for the cost in the case.

The progress of the contest is temporarily impeded by the refusal of the clerk to accept the bond.

PAY YOUR CENTRAL FEES NOW

Mr. J. N. Dennis requests us to state to the people of this vicinity who have telephones connecting with the Peoples Central that he is now ready to receive central fees for the next year. He will be in Clanton at some convenient place on next Saturday for the transaction of this business.

All phone holders are urged to pay as promptly as they can as the funds of the company are now about exhausted and money will be needed on the first of January to pay for operating the business for this month.

The fees for central service next year will be the same as they were for this year.

CHRISTMAS GIFT!

Everyone has heard that joyful exclamation. This is a season of joyful helpfulness, a kind, loving, forgiving time. Many personal gifts will be exchanged. How about a public gift? For some time the Clanton School has needed a good roof. All last winter we had to be constantly shifting about in two rooms on rainy days to escape the water. Then the summer storm blew the old roof away. It was necessary to put some kind of a roof back to protect the plastering. A very cheap roof was put on at that time for we did not have time to wait for the tin to come. On Friday morning of last week we found one room practically flooded with water. Tin has arrived and by the time this is printed, we hope to have a new roof.

The cost will be exactly $391.00. The Michael Supply Company of Talladega, has been contracted with to do the work. This company has covered several buildings in Clanton and the quality of their work is well known.

The School Board is doing everything possible to give a nine months term under as sanitary conditions as possible, but I cannot refrain from telling you that this same board had to sign a note for $1200.00 last May to finish paying the teachers. The source of revenue has not changed, so it is only reasonable to suppose there will be a deficit this year if the school is to run nine months.

Parents and all others who are interested in the health of children, I beseech you to help pay for this roof. Let it be a Christmas gift from the entire town. Remember the cost is exactly $391.

Sincerely,
IRA PEGUES, Supt.

MAIN STREET GARAGE WILL MAKE EXPANSION SOON

Plans which have been approved and accepted between Mr. J. Q. Wade and Mr. G. M. Wyatt of the Main Street Garage, assure a new building to be erected soon by Mr. Wade, and which will be occupied by Mr. Wyatt's garage. The new building will be located on what is now the vacant lot next below Broadhead's Store. The new building will be erected just as soon as weather conditions will permit the assembling of the material and the progress of the work.

Mr. Wyatt says he has heard it rumored that he contemplates quitting the garage business. He denies having any notions of this kind; and on the other hand takes pleasure in stating to his friends and customers that his plans for the future are to be in position to take care of more business in a much better way in his new location.

TELEPHONE MEETING HERE LAST MONDAY

The annual meeting of the Peoples Telephone Company was held at the Court House last Monday at 10 o'clock a.m. Considering the extremely bad weather, we consider that there was a good attendance present, as there were a majority of the lines represented.

The report of Mr. J. N. Dennis, the secretary and treasurer, for the year just closing showed that there was not quite enough money paid in to bear the expenses of operating the business for the year.

J. D. Collins, President.
M. D. Foshee, Vice-President.
J. N. Dennis, Secretary-Treasurer.

It was voted by this meeting to assess the same rates of central fees and post rights for the next year as have been in force for the past year.

BACK WATERS COMING UP FROM MITCHELL DAM

Citizens of the eastern part of Chilton county, who live along the Coosa River, who were in Clanton Monday, reported that the back waters of the river caused by the building of Mitchell Dam, are gradually coming up, having already inundated many of the fields and plantations in the lower river bottoms. The public road which crosses the river at Higgins Ferry is said to be already covered by water to such a depth that it is not possible to cross the river there any more. Property owners in the Mitchell Dam reservoir basin were notified by the power company some months ago that the water would be backed some time in the month of December, and a warning was issued for all property to be removed from the back water area.

A BILL TO FIX BOUNDARY BETWEEN COOSA AND CHILTON

The attention of The Union-Banner has been directed to an advertisement in the Rockford Chronicle of last week of a proposed bil to be introduced in the next legislature of Alabama, the purpose of which is to designate the middle of Coosa River as the boundary line between Chilton and Coosa counties; and also between Shelby and Coosa counties. We do not know what it is that has caused Coosa county to become so interested all at once in this matter of the dividing line between herself and her neighbor counties across the Coosa; but it would be a safe bet that this interest is aroused by the fact that the Alabama Power Company is to begin this year to assess taxes on certain large items of its property along the Coosa River, which has been for the past ten years exempt from taxation. Coosa is not positive under present existing statutes and decisions just what her western boundary is. Therefore she does not know just whether or not she shall have a portion of this Alabama Power Company assessment. Hence the effort to definitely fix the boundary line between Coosa and Chilton at the middle of the river, thus making sure that a good portion of the Alabama Power Company's property will fall within the boundary line of Coosa.

The existing statutes regarding this mooted question are somewhat indefinite. While there are some interpretations and opinions of the high courts of the country upon certain related propositions that are very explicit as to such boundary lines. Altogether the question will be an interesting one, and its definite settlement by the enactment of a specific bill will placate the minds of many people in both counties who have no doubt given the matter much thought since the Alabama Power Company began the development of its water power holdings on the Coosa River.

UNITED FARMERS OF AMERICA TO HAVE SCHOOL DAY

Perhaps the biggest need of the country today is education. To this, farmers, business and professional men all agree. The wisest man of the world said: "Get knowledge." We may or we may not agree that this applies to every individual, rather than some particular individual or class. Some men seem to take pride in being ignorant of certain rules, laws or principles. Nevertheless, that does not lessen the force of Solomon's language: "Get knowledge." Some men shut their eyes to keep from seeing the rats. We believe in better schools, better churches, better roads, better farmers and better citizens in general. In order to bring this about the individual must be reached. One must be educated to do his or her part—bear his or her portion of the load. When something is to be done we are too prone to want the other fellow to do it. Many a farmer would like to live on a well improved farm instead of the old "run down" place on which he now lives. Why not improve this place and make it what you want it to be? "Oh, I'm going to let the other fellow do that."- Did you ever hear a statement like that? Is the farmer the only guilty party of a thing like this? No! Many a good little town has been spoiled by its citizens depending upon the other fellow to make it a "big" town. Some of these towns have had a whirlwind boom but when the wind ceased the boom ceased and the last stage was worse than the first.

We believe that the South is suffering from the fact that she is sending too much of her money out of the country, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with all commercial organizations in helping secure more and better factories, and such other institutions necessary to the full development of the South's trade and commerce. How can we secure these factories and institutions? By education, organization and co-operation. Other countries have made a success in this way. They made it with much less capital and natural advantages to start with than we have. Now they are rich while we are poor. Can we not profit by their experience? Can we not learn the lesson from four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceedingly wise. The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meet in the summer. The conies are but a feeble folk yet make their houses in the rocks. The locusts have no king yet go they forth all of them by bands. The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in king's palaces.—Bible.

The ant says: Make the preparation. The conie says: Make a sure foundation. The locust says: Stay together. And the spider says: If you want a palace—a good home—a good town and a good country, take hold with your own hands and be a builder.

The Lord smiles upon our dear southland in more ways than He does upon any other country in the world.

With these lessons before us, if every individual will catch the building spirit, get into the harness and give a lift and a pull we will go forward.

In order that we may know each other better, and what is best for the organization and the county every United Farmer in Chilton county is requested to be in Clanton on Saturday, December 30, 1922.

CONTEST HEARING IS CONTINUED TO SATURDAY

The hearing of the mandamus proceedings against Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee, in the Messer-Reynolds election contest was continued from Tuesday to next Saturday. This action was instituted against the clerk seeking to require him to accept the bond which was submitted as surety for the cost in the case.

The progress of the contest is temporarily impeded by the refusal of the clerk to accept the bond.

PAY YOUR CENTRAL FEES NOW

Mr. J. N. Dennis requests us to state to the people of this vicinity who have telephones connecting with the Peoples Central that he is now ready to receive central fees for the next year. He will be in Clanton at some convenient place on next Saturday for the transaction of this business.

All phone holders are urged to pay as promptly as they can as the funds of the company are now about exhausted and money will be needed on the first of January to pay for operating the business for this month.

The fees for central service next year will be the same as they were for this year.

CHRISTMAS GIFT!

Everyone has heard that joyful exclamation. This is a season of joyful helpfulness, a kind, loving, forgiving time. Many personal gifts will be exchanged. How about a public gift? For some time the Clanton School has needed a good roof. All last winter we had to be constantly shifting about in two rooms on rainy days to escape the water. Then the summer storm blew the old roof away. It was necessary to put some kind of a roof back to protect the plastering. A very cheap roof was put on at that time for we did not have time to wait for the tin to come. On Friday morning of last week we found one room practically flooded with water. Tin has arrived and by the time this is printed, we hope to have a new roof.

The cost will be exactly $391.00. The Michael Supply Company of Talladega, has been contracted with to do the work. This company has covered several buildings in Clanton and the quality of their work is well known.

The School Board is doing everything possible to give a nine months term under as sanitary conditions as possible, but I cannot refrain from telling you that this same board had to sign a note for $1200.00 last May to finish paying the teachers. The source of revenue has not changed, so it is only reasonable to suppose there will be a deficit this year if the school is to run nine months.

Parents and all others who are interested in the health of children, I beseech you to help pay for this roof. Let it be a Christmas gift from the entire town. Remember the cost is exactly $391.

Sincerely,
IRA PEGUES, Supt.

MAIN STREET GARAGE WILL MAKE EXPANSION SOON

Plans which have been approved and accepted between Mr. J. Q. Wade and Mr. G. M. Wyatt of the Main Street Garage, assure a new building to be erected soon by Mr. Wade, and which will be occupied by Mr. Wyatt's garage. The new building will be located on what is now the vacant lot next below Broadhead's Store. The new building will be erected just as soon as weather conditions will permit the assembling of the material and the progress of the work.

Mr. Wyatt says he has heard it rumored that he contemplates quitting the garage business. He denies having any notions of this kind; and on the other hand takes pleasure in stating to his friends and customers that his plans for the future are to be in position to take care of more business in a much better way in his new location.

TELEPHONE MEETING HERE LAST MONDAY

The annual meeting of the Peoples Telephone Company was held at the Court House last Monday at 10 o'clock a.m. Considering the extremely bad weather, we consider that there was a good attendance present, as there were a majority of the lines represented.

The report of Mr. J. N. Dennis, the secretary and treasurer, for the year just closing showed that there was not quite enough money paid in to bear the expenses of operating the business for the year.

J. D. Collins, President.
M. D. Foshee, Vice-President.
J. N. Dennis, Secretary-Treasurer.

It was voted by this meeting to assess the same rates of central fees and post rights for the next year as have been in force for the past year.

From all reports at this meeting the service which has been rendered the patrons of the system through central has been very satisfactory.

BACK WATERS COMING UP FROM MITCHELL DAM

Citizens of the eastern part of Chilton county, who live along the Coosa River, who were in Clanton Monday, reported that the back waters of the river caused by the building of Mitchell Dam, are gradually coming up, having already inundated many of the fields and plantations in the lower river bottoms. The public road which crosses the river at Higgins Ferry is said to be already covered by water to such a depth that it is not possible to cross the river there any more. Property owners in the Mitchell Dam reservoir basin were notified by the power company some months ago that the water would be backed some time in the month of December, and a warning was issued for all property to be removed from the back water area.

A BILL TO FIX BOUNDARY BETWEEN COOSA AND CHILTON

The attention of The Union-Banner has been directed to an advertisement in the Rockford Chronicle of last week of a proposed bil to be introduced in the next legislature of Alabama, the purpose of which is to designate the middle of Coosa River as the boundary line between Chilton and Coosa counties; and also between Shelby and Coosa counties. We do not know what it is that has caused Coosa county to become so interested all at once in this matter of the dividing line between herself and her neighbor counties across the Coosa; but it would be a safe bet that this interest is aroused by the fact that the Alabama Power Company is to begin this year to assess taxes on certain large items of its property along the Coosa River, which has been for the past ten years exempt from taxation. Coosa is not positive under present existing statutes and decisions just what her western boundary is. Therefore she does not know just whether or not she shall have a portion of this Alabama Power Company assessment. Hence the effort to definitely fix the boundary line between Coosa and Chilton at the middle of the river, thus making sure that a good portion of the Alabama Power Company's property will fall within the boundary line of Coosa.

The existing statutes regarding this mooted question are somewhat indefinite. While there are some interpretations and opinions of the high courts of the country upon certain related propositions that are very explicit as to such boundary lines. Altogether the question will be an interesting one, and its definite settlement by the enactment of a specific bill will placate the minds of many people in both counties who have no doubt given the matter much thought since the Alabama Power Company began the development of its water power holdings on the Coosa River.

KILBY WANTS MORE MONEY DRY LAWS IN THIS STATE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.—Thomas E. Kilby, governor of Alabama, told Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, today that for adequate enforcement of the prohibition laws in Alabama, more federal officers and more federal money were necessary.

The governor gave it as his opinion that Alabama was doing its part in the matter of enforcement. In view of lack of federal officers and men, conditions in Alabama were as good as could be expected, the governor said, and added, it is understood, as good as conditions in any other state.

The governor presented to the President statistics furnished him by Alabama authorities today of the number of men serving sentences for violations of the prohibition laws, but was unable to furnish figures relating to those in the penitentiary for distilling.

Meeting Confidential

Following the meeting with the President, Governor Kilby declined to discuss with this correspondent what had taken place. He declared the President had requested that governors regard the meeting as confidential, and that he felt impelled to act accordingly. From another source, however, it is learned that Governor Kilby made no attempt to deceive the President as to conditions, and that he told the story just as he knew it to be. In fact, it is learned that Governor Kilby's attitude was the attitude of all the governors. No attempt was made to brush away with a gesture the fact that the laws are violated in all the states, it is said, The discussion was reported to have been frank and for that reason, to have pleased the President.

It is said that the President and the governors agreed that the problem is serious, and that to solve it a more perfect alliance between the states and the federal government was necessary.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION

There was hardly a quorum present at the teachers examination of Chilton county when called by Supt. Foshee Monday morning. A total of five applicants were registered, which, according to the superintendent is the smallest number ever known at an examination here.

Those taking the examination were:

Arthur Leon Pierce, of Clanton, Route 6, for a third grade certificate.

Clydie Mims, of Clanton, Route 2, for a third grade certificate.

When You Are Constipated.

VALUE OF ALABAMA CROPS MORE THAN LAST YEAR

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 18.—Farmers of Alabama received for their crops this year $85,295,000 more than they received for their production last year, according to a statement issued Monday by F. W. Gist, agricultural statistician, following an estimate of the federal and state crop reporting service. Mr. Gist found the total value of the crop this year to be $266,741,000 compared with $181,446,000 last year. The estimate also showed that 8,615,000 acres were in cultivation this year compared with 7,877,000 acres last year.

The average value per acre this year was placed at $31.30 compared with $23.04 last year. A great part of this increase was due to the higher prices paid for farm products this year, though the average yield was higher than last year.

The total value of cotton produced in Alabama this year was placed at $100,200,000 compared with $46,400,000 last year. The estimate showed the total production this year to be 835,000 bales compared with 580,000 bales last year.

Corn was given a total value this year of $45,839,000 compared with $36,338,000 last year. Total production of corn this year was 50,942,000 bushels while the total production last year was 58,609,000 bushels.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chaberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? Sold By Upchurch Drug Company, Clanton, Ala.

SHERIFF CONTEST IN CLEBURNE POSTPONED

Bad roads and swollen streams prevented the contest hearing of Sheriff Benton Adams against H. J. Jackson in the circuit court of Cleburne county on Monday. Sheriff Adams was the only party to the suit able to reach the court house at Heflin. Judge A. P. Agee, Judge Hugh D. Merrill, Q. V. Fitzgerald went from Anniston to Heflin Monday morning. James B. Sanford and Ben. H. Harrison, both of Talladega, joined the party in going to the Cleburne town for the contest.

They returned to the city Monday afternoon and reported that the roads and streams in Cleburne were in such bad shape following the heavy rain of Saturday night and Sunday that travel was almost impossible, and that Mr. Jackson and his witnesses, who live within a short distance of the Georgia line, were unable to reach the court house because of a washed out bridge. Sheriff Adams instituted a contest against Mr. Jackson just after the general election in November, allegations being made that the republican sheriff-elect had qualified as a citizen of Georgia a few years ago and that he was not eligible to hold office in Alabama.

The contest was postponed until December 28.

USELESS POLITICAL PREJUDICE

The Union-Banner does not consider it worth while to consume any time or space in answering the tirade of political prejudice that was published on the front page of last week's Chilton County News relative to the election contest. The article we refer to certainly cannot be considered as very weighty because in the first place the fellow who wrote it was not man enough to sign his own name to it. He who wrote it must be either ashamed of himself or his writing, or both, or he would have signed his own name in order that his readers might know the source of those "brilliant" thoughts. Then again the things that were said in the article were altogether foreign to the subject of the contest, and fraught with a spirit of the bitterest political prejudice. The whole thing sounds to us like the rasping of an idle lawyer who is seeking to bolster up some fainting hearts by the recitation of those prejudices which he dwells upon at such length with the hope that he may be able to get his hands on a good nice fee by "helping" push the contest through.

The Union-Banner is not in favor of prolonging political strife and prejudice among our people. Such a spirit is detrimental to our social, business, civic and religious interests throughout the town and county. We always have enough political strife in our campaigns, and it would be better if we stop it there.

But by political strife and prejudice, we need not necessarily mean sible to have an election contest that is not acctuated by prejudice. And unless we can have a contest without such prejudices, it can accomplish no good.

Just as we said in the beginning, we are ready and willing for Brother Messer to have a contest if he thinks right and justice to himself and his party demands it. But if he wants a contest let him and his friends who are with him put up a good and sufficient bond as is required of them by the law. The officers whose duty it will be to make the cost of the contest out of the sureties on the bond are doing nothing but their duty under the law when they take the utmost precautions to see and make sure that the bond in such cases is all right and in conformity with the requirements of the law in every respect.

We do not blame an officer for getting suspicious of a bond when half a dozen of the most substantial men whose names appear thereon have taken steps to withdraw from the same.

Up to this time the names of G. A. Coleman, J. P. Lawrence, J. W. P. Murphy, D. I. Deramus, W. A. Gulledge and S. L. Gibson have been withdrawn from the bond. It seems from the above list that there must be something going on in the minds of others besides "one poor little garage man in Clanton."

We do not know why these men have withdrawn their names from the bond, but we would guess that they have been disappointed in this "contest" before it has really developed into a contest. We know of many good honest men in the Democratic party who are able to see the designs of those who are clamoring the loudest for a contest. Many have already come to the conclusion that the whole scheme has been hatched out by a few of the Democratic bellweathers solely and only for the purpose of political persecution and personal aggravation of Judge Reynolds. These are aided, of course, by a few lawyers who want a fee. We are happy to know that there are not many of the Democrats who endorse this plan of prolonging political strife among our people. Perhaps it is the case with those who have quit the thing by taking their names off the bond. They are doubtless already disgusted with the plan of procedure.

One of these men said when he withdrew from the bond that he signed the thing, not knowing that it was a bond, but being informed by the man who presented it to him that it was a subscription list to raise money to pay the expenses of the contest.

Again we say that we are ready for the contest when Brother Messer gets his bond fixed up properly. We said that in the outset; we have not taken it back; we will not take it back.

But if we have a contest, we want it to be strictly a contest, dealing with what happened on Nov. 7th, and not a frame-up of some kind to stir up all kinds of political prejudice and personal abuse.

NEW DRUG FIRM AT JEMISON

Messrs. H. T. Watkins and W. A. Darby, formerly of Fairhope, Ala., have bought out the drug business of Dr. McNeill at Jemison, and will continue the firm under the name of Darby Drug Company. Mr. Watkins is a registered pharmacist.

The Darby Drug Company, in addition to their prescription business, will carry a complete line of staple drugs, patent medicines, toilet articles, stationery, and in fact anything that is usually found in a first-class drug store.

Mr. Darby, the senior member of the firm, has a family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Dr. Fitzhugh. He has bought the J. F. Wells home in Jemison, and will live there permanently. Mr. Watkins did not tell us whether he was married or not; but if he is not, we venture that he will soon get "captured" by some one of Chilton's winsome lassies.

The Union-Banner welcomes these people to our county, and we hope that they will find a prosperous future in business and a happy home at Jemison.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS FOR HOGS?

Mr. John W. Baker, of Baker Schoolhouse, was a visitor to our office Wednesday. He stated that he killed his meat hogs last Wednesday and we believe he has a good record for weights. He had three which weighed 456, 470, and 511 after they were dressed.

We would like to know if anybody can beat this record of Mr. Baker for large hogs. When you kill yours weigh them and send us the weights. It will be interesting to know who kills the biggest hog in Chilton county.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

In our issue of Dec. 7th, we carried a news item about the splendid work which the Chamber of Commerce of Clanton has undertaken in the interest of not only Clanton, but Chilton county as a whole. In the same issue, we carried an editorial, clearly lining ourselves up in support of this movement, and earenstly soliciting the full support and cooperation of each and every one of Chilton county's residents. And our support did not stop at our editorial desk, but we dug down into our pockets and put some financial help behind it, too, as numerous others have already done.

This paper fully realizes the almost limitless possibilities in Clanton and this county and frankly says to all of its readers that unless each and every one of us puts our shoulder to the wheel and helps to put these advantages before the rest of the world, we are not only overlooking the best chance of our lives to make our county one of the best, if not the best, in the South, but we will be committing an unpardonable crime against our county and those progressive citizens who are giving their time, effort and money to establish manufacturing industries here to utilize the resources all around us and help us develop our agricultural possibilities to the limit.

We are in a position to know the best way to tell others about ourselves, and congratulate the directors of the Chamber of Commerce on the contract which gives Clanton and Chilton county advertising throughout the entire country, which would cost several thousands of dollars if this advertising was contracted for the ordinary way. The Southern Opportunities Co. are devoting their entire efforts and facilities to bettering and helping to develop Southern communities, and they are equipped to do us a real service in a way that we could not do for ourselves, and at but a fraction of the cost.

Many of our citizens and merchants have subscribed freely to help the good work along, but we are sorry to learn that some others have not shown the spirit of co-operation which had been expected. This we are sure is not intentional on their part, nor a lack of interest, but is undoubtedly due to a lack of understanding just what it is all for.

We know that there is not a county in the whole United States that has a citizenship as near 100 per cent in loyalty and interest as Chilton county has, and we sincerely hope and believe that each and every man, woman and child will, in this matter, lay aside all differences of opinion as to politics, religion, business, dogs, or what-not, and link themselves into an endless, unbreakable chain of human determination to make this the best county in the South. We can do this by subscribing to the booklets and general campaign of advertising which the Chamber of Commerce has under way. Every one of us will derive a tremendous benefit, and it is the unalterable duty of every one of us to help just as much as we can, by placing as many of these booklets as we possibly can, in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce for distribution. If you can't buy a large number, buy as many as your means will permit, but at any rate buy some of them, even if it is only one or two. But by all means do something, and let's go over the top with this campaign in a real, worth-while manner. Now, all together—let's go.

Note—Don't wait to be solicited or asked to join this movement, but drop in to see, or send your bit to Victor J. Heard, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Clanton, Alabama. Booklets 50c each.

Lutherans Surprise Pastor

Someone got mind of the fact that Sunday the seventeenth of December, was the sixty-second birthday of the Rev. W. Petterson, pastor of Lutheran Church of Thorsby. As Sunday was the day on which the confirmation class, which has received instruction in Bible, Catechism, and Christian Doctrine, was to be confirmed, while Communion was to be celebrated at the evening service, the surprise planned for the pastor had to be postponed till the day following. It was a very disagreeable day as far as the weather was concerned, but that did not deter the parishioners and friends of the minister from gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Carlson in the early afternoon. Having been invited for dinner, he was blissfully ignorant of the real meaning of the arrival of large numbers of people that came with baskets and packages of all sizes and descriptions, and he was busily engaged in a serious consideration of the great world problems, when Capt. James B. Hutchinson stepped up to him and in eloquent words told him that he was the object of a deeply laid and well concealed conspiracy, the purpose of which was to present him with birthday presents and a sum of money as an expression of how glad they were that he had lived so long. Two of the gifts were particularly suited to the occasion and the needs of the guest of honor. A fine fountain pen was given him as a personal gift from the popular Captain, because he (the Captain) knew that the minister once in a while was possessed of an uncontrollable desire to scribble, and as the minister is a Minnesota man, the Captain had shown the exquisite tact of buying a Minnesota pen. Other friends had found out that the minister often had been in the dark, so that he needed more light, and they thought a flashlight was what might be appreciated. Another gift consisted in three boxes of real linen "mouchoirs," all of which the pastor accepted with suitable expressions of gratitude.

After this ceremony was over, the whole party of guests, who filled all the rooms of the Carlson's beautiful home partook of delicious refreshments, and the afternoon was spent in pleasant conversation.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with an abundance of roses.

Altogether the occasion was a very happy one, and many expressed the wish that it might find frequent repetitions. Many who otherwise would have been present were absent due to the inclemency of the weather, previous engagement, or unavoidable duties.

Those present were: Mrs. M. J. Soberg, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grenn, Mr. Andrew Grenn, Miss Ida Green, Miss Marie Grenn, Mr. Robert Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Dyrhood, Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Ekblad, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Thorsby Institute will close for the Christmas holidays on Friday afternoon, December 22nd. At two o'clock a Christmas program, consisting of Christmas records, songs and readings will be given in Bates Hall. A cordial invitation is extended to any of the town people who may wish to be present at this program.

The Misses Helen C. Jenkins, Emily B. Ellsworth, Lois Leech and Katherine Perry of Thorsby Institute faculty will spend Christmas vacation in New Orleans.

Mr. Davis Cleckler has bought the interest of Mr. Jim Pate in Pate Brothers store, and will conduct the business in connection with Mr. Sam Pate as a partner.

The Christian Endeavor Society met at the Congregational Church on Sunday night of Dec. 17, at 6:30 as usual. A very interesting program was rendered on the subject of "The Gains of Fidelity," with Miss Susie Adams as leader. We have a very wide-awake society. The officers and chairmen of committees meet once every month to make plans for the coming month. Last Sunday night was the regular time for this meeting, which was held at the Congregational Church at 6:00 o'clock. Very good reports were received from the committees.

Confirmation in the Lutheran Church

On Sunday, Dec. 17, a class of six were confirmed in the Swedish Lutheran Concordia Church, Rev W. Petterson, officiating. The following were confirmed:

Eva Marie Grenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Grenn, Charleston, Va.; Mabel Grace Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard; Rosa Elizabeth Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson; Verner Samuel Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Carlson; Carl Ragnor Ekblad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Ekblad; Mr. Palmer Melvin Lefstead, son of Mrs. Johanna Lefstead, all of Thorsby.

The church was beautifully decorated in ferns and roses.

The service consisted of a sermon by the pastor, a vocal solo by Miss Agnes Gerald, examination of the catechumens, and confirmation with public confession of faith by the six confirmees at the altar, a certificate of confirmation and a beautiful Bible, the latter a gift from the congregation, were presented to each confirmee.

Miss Naemi Turnquist was the organist. A capacity audience attended the morning service. At the Communion service in the evening, all the confirmees with their parents, together with twenty-six other communicants of the church, thirty in all, partook of the Lord's Supper, according to the solemn rites of the Lutheran Church.

The Annual Christmas Program of the Helen Keller Literary Society was presented in Bates Hall on Saturday, December 16th. The President, Truman Pierce, presided over the meeting and Mary Ella Gerald filled her position as Secretary of the Society. The story of the Christ Child was read by Miss Robinson. The first number of the program was a Pantomine "A Christmas Dream" that had been originated in a most clever way by Miss Catherine Perry. The characters were presented most delightfully and entertainingly by members of the Literary Society. Marvin Lowery, the small boy, was put to bed by his mother, after having signified to her the articles he wanted for Christmas and having pinned the list on the mantel piece for Santa Claus to see. Miss Mattie Scott acted the part of the mother.

In the second scene the small boy had a dream in which all the things he has wished for appear before him. Santa Claus appeared and down from the chimney pulled first two jolly clowns who danced very cleverly. The clowns were in most attractive costumes. In real life they are Bernice Rogers and Ruth Duke. Then came the Jack-in-the-box, a real box and a real Jack and even the real noise that a Jack-in-the-box makes for Jerome Wilson appeared able to interpret just how a Jack-in-the-box should act. Two lollypops, Miss Floy Jackson and Miss Cola Ruffin appeared from the fire place and acted their parts very gracefully. Dorothy Butler as a French Doll showed careful training and as is usually the case with French dolls, stopped in her motion abruptly and had to be wound up by Santa Claus who was really Ralph Whittle. The last of all came the Alabama Coon, Yancey Kelley, and when he set his feet to flying all the other characters must needs follow.

In the last scene the small boy realized that he has been dreaming but he does really receive his Christmas gifts.

By careful attention to details, Miss Perry was able to present this pantomine in a way that was very pleasing to an appreciative audience.

A double quartet composed of Esther Johnson, Claudie Smith, Verona East, Bernice Williams, Gerald Smith, Spurgeon Kelly, Glover Smith, and Monroe Adams, sang "Calm on the Listening Ear of Night" in a very pleasing way.

Three pretty Japanese maidens, most becomingly dressed in the fashion of that country, told in song their story and of the fate that befell them at Christmas time. The parts were taken by Miss Lois Primm, Miss Ethel Hornsby and Miss Ruth Gerald.

The Christmas calendar in which the Spirit of Christmas Time was taken by Miss Lois Primm was given by thirty-one students, one for each day of the month. Each day was represented by a recitation or a Christmas Carol. The song Christmas-Time was given by the chorus.

Readings were given by Miss Verona and Miss Cola Ruffin.

The closing number of the program was a Christmas Miracle Play called "The Gift," written by Miss Catherine Perry. The prologue given by Miss Myrtle Jones is as follows:

List ye all who here would see
An old-time Christmas mystery
Of how the Spirit of the Shrine
Of Christmas giving, pure, divine,
Spake to the hearts of men on earth
That all of high or lowly birth,
Or rich or poor alike, should bring
A loving tribute to the King.
For unto him who brought the best
Of gifts should be given all the rest;
And for a sign whose gift should prove most dear,
To him the Christmas Angel should appear.
We cry your patience now to see
This old-time Christmas mystery,
For come what may of good or ill,
We celebrate our Christmas still,
And many to the shrine would bring
Some special Tribute to the King.

Wealth, Beauty, Envy, Power made offerings and they were refused but when the Pilgrim offered his heart the beggar was transformed into a Christmas Angel and then the Madonna was visible in her beauty. The setting and artistic finish of the play and the presentation were appreciated by an audience that was indeed fortunate to be able to see an original play so well produced by its author.

Miss E. J. Robinson, librarian, will go to Birmingham and Miss Clara Pearson, Eighth Grade teacher, will go to her home at Eclectic, Ala. Mrs. Martha Hunter and Miss Fairbanks will remain in Thorsby.

So far as is known every student in the boarding department will return to their respective homes for the holidays.

Mr. J. W. Vinzant has sold his Barber Shop to Mr. Leonard Lowery and has moved with his family to Union Grove settlement, where he will conduct a saw mill business.

Mr. M. J. Soberg has been ill at his home since last Saturday but is reported to be improving.

The Confirmation Services at Thorsby Lutheran Church, last Sunday were of an impressive and interesting character. Six children of members of the church, assumed for themselves the vows made for them by their parents, while in infancy, and manifested by their answers under examination, that they understood the principles of a Christian faith. The church was well filled, as there were many from other denominations present, and Rev. Petterson delivered a strong sermon, regarding the universal character of true Christianity and the fact that it does not rest on the particular creed or polity of any particular denomination, but in Faith and Practice of the Spirit manifested in the life and works of Jesus Christ.

Some people seem to think that the world is turning upside down, and the devil is let loose. But to careful observers it is evident that there is a definite lowering of denominational fences and more and more is the prayer of Jesus being answered. Father May They All Be One Even As We Are One. During a tour of several months the writer took the opportunity to attend services in churches of various denominations. Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Baptist, Methodist, Congregational, and Catholic. And in every case the sermon was a strong exhortation to Faith in God and a life of self sacrificing Christian service. Furthermore we noted that the Hymns were mostly used, that for many years have been common to all denominations, so that wherever one goes he can heartily join in this part of the worship because it is famaliar.

ALABAMA FARM NOTES.

By F. W. Gist.

The estimated production of cotton in Alabama this year amounting to 835,000 bales, was grown on 2,945,000 acres, averaging 135 pounds of lint per acre, according to F. W. Gist, federal and state agricultural statistician in a statement made after receiving the final figures from his Washington office. This compares with a crop last year of 580,000 bales, grown on 2,269,000 acres, an average of 122 pounds of lint per acre. The increase in acreage this year amounts to about 32 per cent, while the yield is about 10 per cent better. Getting away from a rather bad start last spring, with very heavy weevil infestation, weather conditions throughout the entire season were favorable, both for growth and harvest, and the final out turn was better in all sections than was expected, except, possibly, in a few of the northern counties.

The value of this crop is more than double that of last year. At the December 1 price of lint and seed the 1922 crop is valued at $112,425,000, while the crop of 1921 was worth $55,600,000. The December 1 price this year was not the highest, and probably most of the cotton was sold above that figure.

	1922	1921
Northwest section ...	44,000	28,000
Tennessee Valley	137,000	127,000
Mineral section	67,000	40,900
Northeast section ...	60,000	53,800
Blackbelt west	78,000	42,300
Blackbelt east	120,000	76,000
East central section	110,000	78,300
Southwest section ...	14,000	3,100
South central section	74,000	44,800
Southeast section ...	131,000	90,200

Madison county will retain first place this year with a probable production of 32,000 bales, while Dallas will probably be second with 29,000 and Limestone with 27,000. Covington nearly doubled her crop of last year, with 20,000 bales against 11,200.

The annual bird supper and banquet of the Brotherhood Sunday School Class of the Jasper Methodist Church was held in the basement of the church. More than 200 men and women participated in this sumptuous affair, including the members of the Brotherhood Class, their wives and church officials in general.

Considerable interest has been aroused over the official announcement that Gen. R. E. Steiner, Alabama commander of the American Legion, that early in next year he intends to institute a campaign throughout the Tennessee Valley for the purpose of increasing the membership of the legion from this end of the state.

Bessemer Furnace No. 2 of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co. has been blown in after having been shut down for about five weeks undergoing repairs. This furnace was formerly operated on manganese ore, but will be blown in to be operated on foundry.

A verdict for $40,000 against the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was awarded J. W. Green in the Dallas County circuit court. Green had sued for $50,000 damages for being put out of the union because of remarks he had made four years ago during the World War.

Disappointment was noted in Alabama industrial circles on the announcement through press dispatches from Washington that the Interstate Commrece Commission had denied the application for reduced freight rates on pig iron from Alabama to points in Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky.

Dossy Rivers, slayer of Carl A Brill, deputy sheriff of Mobile county, has lost his fight for life in the supreme court as the court ordered him hanged in the Mobile county jail Friday, January 26.

No street venders will be permitted to operate in Birmingham during the holidays, according to the statement of D. E. McLendon, president of the city commission.

According to the crop reporting agent for Pike County, Jeff Starling, Pike had ginned up to December 1, 17,564 bales of cotton. Up to the same period last year Pike had ginned 12,688.

Athletic Authorities at Auburn have given out the information that the Army was again placed on the Plainsmen's schedule for 1923. They will meet in West Point, New York, Oct. 20, the date having been moved up one week over this year's date.

Several Birmingham hotels, prominent clubs and a large number of grocery concerns are serving or selling quail or ducks in violation of the game law, according to statement made by J. H. McCollester, state game warden.

RESOURCES OF STATE EXPLOITED IN EXHIBITS BY ALABAMA POWER CO. AT NEW YORK ENGINEERING CONVENTION

By Rosalie Armistead Higgins.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Alabama has been widely advertised many times, and in many ways, but it has remained for the Alabama Power Company to give it the most extensive and what will beyond a doubt prove the most lucrative advertising which the state has yet received.

Here, in New York, Alabama has been to a large portion of the population, just a state far South of which they knew little and perhaps cared less for it lay beyond their ken. But of the 50,000 people who visited the National Exposition of Power and Mechanical Engineering, held this week at the Grand Central Palace, it would be a safe statement that not one failed to stop at the booth of the Alabama Power Company.

Long before the visitor reached the booth, a tremendous sign beckoned and awakened interest. Done in black and red lettering, it read "Alabama Has More Natural Resources Than Any Other Like Area In the World." The day I visited the show, when it was literally packed with people despite a steady downpour of rain, I was standing at the extreme end of the building from the Alabama Power Company, when I heard a couple of men say, "Suppose we walk down and see that booth telling about Alabama; I've always wondered what they had so far South anyway."

Naturally I followed them, and on arriving there found an interested crowd viewing the varied pictures of Alabama scenes which the power company had assembled. W. J. Baldwin, an official of the company, was in charge and was explaining to a large and attentive group the wonderful industrial, mineral, agricultural and other resources of Alabama. On a large table was literature from different cities of the state, including Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile, Opelika, Alexander City, Demopolis, Samson, Roanoke, Andalusia, Bessemer, Tuscaloosa, Fairhope and numerous others telling in concise form the advantages offered by each and illustrated with photographs.

The Alabama Power Company invited every town in the state to send literature and all having such literature readily responded. Civic organizations to the number of 15 in the state lent their moral support to the splendid idea of the booth maintained by the power company.

It was particularly interesting to note that the Alabama Power Company was the only company developing power which had any exhibit whatever, and that Alabama was the only state in the union advertised.

Mr. Baldwin was being plied with questions from persons all over the United States, and particularly from men engaged in engineering work, with now and then a more or less timid query from their wives who accompanied them. Some of the questions asked him and comments made were worthy of a place in a Sunday supplement.

"I have always thought I would like to live South—in fact, I would really like Alabama, but I'm afraid of cyclones," said one woman. Mr. Baldwin promptly assured her that he was born and reared in Alabama, that he had never seen a cyclone terred him, the terribly hot weather.

"We never have a heat prostration, and that is more than you can say about New York," was Mr. Baldwin's reply.

An ice manufacturer was discussing the possibilities of the South for his business, and was told by Mr. Baldwin that it was the very climate of all others in which he should locate, as ice was used 12 months in the year. "But," the man complained, "I didn't think the people of the South had money to buy ice." He was promptly assured that the South was far from being poverty stricken, and that the people would have money to buy his ice if he decided to come there.

And then a man interested in cotton mills came along. He, too, approved of Alabama heartily, but he could not stand the idea of negro labor in the cotton mills. He expressed the greatest astonishment when he was told that only white labor was employed. Visitors came from California, Nebraska, Iowa, from everywhere, even from several foreign countries, and there was one engineer from India.

Few of those who visited the booth of the Alabama Power Company knew that Alabama has more navigable streams than any other state; that it has more potential hydro horsepower than any state; that it produces more graphite than any state, and that the South furnishes 90 per cent of all of the aluminum used.

"Power can be bought cheaper in Birmingham than in Niagara Falls," said Mr. Baldwin to a man who was inquiring about rates. "I wonder if you know also," continued Mr. Baldwin, that the country around Birmingham is the only country in the world producing coal, iron and limestone, all three of which it takes to make steel? Not even Pittsburgh can boast that."

In the Alabama Power Company booth, were numerous photographs which were viewed with interest by the throng. One was a view from an aeroplane of the 120,000 horsepower hydro-electric development under construction at Mitchell Dam on the Coose River, located 14 miles down stream from Lock 12. A view of Lock 12, with its picturesque scenery and also of the company's 20,000 horse-power reserve steam plant at Gadsden were also shown.

One of the fascinating features of the Alabama Power Company exhibit were three motion pictures which were shown daily, entitled, "Electricity at Work," "Mines and Metals," and "King Cotton." These pictures which were intensely interesting, were free to the visitors to the Grand Central Palace, and during the week thousands availed themselves of the privilege of seeing them.

The Alabama booth received wide praise and the magazine, "Power," published by the McGraw-Hill Company, will contain in an early issue an article on the exhibit of the Alabama Power Company.

The entire state will profit largely by the exhibit of the Alabama Power Company and the advertising which Alabama received in New York City could not be purchased for thousands of dollars.

The thousands of visitors who came to the Grand Central Palace might never read the story of Alabama regardless of where it was printed, but when Alabama's splendid resources were told to them personally, they showed eager interest. The Alabama Power Company has already engaged space for another exhibit at the Chemical Show next September.

The Value of Land Abstracts

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

AN EARNEST STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce states that he is very much pleased at the co-operation of many of the merchants and citizens of Clanton and Chilton county, in the task which the Chamber of Commerce has undertaken—that of compiling and publishing a booklet illustrating and describing this city and county, and setting forth the many most desirable inducements for real, worth-while people and industries to come here and become a part of us, investing their money, brains and efforts toward making this one of the busiest and most progressive spots in the entire South.

However, the Secretary states that there is a decided lack of co-operation and assistance on the part of some, most of which he feels is due to the fact that these people do not fully understand the object and motive of the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to do something of real value for this community and county. Therefore, it is essential that each and every person in this entire county should understand and realize that he or she will derive a direct benefit from this campaign to put Chilton county's and Clanton's almost unlimited inducements before the balance of this country in an attractive and clear manner, and thereby bring more money and people here to help us develop our resources. It is also exceedingly essential that everyone do his or her part toward helping in a financial way, by subscribing to as many of these booklets as possible. Everyone can do something, no matter how little it may be. No loyal, self-respecting citizen of a community allows anything for the good of his or her community to go by without a helping hand, and as Chilton county has, we believe, no less than 100 per cent of citizens of this type, the Chamber of Commerce should, within the next week, at least, have the name of each and every citizen of Chilton county on its list of subscribers, no matter how small their subscription may be.

The fifth annual session of the Southern Forestry congress will be held at Montgomery during the early part of next year. State Commissioner I. T. Quinn has been notified of the acceptance of the invitation and told to fix the date. There are 400 delegates in the convention of the congress.

The second brood of army worms has appeared in the cotton fields of Madison County, and, in places, is stripping the foliage from the plant. Cotton experts have been urging the farmers to prepare for this and the planters are now being advised to dust their cotton with poison to protect it from the insect.

An electric transmission line which will furnish light and power to Normal and every suburban home and farm north of Huntsville for a distance of five miles has just been completed by the Alabama Power Company.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Thedford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Try Black-Draught.

MONTEVALLO PASTOR GOES TO GEORGIA

At the close of the morning services of the Montevallo Baptist church last Sunday the congregation was deeply saddened by the reading of a letter from Pastor W. D. Ogletree, tendering his resignation. He has accepted a call from the Baptist church at Hawkinsville, Ga.

Rev. Ogletree has been pastor of the Montevallo church for five or six years, and had grown very popular with his flock. Early this year he refused to come to Clanton at the call of our Baptist church.

It seems particularly fitting that Brother Ogletree should go from Alabama to Georgia, for in spite of the fact that we regret to lose such a good man as he, still we have in the past year gotten from Georgia one of the best preachers we ever had, in the person of Rev. S. J. Ezell of the Clanton Baptist church. Therefore in order to pay back to Georgia that which we received of her, we are willing for Montevallo to make the sacrifice and send Bro. Ogletree.

Montevallo will not suffer the loss very long. They have a live and hustling church there, and it is a sure thing that not many months will pass before they have another pastor to take the place of this one. But it will take a good one to fill his pulpit and pastor the church as he did.

School Day United Farmers Dec. 30th

Perhaps the biggest need of the country today is education. To this, farmers, business and professional men all agree. The wisest man of the world said: "Get knowledge." We may or we may not agree that this applies to every individual, rather than some particular individual or class. Some men seem to take pride in being ignorant of certain rules, laws or principles. Nevertheless, that does not lessen the force of Solomon's language: "Get knowledge." Some men shut their eyes to keep from seeing the rats. We believe in better schools, better churches, better roads, better farmers and better citizens in general. In order to bring this about the individual must be reached. One must be educated to do his or her part—bear his or her portion of the load. When something is to be done we are too prone to want the other fellow to do it. Many a farmer would like to live on a well improved farm instead of the old "run down" place on which he now lives. Why not improve this place and make it what you want it to be? "Oh, I'm going to let the other fellow do that." Did you ever hear a statement like that? Is the farmer the only guilty party of a thing like this? No! Many a good little town has been spoiled by its citizens depending upon the other fellow to make it a "big" town. Some of these towns have had a whirlwind boom but when the wind ceased the boom ceased and the last stage was worse than the first.

We believe that the South is suffering from the fact that she is sending too much of her money out of the country, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with all commercial organizations in helping secure more and better factories, and such other institutions necessary to the full development of the South's trade and commerce. How can we secure these factories and institutions? By education, organization and co-operation. Other countries have made a success in this way. They made it with much less capital and natural advantages to start with than we have. Now they are rich while we are poor. Can we not profit by their experience? Can we not learn the lesson from four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceedingly wise. The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meet in the summer. The conies are but a feeble folk yet make their houses in the rocks. The locusts have no king yet go they forth all of them by bands. The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in king's palaces.—Bible.

The ant says: Make the preparation. The conie says: Make a sure foundation. The locust says: Stay together. And the spider says: If you want a palace—a good home—a good town and a good country, take hold with your own hands and be a builder.

The Lord smiles upon our dear southland in more ways than He does upon any other country in the world.

With these lessons before us, if every individual will catch the building spirit, get into the harness and give a lift and a pull we will go forward.

In order that we may know each other better, and what is best for the organization and the county every United Farmer in Chilton county is requested to be in Clanton on Saturday, December 30, 1922.

The Odyssey of a Dollar Bill

Washington, Dec. 26.—"The Houston 'Post' has been conducting a 'spend it at home' campaign which should be imitated in our national business policies," declares the Republican Publicity Association, thru its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Recently the editor of the 'Post,' having received a dollar bill as part of his weekly salary, attached a piece of blank paper to the bill, wrote his name on the blank and then spent the dollar at a local department store for some handkerchiefs. He asked that the recipient of the bill write his name on the blank sheet of paper and spend the money in Houston so that it would be used to build up Houston trade, and also requested that each person who received the bill write his name on the sheet attached thereto. In two days that dollar bill had passed through the hands of 24 merchants in Houston.

"Nominally, the editor of the 'Post' is a Democrat, but at heart he is manifestly a good Republican. The Democratic theory is to 'buy where you can buy the cheapest.' The Republican principle is to buy at home. Abraham Lincoln illustrated the Republican principle many years ago when, in discussing the tariff question he said that if we buy some foreign goods, the foreigner has the money and we have the goods, but if we buy goods made at home, we have both the goods and the money. The editor of the Houston 'Post' has been giving his home people a practical demonstration of the working of the Republican principle.

"Starting his story of the travels of the dollar bill, the editor declares that 'if every dollar earned in Houston were spent in Houston this would be the most prosperous city in the country. Money would be instantly available for every civic need and every just request would be immediately satisfied.' Of course the editor knows, as everyone else does, that Houston does not produce all it needs, and, for climatic reasons can not do so. But, so far as practicable, observance of the doctrine laid down would produce the results he describes. The same thing may be said of the nation. If every dollar earned in America were spent in America, this would always continue to be, as it is today, the most prosperous country in the world.

"After the Houston dollar bill had passed through the hands of 24 people, it returned to the editor, presumably in part payment of a subscription, and this is what the bill said to the editor: 'I hope that I won't fall into the hands of some disloyal citizen who will spend me away from Houston for I like it here and I want many of my brothers to settle in Houston as quickly as they can. I was made to work and I want to work in Houston.'

"Experience has demonstrated that there are a lot of disloyal citizens in the United States who go abroad to do their buying, if given an opportunity. The only practical method of discouraging that sort of trade is by imposing a tax on buying abroad, and this is known as a protective tariff. That protective tariff keeps the dollars working in Americanpassing from hand to hand, paying for goods and for services, and adding to the prosperity of the nation.

"The whole United States should express its gratitude to the Houston 'Post' for its impressive exhibition of the home-building effects of buying at home instead of pursuing the Democratic policy of buying where you can buy the cheapest. We hope the 'Post' will join in the effort to have the American dollar spent for ocean transportation in American ships instead of for transportation in foreign ships, which carry the dollar abroad to build up the industries of other countries."

Osmond Middleton Moves Back Here

The Union-Banner is indeed glad to state this week that Hon. J. Osmond Middleton has moved back to Clanton from Mobile, and will engage in the practice of law here again. This will be pleasing news to the large number of friends of Mr. Middleton throughout Chilton county.

No announcement is made yet by Mr. Middleton as to the location of his offices, but his arrangements will be completed by the time his law library arrives, upon which further definite announcement will be made.

Mr. Middleton says he has been doing well since he went to Mobile but he has never been satisfied since leaving Chilton county. We are glad he has made up his mind to come back with us.

In Memory of Little Pearl Williams

On Dec. 14th about 5 o'clock a.m., the angel of death visited the home of Mrs. A. R. Scott and bore from their midst the spirit of her little daughter, Pearl Williams, age five years.

Little Pearl received a severe burn by falling into a boiler of boiling potash soap on Dec. 7th which reached from her little shoulders almost to her knees. Dr. John Eiland was summoned to her aid and for seven days all was done that a kind and faithful doctor and friends could do to save our little Pearl, but all in vain. The poison from the potash penetrated through her little body before it could be checked, causing her death.

Little Pearl was the youngest child by a former marriage of Mrs. Scott and was loved by all who knew her. She ever wore a smile for those who knew her and in death wore a smile such as a soul with God can wear. So let us be reconciled to God's will, knowing that He can and does give sweet peace and "a resting place that is dearer and sweeter than any earthly home here."

To her mother we would say, cheer up and take courage, for Pearl is only another jewel in heaven and waiting for us, and to her many relatives we would say, "weep not" for little Pearl, she has missed the many sad trials and heartaches of this life and exchanged them for joys and praise in a better, brighter world.

A place in her home is vacant this Xmas that none can fill, but God can give us comfort and cheer, so we ask His blessings and care on all the bereaved ones, and may His Divine presence fill her absence in our hearts and let us rejoice with our Pearl instead of mourn her absence, for we feel sure she is rejoicing in a sweet home eternal in the heavens, awaiting our coming up there.

Written by one who loved her,
IDA SCOTT.

A 700-POUND HOG

Circuit Clerk Ordered To Approve Bond

Judge McMorris of the Circuit Court of Chilton county last Saturday, granted the mandamus proceedings of Mr. Messer against M. D. Foshee, Clerk of the Circuit Court, and ordered him (Foshee) to approve the bond of Messer which had been filed as surety for the costs of the contest case of Messer against Judge Reynolds. Mr. Foshee immediately appealed to the Supreme Court from the decision of Judge McMorris, and filed bond for the costs of appeal.

The hearing in the circuit court before Judge McMorris consumed all of last Saturday, and was attended by a large number of interested citizens.

Hon. Fritz Thompson, of Birmingham, was leading counsel for Mr. Messer. Mr. Foshee was represented by Hon. O. D. Street, of Guntersville, Hon. J. Osmond Middleton, of Mobile, and Messrs, Omar and Grady Reynolds, of Clanton.

It will likely be several weeks before a decision from the supreme court will be made.

Another Real Estate Deal of Importance

Dr. J. Earle Gowan announces the consummation of a real estate deal whereby he has disposed of the business lot on the corner of Third Avenue and Seventh Street east of the railroad, to the Clanton Motor Car Company. It is said that the purchasers of this property plan the immediate construction of a building thereon to take care of their Ford distributing plant and auto repair shop.

This will be the first step in the development of the new business section of Clanton which is being pushed by Dr. Gowan. His plans are for the erection of business houses on Third Avenue from Sixth Street to the L. & N. railroad, and the opening of Third Avenue across the railroad to the Methodist church.

The possibility of the new state highway coming into Clanton by way of Seventh Street makes this section particularly attractive, and its future development is made sure.

No Wonder Folks Get Well at Hospital

If you will just stay around the Central Alabama Hospital for a few days and observe how the nurses up there attend to the wants of the patients you will say no wonder a fellow gets well when he goes there. Why, the way they take care of a fellow up there would cure him without any medicine.

Miss Gardner, the superintendent, assisted by Misses Gandy, Moates and Aldridge, are always on the alert to see that proper attention is given to every want of the patients.

Jesse Baker Elected County Treasurer

At the meeting of the Commissioners Court last Thursday, Mr. Jesse Baker was elected as Treasurer of Chilton county. There were a total of eleven applicants for the place.

Mr. Baker is a well known and popular business man of Clanton, having been for many years interested in the business of the Clanton Produce Co. His selection as our county treasurer, it is believed, will meet with general satisfaction throughout the county.

Cancel Debt Means Heavier Taxation

Washington, Dec. 26.—"The taxpayers of America, and holders of government bonds as well, should feel reassurance from the announcement of Congressman Burton, a member of the International Debt Funding Commission, that he is opposed to cancelation," says the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "He is in accord with the spirit of the law enacted by Congress.

"Within the unpleasant memory of several millions of holders of Liberty bonds, those securities were selling at 85 cents on the dollar. If events should disclose a probability that the United States would yield to the debt cancelation propaganda, there can be no doubt that those bonds would again drop to 85 cents or less. Confidence that this administration or any other administration that can be selected will not cancel the debts, keeps the bonds near par in the markets of the country.

"But a drop in the market value of Liberty bonds is the least of the evils that would result from cancelation. The foreign debts amount to $11,000,000,000, a small part of which probably will never be paid. But the greater part of the debt will be paid in time, with the same rate of interest the United States is paying for the money it borrowed to loan to Europe. The United States now has outstanding a funded debt of some $23,000,000,000, nearly half of which represents money borrowed to loan to Europe. The people of the United States must tax themselves to pay off some $12,000,000,000 of those bonds, in any event, and, if they cancel the European debts, they must tax themselves to pay off the whole amount.

"This country is now staggering under the burden of taxation. Sales of real estate for taxes are not uncommon and the whole financial system of the country is disturbed as each taxpaying day comes around. This burden would be greatly increased by the cancelation of the debts, necessitating provision for payment of all the bonds and interest by the people of this country instead of a due proportion by other nations that got the money raised on about $11,000,000,000 of the securities.

"Mr. Burton very appropriately calls attention to the fact that 'the proportionate increase since 1914 of debt and taxation in the United States has been greater than that of our principal associates who were engaged in the war.' There has been a general tendency to accept the theory that Europe alone is groaning under a burden of debt and taxation. Under our complicated system of Federal, state, county and municipal taxes, it is practically impossible to make definite comparisons but it may reasonably be doubted whether the people of any of our associates in the war are now paying more heavily into public treasuries than are the people of the United States.

"Debt cancelation propaganda should be earnestly resisted by every American taxpayer and by every owner of United States bonds."

The alpha and omega of life are to have all the comforts you can consistently pay for. There is nothing so conducive to comfort as a good bed. Let us make yours comfortable.SYLACAUGA MATTRESS CO. 12-14-4t-pd.

Santa Claus Visits Central Ala. Hospital

Old Santa Claus was very generous indeed at the Central Alabama Hospital this Christmas. He opened wide the mouth of his bag of good cheer and bestowed his remembrances on all who were upon the scene.

His first appearance at the hospital was about three o'clock last Friday morning when he left a gift supreme for the editor of The Union-Banner—a fine baby boy. Can you imagine a finer present than that?

At different intervals from this first visit all through the Christmas season he called at the hospital and left many nice things for the nurses and patients who were there. Dr. Gragg also came in for his share of the good things.

The greatest demonstration of real old time Christmas joy was seen when Louvenia Pearson, the hospital cook, arrived on Christmas morning and emptied the stocking which she hung up for Santa on the night before. As she began to go into the packages one by one, a great smile broke over her ebony countenance. This smile soon grew into an outburst of cheer, then a real shout for joy as another package was opened. Before the bottom of the stocking was reached and the last of its contents beheld the joy got into her feet just like it always does a nigger, and then the real fun started. Just such dancing and general celebrating as was never seen before then took place, and all was hilarity in the kitchen the rest of the day.

But Louvenia did not let her joy keep her from preparing a most superb Christmas dinner of turkey and cranberry sauce, etc., to the delight of the nurses and patients at noon.

The editor of The Union-Banner and Dr. Gragg had the pleasure of sharing this splendid dinner by invitation of Miss Gardner, the hospital superintendent. May we be pardoned for the hope that this privilege may return again on another Christmas day?

Miss Gardner, Miss Gandy, Miss Aldridge and Miss Moates did not outwardly demonstrate their joy as much as the cook did, but the gentle smiles that played over their faces revealed joyful hearts that were glad because of the remembrances of many friends.

Our Santa Claus happened to be a stork this time. Thank goodness he brought a boy.

That decision of Judge McMorris last Saturday seems to be quite consoling to the Democrats who hope to "contest" Reynolds out of the probate office.

This Christmas came nearer to being one of the old-time kind than any we have seen in years. Everybody had some money to spend and a season of real Christmas cheer was brought to everybody.

Most of the merchants in Clanton are well Pleased with their Christmas business. The stores look like a cyclone had hit them and literally blowed away their stocks of Santa Claus goods. Prosperity makes a happier Christmas than anything we have ever seen.

Mr. B. C. Apperson and Mr. Sewell, of Birmingham, are spending Christmas with homefolks near Stanton. Mr. Apperson is the son of D. M. Apperson of Beat 8. He is the editor of The Grocers Journal of Birmingham.

Miss Ruth Roy, of Deatsville, underwent a tonsil operation at the Central Alabama Hospital last Sunday. Miss Roy is a student of Thorsby Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. McKee, of Highland Home, spent the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends in Clanton. Mr. McKee says he is getting his saw mill business straightened out now and expects a prosperous business the coming year.

MR. HARDING'S CALL.

President Harding is a worker. He has known few idle hours since March 4, 1921. While government was in process of reconstruction, after years of chaos such as stable government never before knew, he carried the loads of every department of administration if those departments were not fully functioning.

It was a tremendous undertaking. Only a man of his great physical fitness, and of his fine mind and spirit, could have withstood the strain those burdens—his own and the cares of others—placed upon him.

The President now calls upon Congress to emulate him in tremendous effort. He asks that the people of the country do each an individual citizen's part in furthering national welfare.

A wonderful reaction to his appeal has resulted.

Friend and opponent everywhere that fair-mindedness is a cherished sentiment pay tribute to Mr. Harding's earnest appeal for larger work in legislation, for swifter applying of remedies at hand and much needed for strengthening industry and commerce, for every effort which a need of the nation demands shall be put forth in advancing that nation's good.

The Times has forecasted important recommendations of Mr. Harding in his last message to Congress. It has been apparent that the Interstate Commerce Commission must be enabled to do the work for which it was created, instead of some important tasks being delegated to new authority without actual authority. Agriculture has required credit facilities rather than artificial stimulus which could be but temporary in its nature, and bring after-effects freighted with evil. Government must function capably and fearlessly, after eight years of an administration in which favoritism and incompetence had direction of some of the people's most vital affairs, to the prostrating of almost every phase of administration of law.

Mr. Harding is not taking a new position. Those carping critics who love to paint him as inept and inactive seek now to show that he has been stung into drastic efforts. Nothing could be farther from the truth. He is calling every resource of the country to the work he has been carrying on since he became President. It is a fine call, and the response—both in Congress and throughout the land—is cheering alike to the executive and to all who desire earnestly that this republic shall as speedily as possible return to the even ways of its best living before the war.—St. Louis Times.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the serious diseases. CHRISTMAS AROUND THE WORLD

The Christmas services at Friendship Baptist Church last Saturday night proved to be a decided success. The Christmas play entitled "Christmas Around the World" by a dozen little boys and girls was very approped very nicely by the little folks. After the play some three or four tableaus representing the birth of Christ were staged by the older ones, which brought out the Christmas idea very distinctly. One of the nicest items on the program was a soliloquy on the birth and life of Christ delivered by Mrs. Miller of Clanton. This was splendid indeed.

After the program a committee of little girls was appointed to deliver the presents to the people as they were taken from the Christmas tree. This was a part of the affair which interested the entire audience, and much joy and merriment was manifest throughout this hour.

All in all, the exercises was a grand success.

PATE'S CHAPEL

Several events have occurred around Pate's Chapel lately. One that was of interest to every one was the marriage of Mr. Ben Gibson and Miss Martha Dawson. We wish them many happy years of happiness together.

Another thing of interest to the community was the Christmas exercises and Christmas tree at Pates Chapel on Friday night. Behavior was good during the program. One of the attractions of the night was the Jazz Band. Another was the Negro Farce, Stick to Yo' Word Gal, during the presentation one of the young men, Mr. Monroe Franklin got a barrel of water turned over on him. Santa Claus came down from Washington in the form of Mr. Fred Merchant.

The singing at Pate's Chapel Sunday afternoon was fine. Directors for the evening were Mr. J. A. Cleckler, Harrison Hayes, Chester Maddox, Nora Franklin, Mae Maddox, Pearl Cleckler, Sybel Maddox, Zemma Hayes, Lillie Cook and Mrs. Evie Childress. Organists were Miss Mae Maddox, Miss Nora Franklin and Mrs. Evie Childress. Mr. Roscoe Maddox is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maddox, during the vacation to get something to eat.

Come to see us at Pate's Chapel. We will give you a hearty welcome. Preaching first Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Lowery.

BLEED THROUGH

LOMAX NEWS

Editor Union-Banner:

Will you permit me to say a few words in behalf of our Savior who came to this world nineteen hundred and twenty-two years ago today, who is the Savior of all men, especially those that believe.

Now, to believe is to keep His sayings.

Now, I want to say to the readers of The Union-Banner who have ears to listen to what I have to say.

I want to say a few words in regard to the church that this Savior established when here on earth.

We shall first notice what David said in the fifteenth of Psalms. He says, "Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle, who shall dwell in thy holy hill?"

The answer is this: "He that walketh uprightly and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart; he that backbiteth not with his tongue nor doeth evil to his neighbor nor take up a reproach against his neighbor. In whose eyes a vile person is condemned, but he knoweth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt and changeth not, he that putteth not out his money to usery nor taketh reward against the innocent,—he that doeth these things shall never be moved."

This is the way that the inspired writer described a citizen of Zion.

Now, we shall notice what our Savior has to say about it.

We notice in Matthew, 16:13, which reads as followh: "We asked his disciples, saying 'whom do men say that I the son of man am?' and they said 'some say that thou art John, the baptist, some Elias and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He sayeth unto them 'But whom say ye that I am?' and Simon Peter answered and said, 'Thou art the Christ, the son of the living God,' and Jesus answered and said unto him, 'Blessed art thou Simon, Bargona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my father which is in heaven, and I say also unto thee that thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it, and I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven and whatsoever thou shall bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven."

This is, indeed, wonderful to think of, that God has hidden these things from the wise and prudent and has revealed them to babes in Christ. You know that some people think that the meeting house or the congregation is the church of God. The congregation may be if they have complied with what David says in the fifteenth chapter of Psalms, but if it is filled with the wise and prudent it is not the church of God.

We learn that we enter God's church in obedience to grace which is a divine teacher, which is not revealed by flesh and blood or by the wisdom of man, but just like Peter by revelation from God, which is of spiritual material.

That is why the gates of hell can't prevail against it, altho they may cast you out of the synagogue and deprive you the use of school houses, but they will never move the man or woman that is walking uprightly and working righteousness.

Now, to get into this kingdom, as I understand it, after being taught of this grace which is a divine teacher, is to obey its teachings. To prove that grace is a divine teacher I will refer you to Titus 2:11, which says: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lust." We should live soberly, righteously and godly in this world.

I notice a lot said in regard to having the blood applied, but never hear it explained how it's done. As I understand it, it is applied in this manner. For instance—God, by his grace, has showed you that you are a vile and wretched sinner.

This teacher begins to instruct you, you begin to leave off your sins and repent of all ungodliness.

When we do this we are citizens of Zion and abiding in his tabernacle.

Then we have put on the wedding garment, ready to meet the bridegroom, also ready to be presented to the father without spot or wrinkle.

I praise God for such plan of salvation. It is free, but it cost our Savior his life, and it will cost us our life to stay in this holy mountain.

You will have to die to the ways of this sinful world. We will have to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service.

"My dove, my undefiled is one,
Just as the Spirit, Father, Son,
And Christ the king of saints shall reign,
Amid the Church who praise His name.
The Church of God will stand the test
In this she differs from the rest,
Upon her head, she does depend,
While others get their aid from men.
The nations of this earth are bent,
To try and make her discontent,
But still she holds in sacred trust,
The words of God, the wise, the just.
The great and wise shall come to naught,
True wisdom never has been bought,
So when they make a final stand,
They'll find they've builded on the sand.
The Church of God the glorious King,
Will stand upon the rock and sing,
To Him, who saved them by His grace
And took them in His fond embrace.
His Church is built upon this rock,
And He, the keeper of His flock.
"The gates of hell shall not prevail."
These are His words and cannot fail,
Though oft with grins and snares beset,
His promise true, she'll not forget,
He will be with her to the end,
To shield her from designing men,
While anti-Christ is raging 'round,
The gospel trumpet still will sound.
Although they compass land and sea,
How blank and void their work shall be,
The millions spent upon their lust,
Shall perish with them in the dust,
And not one soul to God be brought,
They will have spent it all for naught."

Respectfully,
J. H. JACKSON.

Reports from Coosa River state that the waters are lowering following the flood stage of last week. The heavy rains in the northern part of the state caused a sudden rise last week, and the fact that the surplus water could not get by the escapements at Mitchell Dam as fast as the river rose caused a flood of the area between Mitchell Dam and Lock 12.

OAK HILL

Christmas was quiet around here this time and everybody seemed to have a good time, and especially Sunday evening, for we had one of the best singings we have ever had; although very much disappointed because the Clanton Quartette did not come, but we had some good solos and quartetts by our home talent and some of the best class songs the writer ever heard. Everybody was interested and eager to sing or hear the good songs by that great class of good singers. Vice-president E. L. Glasscock, in his usual good natured way, made everybody feel welcome and enjoy themselves splendidly. Come again friends; you are always welcome.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

FIRE AT FOREST LUMBER COMPANY WEDNESDAY

When fire broke out in the yards of The Forest Lumber Co. at Clanton Wednesday afternoon, the high wind that was blowing produced a serious situation, threatening destruction of the entire plant. The blaze started from the shaving pile which has been burning for the past two weeks. Fighting the fire was a tough problem, as the whole place was enveloped in heavy smoke from the smoldering pile of wet shavings and the men could not see where to throw the water with the hose.

The flames were brought under control after much difficulty and the destruction confined to a few large stacks of lumber.

The Christmas entertainment for the Congregational Sunday School was held Sunday evening and consisted of recitations and Christmas stories and singing by members of the various classes, and was altogether a pleasing service.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Church Society will be held at the church on Wednesday night, Jan. 3, beginning at 6 o'clock, when it is hoped that members and all others who consider this organization as their church home, and are contributing to its work and support, will consider themselves invited to be present to share the social enjoyments of the hour and learn from the reports of the pastor and officers of the church, something definite as to its activities during the past year and some of its plans for the coming season.

The Ladies' Guild of Thorsby will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald on Thursday afternoon, December 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Norton entertained a few friends at their home Christmas night, or more properly speaking, gave them an opportunity to entertain themselves, as each guest was expected to take part in a program consisting of such "stunts" as they were prepared to contribute, and everyone was ready promptly to "do their bit" when called on. Phonograph music, stories, recitations, songs, short acts and games were interspersed in pleasing variety. Light refreshments were served and finally the company were treated to a ration of exquisite popcorn prepared in the kitchen from a sample the host and hostess brought with them from Michigan when they returned from their summer outing and mentioned in Mr. Norton's "Notes of Travel" in the Oct. 12th issue of The Union-Banner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Butler, the Misses Margaret and Dorothy Butler; Mrs. Martha Hunter, Miss Fairbanks, Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald and son Sumner, Misses Agnes, Ruth, Mary Ella and Iola Gerald and Mr. Walton Bracken.

Some people are disposed to take offense because they are not notified by letter, from the editor, when their subscription expires instead of stopping the sending of the paper, according to law, when as a matter of fact, they get such notice with every paper they receive. The small figures on the address label give the month, the day, and year, when the subscription expires. Having been told at least fifty times in a year when the paper will stop if you don't "watch out" it seems hopeless to think a letter would do much good.

The Value of Land Abstracts

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

Better Flour—Better Biscuits

The best cook in the world can't make good biscuits with poor flour. You owe it to your reputation as a cook to use the highest grade of flour you can buy.

There is no better flour made than Gilster's Best. It costs a little more than ordinary flour, because we pay a premium for our wheat—and because the flour is ground finer and sifted oftener. But you can taste the quality in your biscuits.

If you prefer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.
